OIL AUCTION MAY SET NEW RECORD

Permits Not Needed

Alaska Highway Open To Travel

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Restriction on tourist and pleasure travel over the Alaska Highway has been removed and permits to travel over the route will no longer be required, Resources Minister Glen announced yesterday.

The announcement said an increase in travel facilities and accommodation along the 1,523-mile route has made it possible to lift the restrictions. Previously the war-built gravel strip from Dawson Creek, B.C. to Fairbanks, Alaska, was held for military use and permits to travel over it were limited mainly to persons having business reasons for using it.

"An important contributing factor" the statement said, "has been the establishment by the Canadian government of public camp grounds at several locations along the Alaska Highway in Yukon Territory. These camp grounds, which are available to the public without charge, provide cooking and dining shelters containing stoves and tables, and are strategically located in pleasant areas providing access to fresh water."

ANTICIPATING a heavy influx of tourists, the minister suggested that prospective travellers not equipped for camping make arrangements for accommodation in advance.

The general information circular relating to the Canadian section of the Alaska Highway, prepared by the lands and development services branch of the department of mines and resources, has been vised to indicate the new policy governing travel on the highway, and copies will be available from the following sources: editorial and information section, department of mines and resources, Ottawa; Canadian government travel bureau, Ottawa; British Columbia government travel bureau, Victoria; and the provincial publicity and travel bureau, Edmonton. This circular contains information concerning the highway and travel facilities and accommodation available on the route.

RCMP Says OK Needed North Trip

Edmonton RCMP officials today said travel permits still were required for travel on the Alaska Highway.

In conversation with the Edmonton Bulletin this morning, an official of the Alaska Highway Information and Permit branch of the mounties said they had received no "official notification from Ottawa on lifting of restrictions."

"As far as we are concerned here, permits are still required for travel over the highway. While we

Mayor Ainlay Urges Trans-Canada Road

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Establishment of a federal highway commission to advise and co-ordinate efforts for the completing of a paved highway across the Dominion was urged on the government yesterday by a delegation headed by Mayor Harry Ainlay of Edmonton, president of the Trans-Canada Highway System Association, and Mayor A. W. Macpherson of Saskatoon, vice-president.

A CABINET COMMITTEE composed of Fisheries Minister MacKinnon, Resources Minister Glen, Agriculture Minister Gardiner, Trade Minister Howe and Labor Minister Mitchell promised consideration.

The delegation was particularly concerned with the highway from Winnipeg to Vancouver. It is urging the paving of the present road from Winnipeg to Edmonton and on to Jasper Park. It would join up the road west of Jasper with the paved road out of Vancouver that now runs to Rayleigh.

WHILE THE association favors the Yellowhead pass route through Jasper, the speakers stressed the urgency of a final decision as to the route and a federal commission to further such a decision.

Puppet President Freed of Treason

MANILA, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Dismissal of treason charges against Jose Laurel, puppet president of the Philippines during the Japanese occupation, became a formality yesterday. Motions for such an action were signed immediately after the house completed the enactment of a Senate-approved resolution granting amnesty for wartime political collaborators.

Barbara in Lead As Tests Delayed

DAVOS PATZ, Switzerland, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Softening ice today forced pastponement of the world's figure-skating championships after Barbara Ann Scott took a decisive lead in the compulsory-figures phase of the event.

The thaw came at the lunch interval after the fourth of the six compulsory figures had been skated. At that point Barbara Ann led the British champion, Jeannette Altwegg, with 632.3 points to 622.3 for Miss Altwegg.

The remaining compulsory figures will be skated tomorrow, along with the free-style events.

In third place was Eva Pawlik of Austria with an unofficial 612.6.

Toronto's Suzanne Morrow, who came third with Wally Distelmeyer of Toronto in the world pairs event earlier in the week, held eighth place with an unofficial 579.3. But Marilyn Ruth Take of Toronto dropped to 10th place with 565.5. Earlier she had been ninth.

Want Facts, Not "Goat" On Prices in Canada

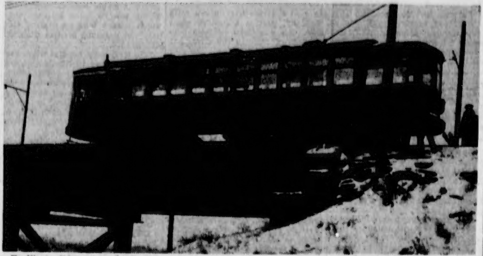
OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Health Minister Martin, chairman of the commons price committee probing the causes of inflated Canadian prices, reiterated last night that "we are not out to get anyone—we are out to get the facts."

"If we can be shown there is no profiteering and no hoarding that's fine," he added in an interview.

"On Monday we will have some useful information to make public," said the minister, who declined to divulge conclusions of the steering committee which met to decide on witnesses and the targets to be pursued immediately.

It is understood, however, that Graham Towers, governor of the Bank of Canada, will testify, along with Labor Minister Mitchell and possibly Agriculture Minister Gardiner.

Tram Breakdown Disrupts South Side Traffic



Traffic to Edmonton's South Side was disrupted Saturday morning when a south bound street car went off the tracks on the south end of the high level bridge. The tie-up occurred at 7:45 a.m., and traffic was restored to normal at 9:30 a.m. It was caused by a broken journal on the street car. The tram was just completing the run up the incline of the bridge, with the front truck on the bridge, when the rear truck left the tracks. Track crews were rushed to the scene and the car was replaced at 9:30 a.m. During the tie-up, gasoline buses were placed in operation from 109 street to 104 street and Whyte avenue. Street cars routed over the high level bridge were turned at the 109 street and 97 avenue wye.

Strong Enough to Hold Own

Jews Ready for Arab Attack

JERUSALEM, Feb. 14.—(AP) — Hagana's military commander said today the Jewish organization is strong enough now to hold its own against Arab attack.

ALTHOUGH HAGANA wants United Nations help, he said, it is prepared to win against the Arabs without much aid if necessary.

The commander's views were given in written replies to questions submitted to him by the Associated Press. Because Hagana's formal status as a Jewish militia is still on the borderline of recognition, his identity is a secret even to most Jews.

The answers brought out these main points:

1. Hagana needs arms more than manpower.

2. At most an international force of only a few thousand is needed to supplement an armed Hagana.

3. The prerequisite to any effective military action against the Arabs is withdrawal of the British forces.

4. Hagana's present policy of "aggressive defence" probably will be changed to "attack" sometime after May. 15. This would include Hagana offensives against Arab concentrations in Arab territory if the war continues.

"WE WILL BELIEVE the United Nations will not let itself be killed as an authoritative force in international affairs by some relatively weak Arab states," the commander's answers said.

"We believe that political efforts of the Jewish agency's representatives in the United States will bring about creation of an international force which will assist us in establishment of a Jewish state, which has been decreed by the United Nations."

"If this proposal does not come off for reasons of international, political or technical difficulties, we believe the time will come when we will be able to bring in large and serious consignments of quipment for Hagana or the Jewish militia. . .

"WE ARE CONFIDENT we can even now successfully repel all attacks, naturally not without losses and even defeats, for that is war. But we can hold our own in Palestine now and inflict serious military and economic damage upon the Arab attackers."

Ol' Man Winter Returns —And With a Vengeance

Old Man Winter returned to Alberta with a vengeance overnight, sending the mercury hurtling to sub-zero temperatures, and showering snow over almost every part of the province.

Temperatures in Edmonton dropped to five below at 6:30 this morning.

Close to an inch of snow blanketed Edmonton during last night, with other minor falls being recorded throughout the rest of Alberta.

And here's a word of warning from the local weatherman—"Don't be caught without your earmuffs and mukluks over the week end." The forecaster visions continuing cold weather (the high for today being zero in Edmonton) with drifting snow for most of the week-end.

But Edmonton is not alone in its Arctic atmosphere. From Coronation to Lethbridge, temperatures all took a rapid drop. The Yukon and most of Saskatchewan reported icy blasts, with weather there continuing clear and cold.

Many provincial side roads are plugged today.

Sees High Costs Till Economic Peace

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Until the arrival of economic peace, Canada's living costs will continue at a high level, Finance Minister Abbott said in an interview here yesterday.

Mr. Abbott remarked that the Canadian worker and housewife are victims of the current "economic war" between opposing camps in Europe.

The minister foresaw little danger of military war but said he believed strife in the economic field had to stop before present unsettled conditions can be restored to a relatively even level.

Foreign Loans Excluded

Govt. Surplus Jumps Ahead to $741,313,889

OTTAWA, Feb. 14—(CP)—Surplus in the Canadian treasury at the end of the first 10 months of the current fiscal year jumped ahead to $741,313,889 compared with $646,230,921 a month previously and $354,226,458 a year ago, it was shown today in the monthly report of the comptroller of the treasury.

THIS SURPLUS does not take into account loans to the United Kingdom and other governments, amounting to $384,450,030, which amount could not be included in the surplus as a cash asset, since the loans were provided for out of the total surplus. On this basis the actual surplus would amount to $356,863,859.

The monthly statement of receipts and disbursements showed that from April 1, 1947 to last Jan. 31, unrevised revenues amounted to $2,304,212,935 and expenditures to $1,562,899,046.

In the same 10-month period of the previous fiscal year, total revenues were $2,318,510,530 and expenditures $1,964,284,072.

THE INCREASE during the last month reversed what has been described as the usual downward course in the closing months of the government's fiscal year.

With the mounting surplus, there have been various demands for drastic slashing of taxes in the next budget, scheduled to be brought down in about two months.

However, the reductions may be less than anticipated—particularly if the government pursues its policy of maintaining taxes at high levels during periods of high national income to cushion the effects of any low periods.

Alta. Oil Income Shows Big Jump

Alberta oil development is reflected by an increase in provincial receipts as shown in an interim financial statement issued Saturday by C. K. Huckvale, provincial auditor, covering the nine-month period ending Dec. 31, 1947.

Receipts from fees and rentals for petroleum and natural gas areas were up $251,391 to $417,918. Receipts from royalties were up to $523,375 from $390,037, an increase of $133,338.

Guard Military Information

Soviet Silent About "New Army"

HALIFAX, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Brig. J. V. Allard, C.B.E., D.S.O., Canada's military attache in Moscow for the last two years, said in an interview last night the Russians are developing a new army but "aren't interested in divulging military information."

Occasionally, he said, the Moscow press announced that "a military-dog team had departed on an exercise to a destination in the far north," but officially the only information they received had to be "picked up" by reviewing a parade of selected portions of the Moscow garrison on Red Square.

Interviewed aboard the Liner Aquitania, on which he arrived en route to take up his new post of commanding officer of the eastern Quebec area, the tall 34-year-old brigadier shrugged his broad shoulders when asked if the Russians had changed their attitude toward Canada following the espionage trials in Canada in 1945.

"I arrived at the time of the trials," he said, "and there was no mention of them made to me."

He said the foreign military staffs had little outside contact with the officials of the Russian foreign department.

"There were no official restrictions on travel either in Moscow or to any part of Russia. I could drive anywhere in the city.

"In order to travel to another part of the country a person had to obtain tickets from the official tourist bureau and these included hotel accommodations. The physical discomfort involved in train travel made that prohibitive, but I could have flown anywhere. . . .

"Very few of the people in Moscow seem to realize North America exists, and the only comment comes from the press. You can't tell if it is the voice of the Soviet party, the people, or the trade unions, but it follows the same daily pattern, generally unfavorable to the western powers."

Imperial Oil Takes Rights 11,250 Acres

Prospect of a new record sale of mineral rights was seen by oil men here Saturday, when the Alberta government announced assignment of oil rights in the Woodbend township, covering 11,250 acres, to Imperial Oil Ltd.

THE IMPERIAL rights cover half of the township, according to Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of lands and mines. Prospective auction would cover balance of the rights in this township.

Some oil men pointed out that the government has given no indication of plans for an immediate auction of remaining rights in Woodbend township, and that Alberta may hold its portion of the lands indefinitely.

Recent auction of two 40-acre plots in the Leduc-Calmar field brought record royalty bids to 72½ and 62½ per cent.

LANDS AFFECTED in the deal are in Township 51, Range 26, W4. Imperial has selected a block four miles square immediately surrounding the well, along with half-sections in corners of the township. Remainder of oil rights rest with the government.

Legal description of lands on which the company now has mineral rights is: South half of Section 1, north halves of Sections 2, 3, 4, 5; south half of Section 6; all of Sections 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 17, 20, 22, 23; north half of Section 25; south half of Sections 26, 27, 28, 29, 36.

The successful Woodbend well is on the south half of Section 15, and thus is in the centre of the block selected by the company.

THE GOVERNMENT may offer rights on the balance of the land at public auction, for competititve bids based on royalties or cash bonuses, and may offer its entire share as a block.

No area smaller than 160 acres may be offered unless a geographic division occurs which makes the auction of a 40-acre legal subdivision necessary, Mr. Tanner stated earlier this week.

Imperial Oil will pay an annual rental of a dollar an acre on its holdings, plus other charges made against leases, and will also pay the government a royalty of 12½ per cent on production.

Liquor Profit Is 7 Million For ¾ Year

Alberta Liquor Control Board income in the nine months of the fiscal year which ended Dec. 31 gave $7,000,000 in profits to the general revenue fund of the province.

No detailed board statement is given in the interim financial statement issued Saturday by C. K. Huckvale, provincial auditor, but the amount is equal to the sum turned over to the government at the same time, and for the same period, in 1946.

Net profit on the sale of liquor in Alberta was up $11,641 over the 1946 period to $7,878,123. Of this amount $7,000,000 was the government's share.

Soviets Alerted For U.S. "Spies"

MOSCOW, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Red Star, Soviet Army newspaper, warned Russian soldiers today to be on the watch for American spies.

"The Bolshevik party warns the Soviet people it has enemies striving to deprive it of freedom and independence," Col. V. Miskovski wrote in the army publication.

The article warned against Russians "infected with a feeling of slave-like imitation of Bourgeois culture." Miskovski said United States and British agents make use of such citizens.

The article urged a more intensive political education for Russian soldiers.

"Politically backward persons frequently are not able to see through the evil, sly plots of foreign intelligence operators," Miskovski said, "and, even worse, can even become victims of spies themselves."

New Citizens Coming

Canada Speeds Up Immigration Influx

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The speeding up of examination in Europe and the increasing availability of shipping space to the Dominion is finding Canada with a rapidly-increasing immigrant population.

WITH MORE THAN half of its 73,000 total made up of people of the British Isles, the 1947 influx swelled into a "new citizens" bumper crop, seeded by most of the European countries as well as the United States.

Excelling its 1947 predecessor will be the 1948 figure, predicts the deputy minister of mines and resources, Dr. H. L. Kennleyside. With emphasis now on the British Isles, two new immigration offices will shortly be opened at Glasgow and Belfast to bring more Scottish and Irish immigrants to Canada and to take the strain from the London and Liverpool offices now functioning.

In addition, Canada plans an air immigration scheme to fly displaced persons across the Atlantic to her shores via Trans-Canada Air Lines at the rate of about 160 a day. This is expected to start in a short time.

BY MAY, CANADA hopes to have 22,000 displaced persons in the country. About 8,000 of these have already arrived.

Figures released by the department of mines and resources today show that the British Isles outdistanced all other European countries combined, accounting for more than half of the number entering the Dominion last year.

WHILE BRITAIN provided Canada with 38,747 immigrants, oddly enough, United States came in second place with 9,440. Total immigration from northern Europe numbered 5,482, including 3,192 Dutch. The Netherlands have available some 20,000 of its people who are willing to stake their faith and future in Canada. Other races contributed 10,458 new Canadians, the largest individual group being 2,610 Poles.

Consider Ban On Communists

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The federal government is considering a ban on the entry into Canada of Communists from the United States, it was learned yesterday.

A section of the cabinet, at least, definitely favors barring Reds from the country, but there is some doubt as to whether the government under existing legislation has power to turn them back.

No definite decision has been reached, but administration, legal and immigration experts are exploring means by which such a ban could be enforced.

Informed sources indicated this was the situation after Prime Minister Mackenzie King—under questioning by Solon Low, Social Credit leader—had given the commons a cautious statement that the Communist question has been "under consideration."

While there have been vague reports in recent weeks that the government had a ban in mind, Mr. Low's inquiry was touched off by this week's statement of Senator Taft of the United States that that country's anti-red Taft-Hartley law was chasing Communists across the border into Canada.

Olson Is Leading In Consols Opener

E. B. (Ole) Olson and his Royal Club curlers, Northern Alberta British Consols champions, were leading the "Scotty" McLaws rink of Calgary 9-8 after nine ends of play in the first game of the best of three provincial championship series being played at the Royal rink today.

Trailing 8-5 after eight ends, Olson made a beautiful shot with his last rock on the ninth to take out McLaws' shot rock and count four.

Both rinks were curling exceptionally well in the early part of this morning's game, members of each rink taking every precaution on each shot.

Olson counted one on the first end and after McLaws picked up two on the second, the Royal curlers came back with a three on the third to take an early 4-2 lead. McLaws tied it up on the fourth, however, and went ahead on the fifth, counting two on each end.

The visitors made it 7-4 on the sixth when Olson, on his last rock, failed to make a very difficult attempt to move the shot rock. McLaws made a good angle raise on his last rock before Olson made his attempt.

Olson came back with one on the seventh to make it 7-5 when McLaws failed to take out the shot rock with his last attempt. Olson had a good chance to count two, but he was about two feet short when he attempted to draw his counter.

Score by ends:

Olson	103 000 104
McLaws	020 221 010

Personnel of rinks:

E. B. (Ole) Olson (skip), Gordon Walker, Wilmot Van Camp, Stewart Smith.

Coal for Holland

THE HAGUE, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—Holland is to receive 300,000 tons of British coal under the new £70,000,000 ($280,000,000) Anglo-Dutch trade pact, it was learned here yesterday.

See Little Hope New N.-S. Route

Little hope was held out that a second north-south highway would be built in Alberta when a delegation of nearly 50 persons met Hon. W. A. Fallow, minister of public works, Friday to request construction of a new road from Drumheller to Smoky Lake by way of Stettler and Mundare.

THE MINISTER told the delegation, headed by A. Moen of Ryley, that shortage of equipment and materials made it very doubtful that the government would undertake any major road construction other than on existing main highways this year.

Dr. J. L. McPherson, Social Credit member for Bruce, sponsored the delegation.

Missing Indian Frozen to Death

CALGARY, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The frozen body of Max Three Sons, 48, of the Blackfoot Indian reserve at Gleichen, was found almost completely covered by snow yesterday five miles directly south of the town, by a search party from his own tribe. He had been missing since Feb. 3 when he became lost in a blizzard en route from the Gleichen C.P.R. station to his home on the reserve. Gleichen is 60 miles east of Calgary.

R.C.M.P., a police dog, and about 60 Blackfoot Indians participated in the search. Police discontinued the hunt Thursday but it was kept up by the Indians.

Arabs Await Heavy Guns To Start Shelling Jews

ATHENS, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Issa Bandak, mayor of Bethlehem, said yesterday that heavy guns now en route to the Arab army will bombard Jewish sections of Palestine "within a few weeks."

Bandak is a member of the Arab higher committee. He is here as an envoy from the exiled mufti of Jerusalem to thank the Greek government for voting against partition in the United Nations.

Bandak said the United States is spending "millions of dollars in the Balkans to oppose communism . . . but opening the door willingly to communism" by favoring partition.

"The establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine will mean a centre of espionage for Russia," he told a reporter.

He described the Middle East as the "first citadel opposing Russian expansion recommended the lifting of some restrictions, we feel everyone should still require a permit," one RCMP official said.

"OUR REASON for this," he continued, "was to ensure that persons anticipating travel there are properly equipped, financially and otherwise. A three-day journey from Whitehorse to Dawson Creek would cost the average motorist close to $25 for food and lodgings alone," he pointed out.

Gasoline facilities along the highway are adequate, it was learned. Motorists need have no fear of being stranded at any point for lack of fuel, an official of the Alberta Motor Association pointed out.

The Association has published a pamphlet listing gasoline stations and other travel facilities along the highway.

Lord Fraser Gets Top Naval Post

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Admiral Lord Fraser has been named to Britain's top naval post.

The admiralty announced last night he will succeed Admiral Sir John Conningham as First Sea Lord and chief of the naval staff next August.

Lord Fraser was in command of Britain's home fleet during the Second World War when the German battleship Scharnhorst was sunk. Later he signed the Japanese surrender for Britain in Tokyo Bay.

Red Cross Worker Dies at Ponoka

PONOKA, Feb. 14.—Mrs. Margaret Ellen Roberts, 73, died yesterday in the municipal hospital here. Mrs. Roberts, who was a well known old-timer, was prominent during her lifetime in Red Cross work.

Mrs. Roberts came to Ponoka in 1911 and was pre-deceased by her husband 33 years ago. Surviving relatives include two sons, William and Hugh of Ponoka, and one daughter, Mrs. R. J. Cobb of Vancouver.

The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at 2 p.m.

Jap Stock Market Going Up—Not Down

TOKYO, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Maybe it's topsy-turvy, but Japan's stock market is going up—not down.

One reason is the decline in United States markets.

Oldtimers in the Tokyo exchange explained: Declining commodity prices in the United States indicate ample world production to Tokyo traders. Thus Japan will have a better chance of getting needed supplies.

Other factors are a general optimism.

Mineral Output Hits High Value

OTTAWA, Feb. 14—(CP)—With output valued at $241,666,000, Ontario—established leader among the provinces in mineral production—accounted for 39 per cent of Canada's 1947 production, which reached an all-time high value of $619,100,000, the bureau of statistics reported Friday.

The report, based on preliminary figures, said the Ontario figure compared with $191,544,000 in 1946, when Ontario's production was about 38 per cent of Canada's total, and $216,542,000 in 1945, when it was 43 per cent.

British Columbia ousted Quebec from second place among producing provinces with an increase to $113,109,000 from $74,623,000 in 1946 and $64,064,000 in 1945. Quebec's production was valued at $110,627,000 compared with $92,785,000 the previous year.

Value of production for other western provinces and the two territories, with 1946 figures in brackets: Alberta, $62,690,000 ($60,083,000); Saskatchewan, $31,988,000 ($24,481,000); Manitoba, $17,289,000 ($16,404,000); Northwest Territories, $2,363,000 ($1,040,000); Yukon $1,674,000 ($1,694,000).

Police Constable Shot and Killed

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(AP)—A plainclothesman investigating burglaries in a North London suburb was shot and killed last night in Britain's first police slaying in six years.

The victim was Constable Nathaniel Edgar, a 33-year-old father and navy veteran. He was found in a road in the Southgate residential section.

Laraine Day, Leo Durocher Cagy On Date

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Laraine Day and Leo Durocher obtained a marriage licence yesterday.

But neither would say when the wedding ceremony will take place.

It was considered certain, however, that they will not delay the wedding beyond Feb. 25, when Durocher is scheduled to leave for his Brooklyn Dodgers' training camp at Santa Domingo.

In obtaining the licence, Durocher gave his age as 42 and said he has been twice married before. Miss Day said she is 27. This is her second marriage.

She and Leo were married in El Paso, Tex., in January, 1947, the day after her interlocutory decree from James Ray Hendricks was issued in California. Miss Day had obtained a divorce in Juarez, Mex., a few hours before. Her California decree became final last Jan. 22.

Seek Release U.S. Marines

SHANGHAI, Feb. 14.—(AP)—United States Marine planes dropped leaflets today in Chinese Communist areas near Tsingtao in an effort to open negotiations for release of four marines held by the reds.

A spokesman for the United States embassy said the navy was in contact with the Communists and "is doing everything possible to arrange their release."

The Chinese Communist radio, in a broadcast picked up by the Associated Press in San Francisco, confirmed yesterday that five marines were captured Christmas day and one of them had died of wounds. The Reds charged the Marines were aiding government troops in an engagement north of Tsingtao, in north China.

United States naval authorities have answered similar charges with emphatic denials. In this case, four marines were on special passes for a hunting trip and the fifth was absent without leave. Their bullet-riddled, burned jeep was found later.

Hundreds Homeless From Flash Floods

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Flash floods last night harassed 6,000 persons in Tennessee, North Carolina, Kentucky, West Virginia and Mississippi. The American Red Cross said 400 families were temporarily homeless in Tennessee alone.

With more rain predicted for today, the Red Cross said it is preparing for any emergency.

One fourth of Shelbyville, Tenn., a city of 8,000, was estimated to be under water from flooding Duck river. Water stood 10 to 15 feet deep in some streets.

The Duck river rose to 48 feet, highest since 1902, at Columbia, Tenn., where a power shortage was threatened.

Relief Reaches Lighthouse Crew

DUBLIN, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—The relief ship Conqueror yesterday reached Black Rock lighthouse, 13 miles off the coast of County Mayo where the keepers had only enough food for another 24 hours.

Ted Hawkins, one of the two keepers taken off, had been in the lighthouse for three months.

Rough seas yesterday forced abandonment of plans to relieve Wolf lighthouse, off Land's End on the southwestern tip of Cornwall, where the crew has been isolated for 32 days.

Five Persons Die As Tornado Hits

NEWTON, Miss., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Five persons were killed, more than a score injured and at least five homes destroyed when a tornado ripped around Newton yesterday afternoon.

The known dead are M. P. Phillips, 61, Mrs. Phillips, 50, Mrs. Virgie Page, 61, Rodell Page, 35. One unidentified person also was killed.

Highway workers were searching debris for possible additional dead.

This Gang Laughs At Superstitions

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Friday the 13th? Pooh! says the national committee of 13 against superstition and fear.

Nick Matsoukas, executive secretary and founder of the committee, gathered the members together yesterday when they went through their ritualistic defiance of the high jinx of Triskedekphobia—fear of 13 to the uninitiated—to prove to all "Doubting Thomases" that superstition is "sheer ignorance."

They broke mirrors and thought nothing of it; lit cigarets three on a match and laughed, passed under a step-ladder with the same nonchalance with which they threw their hats on a bed and opened an umbrella indoors.

Matsoukas, who founded the committee Aug. 13, 1946, is the 13th child in a family of 13 and his name has 13 letters in it.

New Europe Aid Plan Is Proposed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The United States senate foreign relations committee yesterday voted for a four-year European recovery program to be started with $5,300,000,000 for the first year.

Chairman Arthur Vandenberg (Rep., Mich.) announced the committee voted 13 to 0 to recommend the smaller figure for the 12 months rather than the $6,800,000,000 which the administration asked for the program's first 15 months.

The reason behind shortening the time, Vandenberg told reporters, is to enable congress "at the earliest possible moment to make a realistic review of the recovery program."

The amount of the recommended appropriation, he said, actually does not represent a change in the total sought by the state department, except in that it cuts the amount for immediate appropriation.

Attlee Condemns Soviet Communism

OXFORD, England, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—Prime Minister Attlee last night declared Communism was "bred on the continent of Europe in the atmosphere of authoritarianism and brought to flower in the soil of czarism."

Communism, he said, "has turned its back on civilization."

He told the Oxford University Labor Club that the British labor movement has steadily eschewed unity with the Communist party because of fundamental differences.

"Our British Socialism, our Western European Socialism, has its roots in European civilization, in humanism, in Christianity and, in Britain, in our British history," he said.

"We are up against something which has no roots in the past, which indeed tries to destroy the past and has been bred in Russia," Attlee said.

"We were very hopeful when the revolution came to Russia that we were to see a fairly rapid evolution in Russia. I regret we have not seen it, but what we have seen is an inverted czarism, in which people knowing very little or anything but the czarist regime have put a different class in.

"As far as freedom of the individual is concerned they have not progressed very far."

Severe Weather Takes Toll in U.S.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14. — (AP) — Angry elements, lashing out across wide sections of the United States brought death and injury to scores, caused heavy property damage and left thousands homeless today.

Five died in two tornadoes which twisted through east central Mississippi yesterday. More than a score were injured and 32 homes destroyed.

Thousands fled their homes in the south, in parts of Ohio and West Virginia as turbulent waters from rain and snow-swollen rivers and streams flooded lowlands.

The Red Cross in the south prepared for any emergency in view of the flood peril. Many communities in the flood belt were virtually isolated.

Rain, sleet, freezing rain and snow fell from the Rockies to the North Atlantic seaboard. A fresh mass of cold air moved into the northern plains and temperatures dropped rapidly—to below zero in some regions.

The mercury, near the freezing mark in Pembina, N.D., yesterday, dropped to 12 below early today.

Corn and Oats Rise Few Cents

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(AP)—For the first time since the price break in the United States started, Feb. 4, wheat, corn and oats crept up a few cents today and other commodity markets ketpt in step.

Soybeans were the exception in the Chicago pits. They dropped the daily limit of eight cents at the start.

Cotton opened as much as $2 a bale higher. Profit taking and at the end of the first hour buying hedging pared the gain a bit. But cropped up again and prices went ahead as much as $2.90 a bale.

Part of the early demand was believed by traders to have resulted from indications that farmers would start placing stocks into government loans rather than sell at current levels.

Other large grocery chains rushed to join those putting into effect lower prices on a variety of cost-of-living items after the commodity price zreak. The Grand Union company said 27 meat cuts would be tagged lower starting Monday.

Australia-Bound For Cancer Cure

VANCOUVER, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A second Vancouver woman, a victim of cancer, plans the long flight to Australia to seek the aid of John Braund, whose reported cure for the dread disease has attracted international attention.

Pretty Mrs. Ruth McIntyre, 33, who at Christmas was given only a few weeks to live, now is planning a flight to Sydney.

"When you have only a little while to live, you have to try everything," she said. "If I am cured, it will be a wonderful hope for other people, but if not, I am prepared to accept it."

Mrs. McIntyre plans to leave Feb. 22, and Mrs. Jack Northam, 36-year-old mother of two daughters, will leave when sufficient funds are available.

Eskimo Girl To Return Home

FELIXSTOWE, Kent, England, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Rebecca, 15-year-old Eskimo girl who came to England with Mrs. Joan Turner, widow of a far northern missionary, is homesick and will return to the Canadian north in June. Rebecca will travel to Canada with a group of missionaries. Since she came to England, she has helped Mrs. Turner with her two elder children and a baby born shortly after their arrival here.

Executive Secretary Wanted

An Executive Secretary for the newly formed Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society with headquarters in Ottawa. The position requires demonstrated experience in organization work on a national scale, proven executive ability, a keen understanding of public relations and preferably some experience in a related field of health work. The Society is prepared to pay a salary commensurate with qualifications.

Written applications will be received up to March 15th, stating age, education, experience, references, salary required, and any other particulars which will assist in determining the applicant's qualifications for the position. Apply to the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society, Post Office Box 37, Ottawa.

Assn. Urges Removal Of Export Embargo

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The North-West Line Elevators Association, contending recent price declines show western farmers cannot rely on eastern feeders and Canadian maltsters for a continuous demand and price for oats and barley, yesterday urged removal of the embargo against export of the two coarse grains.

The recommendation was contained in a wire to Prime Minister King from Cecil Lamont, association president.

Casual Customers Have Hard Time

VANCOUVER, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The "shop-around" motorist found himself in difficulties yesterday as service station operators here opened a conservation program to meet a motor fuel shortage.

Regular customers got full tanks, but the casual buyer was held to one or two gallons, depending on the supply position of station operators.

Termed a "gasoline war," the shortage followed a three-cent-a-gallon price boost authorized by the British Columbia government, and an immediate ban on imports by oil companies.

Reduction of deliveries by the major oil companies, including Shell, Imperial and British-American, cut available supplies for non-commercial drivers to 54 per cent of last year's supply.

Operators plan to establish a card rationing system shortly. Each station will allot its own customers weekly quotas of gasoline.

See No Increase Residential Rents

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—High government officials said last night they saw no immediate prospect of an increase being granted in the ceilings on residential rents, although they conceded that this control has come up periodically for review along with other goods and services still being restricted.

However, rentals have not recently been discussed, they added.

The comment was made in connection with reports which circulated yesterday that an increase of around 10 per cent is "likely" in the rentals ceiling effective from May 1. Another report said the cases of landlords who heat apartments and duplexes were under consideration.

It was learned, however, that there has been no discussion on rentals in the cabinet, which might conceivably make the first move towards a jump in the rentals ceiling if that was felt necessary.

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The Evening Telegram said yesterday in a newspage story that a survey it conducted showed "scores—perhaps hundreds—of Toronto's smaller merchants will be forced either to pay exhorbitant rentals or go completely out of business early in April."

It adds that a "crisis" is arising by reason of the federal government's removal of rent controls on commercial properties, effective March 8.

"More than a dozen storekeepers have informed the Telegram personally that their rent, as of April, is to be increased by more than 100 per cent and some by as much as 300 and 400 per cent," the paper says.

Asks for Reasons U. Heads Resign

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Reasons for resignation of Dr. A. W. Trueman as president of the University of Manitoba were asked yesterday in the provincial legislature here by E. A. Hansford, C.C.F. leader in Manitoba.

"The public is entitled to an explanation," he said. "This makes two presidents who have resigned in two years. There must be a definite reason why he would resign suddenly and go to a little place like Fredericton, N.B."

Education Minister J. C. Dryden corrected him, saying the previous resignation (that of Dr. Sidney Smith, now president of the University of Toronto) had been four years ago.

During criticism of the government, Mr. Hansford charged school grants were being used by municipal councils to reduce their tax rate, not to improve education standards.

He also suggested that recent talk about too much purchasing power in the hands of the public was in preparation for imposition of new taxes.

Fees of the Manitoba Medical College Mr. Hansford charged were highest in Canada. There were too many permit teachers in the province and too many "petty" restrictions imposed on employees in mental institutions.

He suggested the three prairie provinces combine their universities in order to get a higher standard of teaching and more efficiency.

Eggs for Britain

SAINT JOHN, N.B., Feb. 14.—(CP)—Six freighters in port yesterday were loading 120,000 cases of fresh eggs for shipment to Britain. More than 500,000 cases have already been shipped through Saint John since last November.

Alta. Surplus Tops 4 Millions in 9 Months

Cash Receipts From Ordinary Sources Set New High Record

An overall cash surplus of $4,190,418.00 was built up by the province of Alberta in the nine-month period ending Dec. 31, according to an interim financial statement issued Saturday by C. K. Huckvale, provincial auditor. Total cash receipts from ordinary sources for the period were $40,456,166.00, a new high record exceeding total receipts for the same period in 1946 by $11,397,618.

THE OVER-ALL cash surplus as at Dec. 31, 1946, was $958,006, so that this year's figure exceeds that of the previous nine-month period by $3,232,411.

Receipts were swelled by increases in most collections, with $6,602,586 coming from the new Dominion-provincial tax agreement, which can only be compared with the $436,733 received in the same period the previous year under the war-time tax suspension agreement.

Dominion government subsidies were up $314,959 to $1,232,497 over last year's $917,537, due to an increase in population in the province. Tax payments were $10,870,228 up $2,795,855 over the comparable periods $8,074,368.

Licenses at $4,570,936 were up $604,747 over the previous year's $3,966,188 and fees collected were $4,674,672 up $831,487 from 1946's $3,843,184.

PROFITS FROM trading activities, to which the Alberta Liquor Control Board contributed $7,000,000 were $7,078,550, as compared with $7,010,005 for the previous period, up $68,544.

Largest increase in payments for ordinary services, which totalled $27,556,946, was a boost in the payments to the department of education of $1,864,522 which brings the total for the department to a record $6,123,938. Payments to the education department in the previous nine-month period were $4,259,415.

Public welfare department received the next greatest increase to $5,539,342 from $4,345,651, an increase of $1,193,691. Expenditure on income account for the Public Works department was $3,120,375. This represents an increase of $104,813 over the previous year's expenditure. This does not include the $8,000,000 allocated to the public works department for highway construction, under the heading of capital account.

PAYMENTS UNDER capital account total $10,693,304 as compared to $4,461,085 of the same period a year previously, an increase of $6,232,219, which is offset by receipts on capital account of $3,671,503, to make net capital payments $7,021,801.

Main item in the increased capital expenditure is $8,772,677, as compared to $3,591,045 for construction of roads and bridges, an increase of $5,181,631.

THE PUBLIC WORKS department also expended $1,291,859 for public buildings and other public works as compared to $478,602, the previous period. This represents an increase of $813,256.

Loans and advances under capital account include $100,000 to the Alberta Industrial Corporation Act, which was set up at the 1947 session of the legislative assembly and for which there is consequently no comparable figure.

Payment by the Alberta Wheat Pool of outstanding indebtedness to the provincial government makes a $1,900,000 contribution to the capital receipts. In the previous nine-month period the Pool had paid its regular annual payment of $400,000, but this year's payments cancelled its entire indebtedness to the province.

Speaks on Trend Of French Youth

Philosophical religious trend of the modern French youth will be the subject of an address to be delivered Sunday night by Armand Hoog, a member of the National Council of Alliance Francaise.

Speaking in Amphitheatre 142 in university medical building at 8.15 p.m., Mr. Hoog will go into many phases of his topic.

He is currently conducting a nationwide tour of Canada and the U.S., under the auspices of the Alliance, and will be introduced to his Edmonton audience by Dr. D. N. Healy, local president of the organization.

Agriculture Short Course To Open Here February 24

Sponsored by the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce and the Alberta department of agriculture a three-day agricultural short course will be held in the Masonic Temple starting Tuesday, February 24.

During the opening session of the course, addresses of welcome will be delivered by F. G. Winspear, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and R. M. Putman, director, extension service, department of agriculture.

A HIGHLIGHT of the sessions will be the address by C. Bruce Hill, president of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, who will speak at a luncheon to be held at the Macdonald hotel on Wednesday, Feb. 25.

At the opening session J. K. McKenzie, institute of technology and art, Calgary, will speak on farm power, and in the afternoon O. S. Longman, deputy minister of agriculture, will outline the province's agricultural outlook.

"Taking the heave out of hay," will be the subject of an address by R. Bailey, Clover Bar, while "A livestock program for a half-section farm," will be outlined by Dr. J. W. Howe, department of animal science, University of Alberta.

During the second-day session Bruce Martin, agricultural engineer, University of Alberta, will speak on rural electrification, and J. M. Fontaine, district agriculturist, Morinville, will give an address on "Blue-printing farm business."

THE AFTERNOON session of the second day will be featured with addresses by B. J. Whitebread, district agriculturist, Edmonton, speaking on "Save the Soil in 1948", and H. E. Wood, chairman, weeds commission, Manitoba department of agriculture, lecturing on developments in chemical weed control.

During the Thursday sessions an address will be given by C. G. Anderson, district agriculturalist, Calgary, on farm safety, and R. J. Mather, supervisor, soils and weeds, department of agriculture, will speak on "The soil, a national heritage."

R. Leggatt, assistant superintendent, experimental farm, Lacombe, will speak on "Crop rotations pay out."

Show Gladiolus Film on Tuesday

Gladiolus section of the Edmonton Horticultural Society will show a film on gladiolus Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Bissell Institute. The film was recently received by the Edmonton society from the Hamilton District Gladiolus Society.

In addition, the Edmonton group has received a set of other pictures taken by a prominent Eastern gladiolus grower. These will also be shown Tuesday evening.

City Inventor Demonstrates Machine

Invention of an Edmonton machinist, Walter Humphrey, may be the answer to airline pilots' winter prayers. The machine, designed to clear runways of snow and ice simultaneously, is seen in action here as it was demonstrated to R.C.A.F., airport and Department of Transport officials at the airport Friday afternoon. —Photo by Bland.

For Airport Runways

Edmonton Machinist Develops New Icebreaker, Snowblower

A young Edmonton machinist may have the answer to the wintertime worries and hazards of airplane travel. Friday afternoon the ambitious young machinist, Walter Humphrey, showed up at Edmonton's airport with what he calls "my icebreaker and snowblower for airport runways."

AS OFFICIALS OF THE department of transport, the R.C.A.F., and Airport Manager Ball, looked on, Humphrey put his invention through its paces, blowing snow from the tarmacs and chopping ice away.

The machine, towed by a tractor, uses the same principle as other blowers for its snow removal, but on the front end Humphrey has installed a large, revolving drum, to which he attached 192 hanging hammers, which, when set in motion by a 75 h.p. motor, hack away at ice, cutting a six-foot swath.

The hammers are spun at 600 revolutions a minute, cutting a series of small ridges through icy surfaces. This, he believes, will ruffle icy surfaces sufficiently to allow an aircraft safe traction on landing or takeoff, eliminating the possibility of no-braking or groundloops.

"This is really just a model," Humphrey said Friday. "If it pans out as well as I figure it will, I intend to make it a self-propelled unit, doing away with the slow-moving tractor."

WHILE AIR TRAFFIC officials were hesitant to comment on the results of the exhibition, all agreed that "Humphrey may have something there, but it will still take a lot of work to perfect it."

The machine is Humphrey's own brainchild.

"I got the idea after hearing about so many planes being unable to land on account of bad icing on the runways. After figuring it all out, I went to work on it in my machine shop at 9656 102 ave.," he said.

"Three months later, and many many hours of work, this is the result," said Humphrey as he pointed proudly to his machine.

$66,752 Increase Over Last Year

Treasury Branch Earnings More Than Half-Million

Treasury branch earnings to the provincial government for the nine-month period ending Dec. 31, 1947, were $519,324, an increase of $66,752 over the earnings of $452,571 reported a year ago.

Treasury branch salaries and expenditures are shown at an increased figure of $89,073 and the provision for contingency reserve has been increased by $25,000.

Liabilities to the public by the treasury branches which do not appear in the listed indebtedness of the province stand at $26,581,000 as compared with $25,268,720 at Dec. 31, 1946. These are offset by amounts held in trust in the Imperial Bank of Canada, cash on hand at treasury branches or in transit and by Dominion of Canada bonds, as well as loans and advances.

All expenditures for administration and maintenance of treasury branches have been charged to the general revenue fund of the province except for $480,738 representing consumer bonuses, to April 25, 1945. This amount may be financed from the contingency reserve.

May Provide For Comfort Stations

Construction of downtown comfort stations is under active consideration by the city commissioners, and it is possible that provision will be made for these projects in the 1948 estimates.

Need for additional comfort stations in the downtown area was stressed recently by the local board of health, and Dr. G. M. Little, medical officer of health, reported to the board Thursday tha the provision of these stations was being given active consideration by the commissioners.

Dr. Little reported also to the board that attendance during January at the "Well Baby Clinic" was 1,174, and that 1,563 children visited the immunization clinic.

He reported also that the occurrence of communicable disease during January showed little change from the previous month, and still continues low.

Whooping cough still is the most prevalent disease, Dr. Little reported, adding that the results of the health department's efforts in control of whooping cough by immunization are now becoming apparent.

Motorists Pay Healthy Share Alberta Income

Alberta motorists paid a healthy share toward the province's favorable financial position as shown in an interim financial statement for the nine-month period ending Dec. 31, 1947, issued Saturday by C. K. Huckvale, provincial auditor.

For licenses alone they paid in $4,087,090 as compared to $3,519,764 paid in the nine-month period covered by the statement for the previous year. This is an increase of $567,326.

Fuel oil tax payments, a great part of which are shouldered by the motorists, netted the province $6,069,129 as compared to $4,375,490 a year ago, an increase of $1,693,638.

The increase in receipts from the license sale is said to be due to increased registrations while increased taxation and greater use of gasoline is said to be the reason for the fuel oil revenue increase.

Gives Address

J. A. TUPPER

Tupper Addresses Institute Meeting

MONTREAL, Feb. 14—(CP)—J. A. Tupper of Edmonton, president of the Canadian Society of Cost Accountants and Industrial Engineers, told a meeting of the Cost and Management Institute here last night that cost accountants should turn out statements that can be understood by salesmen, workers and the public to prevent misconceptions of the profits of a company.

"A recent survey showed that many people are under the impression a lot of companies show a net profit of 100 per cent," he said. "When they were asked what they thought the rate of net profit should be, they suggested 10 per cent. There are few companies able to show 10 per cent net profit, but we must produce statements that will prove it to the public."

How to Lose Money

It is said that the Edmonton Transit System will change the terminus of the 149th street bus to 146th or 147th street, because of the complaints of customers within the city limits that the buses are crowded with Jasper Place residents before they get a chance to board them.

If there ever was a good recipe for the Transit System to lose money, this proposed change of the terminus is it.

There are said to be some 7,000 people living in Jasper Place. These represent a tidy revenue for the Transit System if they are given an efficient service. Instead of going after that business and developing it, the Transit officials, so it is said, propose to discourage it.

By all business rules the way to meet such a situation is to increase the facilities so as to give adequate service to both Jasper Place residents and those from 149th street eastward.

If the Transit System moves its 149th street terminus eastward, it will say in effect to its patrons in Jasper Place, "We don't want your money. You can walk."

The obvious thing to do is to expand the Jasper Place service by running some buses out to 156th, and returning them by circuitous routes to 149th.

Evidently the potential business is enough to warrant such an extension.

Faced with the alternative of expanding business or contracting it, the proper course is to expand it. Nothing but deficits can come from refusing to accommodate traffic of worth-while proportions.

Wait for the Facts

An inquiry is being started into allegations that bread-producers in Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia have violated the combines law. And the Commons' investigating committee is to probe suggestions that some parties may have been hoarding butter with profit-making intent.

A point which fair-minded people will keep in mind—and should impress upon others—is that the starting of these inquiries does not convict anybody of anything. They are based on reports only that the law has been broken. Their purpose is to find out whether these reports are in accord with fact or are merely rumors. When the findings are brought in will be the time to pass judgment—not before that.

Many an innocent man has suffered loss of business and loss of reputation because uninformed people have started rumors against him which were based on nothing more than inference, and which sometimes were born of malice. So often has this occurred that when a business concern is prejudiced by the spreading of harmful reports, an investigation is called for as the only means that can do justice to the accused party.

There are likely to be a good many such investigations made during the coming months. That becomes almost inevitable in any time of rising prices. The public will do well to withhold judgment in each case until the facts have been looked into and an official report turned in. To do less than that is not fair as between man and man—and is in no way in the public interest.

Wholesome Contest

Certain sections of the Progressive Conservative press have been trying, in a presumably neighborly fashion, to lighten the labors of the forthcoming Liberal national convention by proposing candidates for the leadership of the Liberal party.

Thus it has been suggested to the Canadian people that the Rt. Hon. J. L. Ilsley, the Rt. Hon. J. G. Gardiner, the Hon. Paul Martin, the Hon. Douglas Abbott and others will permit their hats to sail into the ring alongside that of the Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent who, up to a point, had been accepted as the heir-apparent to Mr. King.

The Conservative press, in its kindly efforts, reveals that the Liberal party actually has an embarrassment of riches in the matter of national leadership, which is in marked contrast to the predicament of the Progressive Conservatives, who had to fish around diligently in strange waters to land a leader.

If what is predicted is true and there is to be a plentitude of aspirants for Mr. King's mantle, nothing could more plainly indicate the virility of the Liberal party. A good sharp contest for the leadership would make the convention an exceedingly wholesome affair. A little competition is salutory and healthy.

One is reminded, by contrast, of the state of the Republican party in the United States when President Hoover was floundering in the mire of the depression and paving the way for the Democratic presidency of Mr. Roosevelt.

All the Republican conferences of those days were marked by an astounding unanimity. All gatherings of Republicans were so harmonious as to excite the astonished comment of press observers.

But the harmony was a dirge. The Republican ship was scuttled in a political sea so calm as to be unreal. As it was remarked at that time, only the dead are in complete agreement on everything.

The Lenten Season

The season of Lent began, in the Christian Church year, last Wednesday. The Lenten season is observed, with varying degrees of emphasis, among Christian communions as a forty-day period of penitence leading up to the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

It should be pointed out that Lent is more than an ecclesiastical formality. It is no mere ritualistic observance instituted to make life harder for the faithful. Its significance is as real and sharp and impelling as the significance of Christmas or Easter. And one cannot understand the full and adequate meaning of Easter without participating in the spirit of Lent.

It is the unwavering belief of the Christian Church that Christ died on the Cross on Good Friday that He might offer up His Life and His Body as a sacrifice for the sins of men. It is the belief of the Church that Christ rose from the dead on Easter to institute the Resurrection in which all who believe in Him will participate on the last day.

The sacrifice of Christ on the Cross is all the more significant because Christ is the Second Person of the Trinity; because Christ is God Himself.

That God should come down from Heaven, take on the flesh and blood of man and die on the Cross that man might have eternal life is a matter which should induce deep humility and gratitude in every human heart. It should induce in every man and woman a profound sense of penitence and sorrow that our sins, our own individual sins, reduced the Saviour of Men to the extremity that, being rejected of the world, He was subjected to a felon's death.

This thought is the essence of Lent.

Neither the Crucifixion nor the Resurrection has full meaning for those who fail to undergo the Lenten penitence and the mingled sense of sorrow and gratitude that accompanies it.

Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan says capitalists sometimes form monopolies. But why should he object to that? Every industrial enterprise he has established or taken over is a monopoly. He daren't run these concerns in competition wtih privately-owned enterprises, because they would go broke and thus expose the fallacy of his socialist theory. Most of them are reported to be losing money anyway.

Love in February

By Harold L. Weir

One of the perplexing matters in this perplexing world is the incidence of St. Valentine's Day on February 14th.

WEIR

Trusting that all things are ordained for the best, it is still difficult to understand why this genial saint, patron of lovers and promulgator-in-chief of the tender passion, should have chosen to come into this troubled vale during a time of year which in this clime, at least, is more associated with freezing the ears off brass monkeys than with the budding of love's young dream.

There seems to be a clear conflict between the connotations of this anniversary and the ancient wisdom which declares that "in the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

It is true that the ardor of the questing heart seems to burn with bolder flame when the sap is in the trees and the buds are bursting into bloom. It is not only traditional but actual.

Come Spring, one treads with lighter feet and meets potential romance at every corner.

Why, then, should mid-February, harsh and unforgiving month, be singled out for the festival of the holy man who is the symbol of high amatory adventure?

Dull of Soul

He would be dull of soul, indeed, who believed that romance positively languishes in the dreary course of winter.

There are those who do pretty well, thank you, in any season of the year. There are those hardy hearts which break into blossom at any moment when the winter of their discontent is made glorious summer by the sun of a lady's smile.

Historically, there were the Puritan settlers in New England who invented "bundling" to while away the tedium of the wearier months. I am credibly informed that "bundling" managed to get in some pretty hot licks for Cupid.

But be all this as it may, romance and young love are inextricably linked, in our minds, with balmy breezes and breaking buds.

Why, then, did St. Valentine have to be born on February 14th?

The thing perplexes me . It perplexed me long before I foresook the pursuit of cleverness for the pursuit of wisdom (only to discover that the latter was infinitely more elusive than the former).

However, where mere cleverness stands aghast at the anomaly, wisdom may supply the answer. It goes without saying, I think, that I have borrowed the wisdom for the occasion.

In Lent, Too

There is the further puzzle that St. Valentine's Day is permitted to occur in the Lenten season, that period of penitence and austerity whose purpose is to remind the erring human of his sins.

This apparent paradox resolves itself into reason, I believe, very readily.

The flippant apologist for the vagaries of the Church calendar might very easily tumble into the error of assuming that St. Valentine's Day falls within the Lenten season for the logical reason that marriage, the natural and desirable consequence of romance, is in itself a sort of penitence, or even penance, and that there are those inescapable factors in the marital state which inevitably remind man of his sins.

I shall avoid that tempting pitfall.

Rather let it be said that Lent and love are concomitant because love is the very backgrond and essence of Lent.

The coincidence of Lent and St. Valentine's Day does not mean that romance must go a-wooing in sombre colors but that the self-sacrifice and self-denial which are the spirit of Lent are also the spirit and soul of any love worth talking about.

Characteristics

If it is still difficult to reconcile the birthday of the patron saint of lovers with the frigid rigors of this shivering month, one might remember that there is virtue in contrasts.

To be definite and concrete, one might put it this way; that the young man who goes a-courting on these chill February nights has within him a flame of devotion that is practically unquenchable.

And there, I suppose, is the true symbolism of it.

If you can love as ardently in an Edmonton February as you can in June, brother, you've got something!

Or you can express the same thought by twisting the old aphorism and by picturing love as laughing, not only at locksmith's, but at thermometers.

And if you want to enquire still further into the chronological phenomenon which places St. Valentine's Day in February, you will do very well to dust off the family Bible and study the 13th chapter ot the first letter St. Paul wrote to the good Christians of Corinth.

Smiles

A motorist whose car broke down one night on a lonely road in Northern Ireland found humble but hospitable accommodation in a small croft nearby. Next morning his breakfast consisted mainly of a large bowl of porridge.

During the meal he was astonished to find himself rather popular with a small pig, which muzzled against his legs in a most affectionate and persistent manner. At last he remarked to his host: "Your pig seems to have taken a great liking to me. I didn't know a pig could be so affectionate."

"Och, it's not you it likes," was the Irishman's reply. "It's just that you're using his bowl."

When Jones saw the stranger enter his gate, he smelt trouble. And he was right.

"I've come about that dog of yours,' the stranger said curtly.

"Well, I know he's a playful little fellow," said Jones.

"Playful! Why, he's bitten my mother-in-law three times."

"Then she must have provoked him, and I'm not prepared to do anything—"

"Do anything be blowed? I've come to see if you'll sell the dog."

Those who have seen the freedom with which American troops spend money will enjoy this story from India.

An American, having hired a tonga for a distance the ordinary fare for which would be half a rupee, magnanimously handed the driver a 50-rupee note.

The man shook his head violently and demanded 60.

"No," said the American, "that's enough. I shan't pay any more."

Trivia

Changing Times

By Paul Gallico

A friend of mine blew in from Chicago the other day and said, "Say, you know, you ought to do a piece about the boys in our town. You know, all the hoods left over from the Capone and Colisimo era. The tough guys and chiselers, torpedoes, bootleggers and racketeers. I'd write it myself, except I have to live there."

I said, "What's the story?"

"They're all in legitimate business, and making millions. They own breweries, restaurants, factories, agencies, stores, supply houses. I don't want to mention any names, but they're so funny they kill me. They found out they can make more money 'legit' than they could in the old days and they can't get over it. Apparently all of them had the instincts and the abilities that make good business men. They just didn't know you could run it on the square."

The story, as I get it, is really full of quaint charm and all the appeal of the great American success formula.

Under-privileged

To begin with, these playful, underprivileged boys learned the first great lesson that our country has to teach, which is that you may imbed the competition in blocks of cement or sew it into sacks and drop it into the Chicago River, or diminish it by machine-gun or small arms fire, without getting into too many insurmountable difficulties with the law, but you must not ignore or lie to the income tax collector. The government is much more persnickety over the inevitability of taxes than of its corollary, death.

So they began studying the income tax blank where they found some strange and wondrous things. You could deduct for legitimate expenses. If you lost dough you didn't pay. And if what you sold cost you less than what you got for it, that was legitimate profit and the government patted you on the head, let you keep some of it and accounted you an upright and useful citizen.

Mass Production

So they learned the practical theories of mass producing, or buying cheap and selling dear, and then in the process of learning how to dispose of their goods, or products, whatever they were, they encountered another American miracle—advertising.

Prior to this, that is in the old days, the way to sell was to march into a South Side bodega or gin mill, appropriately sagging with assorted hardware and announce, "Good afternoon, pal. Me and the boys here are representing Burpo Beer. From now on, you are using Burpo Beer, or else."

This worked to a degree except there was an element of strain connected with it and it frequently led to a nervous breakdown on the part of the proprietor, particularly when the opposition representing Blotto, the restful needle-enriched beer with the tangy, locked-in ounce of ether in every bottle, advanced the same claims on territory. Somebody invariably got shot and a lot of profits were eaten up purchasing expensive bronze caskets and gigantic floral tributes.

Advertising

With advertising you never had to worry about the competition. One of them came to my friend completely starry-eyed and marvelled, "Hey, didja know about this here new radio? Why say, it's the greatest thing ever invented. I pay a feller to go on this radio thing. He sings a song and then speaks a piece saying how everybody ought to buy my product, and three weeks later I can't make it fast enough. I got to build a new wing on my factory. And what I pay the feller I can take out of my income tax. Why this is a set-up for makin' dough. How long has this been going on?"

They all have cheque books now instead of lugging it around in $1,000 bills, their wives can attend the best beauty parlors and gossip with the other girls, or lunch in the swank joints and all of them are as happy as larks. The moral of this you may figure out for yourselves.

Bulletin Readers Say:

Too Funny

Editor, Bulletin—With regard to the caustic epistle of "Reader" in Wednesday's Bulletin, I might suggest that his delightful fellow-traveller is not kindred to the denizens of the forest, but in all probability just another long-suffering resident of the Highlands line himself. Harking back to our civic rolling stock, "Reader" doubtless never experienced the rigors of the Norwood bus before it was extended to serve the West End.

In closing, might I suggest that "Reader," with his witty comments, is going to waste in our fair city. He should sally forth into the world of entertainment where he would doubtless meet with earth-shaking success. He is too funny for words.

Preach Peace

Editor, Bulletin.—In February 7 issue of The Bulletin I had the misfortune of reading a couple of paragraphs entitled "Final Conflict." I consider the writer "A. G." of Edmonton one of the most narrow-minded type of persons that could exist.

This person believes that there is going to be another war soon because it says so in Ezekiel 38-39 and also in a few more chapters of the Bible. It is too bad that some people are so religious that they would do almost anything to encourage another war so that their "Prophets of Old" would not be wrong.

I've had my share of war through actual experience and as long as people, like "A. G." and their friends continue to talk and preach of wars, well, we will have them.

Let us think and preach of peace for a change or haven't you over-"stuffed with religion" people ever read of peace in the Bible? Read on.

Transit System

Editor, Bulletin. — I have just read Mr. Weir's article on "Edmonton Transit Costs" and I wish to congratulate him on a job well done.

I heartily agree with the annoyances and I could add a dozen more as I ride the street cars from Calder every day.

I hope our city council takes heed of Mr. Weir's suggestions and if more people like him spoke their minds then we would probably have a more efficent system.

Permanent Peace

Editor, Bulletin.—A correspondent advocates that we must establish the system of the Kingdom of God in place of capitalism and Communism in order to guarantee lasting peace. His longing for righteousness is understandable, but can human efforts alone achieve this?

The Christians' prayer in Matt. 6:10: "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth" will be fulfilled in due time. This will be the only permanent peace.

In concluding you deserve the thanks of readers for the publication of text and religious editorials in your editorial page. It is a great comfort, hope and joy for many in these "last days."

Social Misery

Editor, Bulletin. — Dorothy Thompson makes great ado about Communist parties in countries outside of the Soviet Union being "subordinate branches of an international movement" but makes no mention of the parties and governments subservient to Wall Street, particularly the 16 countries involved in the "Marshall Plan,' the outstanding example of "subordination."

Dorothy has no program to advance peace, progress and an expanding democracy but is out to defend so-called "free enterprise" by any and every means, branding all progress as "Communism' to scare people while indulging in nagging war-mongering under the cloak of "anti-Communism".

Unemployment, low wages, slums, poverty in the midst of plenty, the drift towards Fascism and war turns people towards Communism. Instead of calling for the eradication of social misery, the Dorothy Thompson's rail against its victims, defend the evils instead of advancing a remedy.

It is social misery, not Soviet Russia, that produces Communist parties. Yet, today, there are certain people who are calling for a "preventive war" against the Communists and Soviet Russia in particular to preserve economic injustice. It is gangsterism on a par with Nazilsm. Let us have war on ignorance, poverty and slums instead of this anti-Soviet lunacy. Then, there will be no "Communist problem".

Major and Minor Notes

By H. D. S.

It seems hardly surprising that in these harassing post-war days there seems to be a great revival of interest among the general public in opera. For in a world where the great cosmopolitan centres of culture lies in a semi-shambles of smoke-begrimed ruins it is only natural that people should try to reconstruct on the stage all the glitter, and pomp, and display of a past era when people dwelt in the midst of beautiful cities and life, at least for the privileged few, was a thing of grace and dignity.

THESE THOUGHTS are called to mind by the predominance of vocal music in the musical activities of Edmonton this month. On Wednesday, Feb. 18, the Celebrity Concert Series will present in McDougall United Church, Miklos Gafni, tenor, accompanied by Otto Herz. The story of Miklos Gafni's rise to fame is appropriate to our times. A medical student in Hungary, Gafni was captured by the Nazis and sent to work in the coal mines of Silesia. While in internment he perfected his singing and upon release by the United States Army he made his concert debut in Budapest. Later he studied in Italy.

When he arrived in New York scepticism rapidly gave way to spontaneous acclaim and his voice was acknowledged as "the most voluminous to be heard in New York in decades." Mr. Gafni, whose real name is Miklos Vary Weinstock is still in his early twenties and it seems that a great career lies ahead of him. He appears in Edmonton in place of the late Richard Tauber whose untimely death is a great loss to the world of fine singers.

A SUMMARY of Miklos Gafni's program follows. Included will be three arias: Lenski's Aria, "Where, Oh Where" from Tschaikowsky's Eugene Onegin; an aria from Macbeth by Verdi; and an aria from a lesser-known Italian work, L'Arlesiana by Cilea. Two groups of folk-songs will be heard, the one Hungarian and the other Neapolitan. Compositions by Stradella, Scarlatti, Caccini, and Franck will open the program and two songs in English included are "To My Mother" by MacGimsey, Charles' "When I Have Sung My Song."

The Cavendish Choir has announced the date of its fourth annual concert as Monday, March 8. This year the concert will be held in the auditorium of the College of Education on the University Campus (the old Normal School). Some of the composers from whose works selections have been chosen are Tschaikowsky, Armstrong Gibbs, Thomas Pitfield, Roger Quilter, Julius Harrison, Ernect Charles, Campbell-Tipton, Frank Bridge, Ethel Boyce and Le Febvre.

The ladies' chorus known as the Cavendish Choir was organized in 1943 and has won awards at musican festivals each year hence. Last year the chorus gave Edmontonians an opportunity to hear an unusual work for two women soloists and female chorus, La Demoiselle Elue by Debussy. The director, L. R. Betts, takes pride in being able to perform exceptional works of this sort to an Edmonton audience and this year's concert should prove equally interesting.

THE NATIONALLY popular Singing Stars of Tomorrow radio program will present Edmonton's Gwyn Price on its regular weekly broadcast Sunday, Feb. 15. Mr. Price is the first Edmonton artist to appear on this program this season and is also the first male vocalist from Edmonton to be included.

Last year two Edmonton artists Berneice McBeth and Elizabeth McCaskill appeared and Miss McCaskill went on to win third place in the national competition. Forty-four contestants participate each year.

Mr. Price was born in Edmonton and is now twenty-four. He commenced his vocal studies eight years ago and still is learning from his first teacher, Glyndwyr Jones of Vancouver, whose musical work is well-known in Alberta as Mr. Jones was for many years resident in Calgary. The young singer has built a repertoire of nearly 300 songs and has learned to sing in five languages. He gained his first knowledge of music by piano lessons.

MANY ARMY veterans will remember this young baritone, for a good part of the three years he spent in the army was with the Army Show overseas. He is particularly fond of recital work, and has been heard frequently as soloist in Banff Springs Hotel and also at Lake Louise. His versatility is reflected in his many appearances with the Vancouver Bach Choir, and as a church soloist.

Gwyn Price is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Price of Hanna. His people come from South Wales and he inherits the great Welsh tradition of fine, rich vocalization. His father is an employee of the Canadian National Railways.

ANOTHER YOUNG Edmonton musician who is adding to her list of successes is the talented violinist, Betty-Jean Hagen. Betty-Jean has just won the First Prize for string-instrument players offered by the Birks Musical Awards radio program in Calgary. She is now studying the violin in the southern city, under Clayton Hare.

Miss Hagen played in Edmonton during the current season of the Edmonton Philharmonic Society, giving a performance of the Mendelssohn violin concerto which was thoroughly refreshing. She also was heard this season in a joint recital with Betty McCaskill for the University Musical Club. Great credit to her excellent earlier coaching is due for her continued progress, under "Sandy" Nicol of this city.

With the kind permission of Air Marshal K. M. Guthrie, C.B. C.B.E. the Air Officer Commanding North-west Air Command, the N.W.A.C. Band will present the following program at the evening service at Robertson United Church on Sunday, Feb. 15.

During the service a hymn will be played and L.A.C. Horrocks will present a trombone solo, Franck's Panis Angelicus. The program following the service will include a hymn by Duckworth; Bouree from the B minor Patita for violin solos, by Bach; Schubert's Unfinished Symphony; And The Glory of the Lord (from the Messiah) by Handel; Menuet from the L'Arlesienne Suite by Bizet, with flute solo by L.O.C. A. Horch; Airmen's Prayer by Creed and Campbell; and organ and vocal solos.

It seems appropriate to end these notes this week on the theme with which they commenced—that of opera and the all-important subject of the singers who are its first essential. This calls to mind last week's Opera Quiz, the amusing and instructive interlude in the Metropolitan Opera broadcast. Present on last week's quiz was one of the key men associated with the Columbia Record Corporation, and several questions were asked cncerning the recording of singers' voices and of opera.

It was gratifying to hear mutual dissent among the remainder of the group who pit their brains against the formidable array of questions from correspondents, when the representative of the record company put forth the opinion that the recording art could enhance the beauty of a small, delicate voice making it the equal, if not superior to that of the great singers of what has been referred to as "the golden age of opera." There is a tendency these days to idolize this type of singing which can be made to sound so intriguing with the aid of a microphone and other electronic devices.

But the true art of recording should, we think, be to accommodate itself to the mighty volumes of sound which pour forth from the stage and orchestra pit when a great artist is performing a heavy work. Otherwise, if singers trained for microphone technique and not for the aduitorium, the great work of Wagner and Verdi may have to be re-writen for sheer lack of a voice powerful enough to cope with the tremendous orchestrations involved. Already the world is faced with a problem in replacing such indispensable voices as that of Melchoir and Flagstad. Nor is it necessarily true that these voices themselves should be lost to posterity. Some truly great recordings have been made at a very early stage in the development of the technique, of such famous singers as Caruso and Chaliapine, and these—judging by the way they are sought after by connoisseurs—must have preserved much of the quality which made those performers renowned.

Granted then that radio and gramaphone can do much for the gentler type of artist, let it not destroy—but enhance, the tradition of the noble array of powerful, intensely dramatic artists who have trod the stages of the world's most famous opera houses.

From Different Viewpoint

Labor, Liberals Alike See Coalition Danger

By Fraser Wighton

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—British Liberals are showing alarm, and Labor quarters uneasiness, at the spread of Conservative-Liberal coalitions against the Labor party in parliamentary constituencies.

SOME THINK THIS form of anti-government front would result, if extended, in extinction of the Liberal party, now only a small group in the house of commons, and the restoration of the Conservatives to power in a future general election.

So far there have been only a handful of cases. Focal point of the issue at present is the by-election in Paisley, near Glasgow, on Feb. 18, where the succession of Socialist Oliver Baldwin to his father's earldom has created a vacancy. The contest will be a straight fight between the Labor candidate and an opponent representing both Conservatives and Liberals.

The resignation of Lady Glen-Coats, chairman of the Paisley Liberal party, in protest at the "arrangement," was evidence of local bitterness. The local Liberal party is, nevertheless, adhering to its pact with the Conservatives.

Almost simultaneously, Conservatives and Liberals in Gateshead, County Durham, have decided to unite to fight Labor Member Konni Zilliacus, leader of his party's extreme left-wing group, in the next general election. The new body is to be known as the Gateshead Liberal and Conservative United Organization.

THE ORTHODOX Liberal party, with 12 seats in parliament, abhors these local arrangements and has rejected time after time Conservative proposals for a common front to fight labor.

Many distinguished Liberals have expressed their view that apart from having the worst possible effect on the country, such a plan would mean the end of the Liberal party.

Orthodox Liberals represent the bulk of Britain's floating vote of approximately 3,000,000 electors, which is capable of deciding the issue of a general election either to right or left.

IN 1945, LABOR polled approximately 12,000,000 votes, while anti-government forces, including Conservatives and the allied "National" Liberals—relics of Ramsay MacDonald's "National" government-polled over 9,000,000. Had the Liberal vote been flung into the scale on the basis of a National Conservative-Liberal arrangement, Labor might not have won the election.

Canadian Press Have Own Home

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The principal news-distributing centre of Canada—head office of The Canadian Press—is to be housed in its own building in downtown Toronto. Besides its head office, the national news co-operative maintains branch bureaux in three countries and in 13 cities of Canada.

Frederick I. Ker, president of The Canadian Press, announced today that work is already well advanced on the new building.

"Two storeys will be erected within six months but the foundation will provide for two additional storeys to be added later. Over country-wide news circuits from this building will go the domestic and world news of the day for both newspapers and radio."

Contract for construction of the building has been awarded to the Foundation Company of Ontario Limited on tender. The building is designed by Mathers and Haldenby of Toronto under the personal direction of Brig. Eric Haldenby.

"The building, located on the east side of University avenue between King and Wellington streets, will house also the head office of Press News Ltd., CP's radio subsidiary, and the Canadian Daily Newspapers Association," said Mr. Ker. "It will be easy of access to the three CP member newspapers in Toronto and convenient to terminals and hotels for out-of-town publishers and editors. It will be modest in construction but dignified and thoroughly up-to-date."

Trundling T.N.T. Through Busy Streets

MANILA, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Police in the busy Tondo district are mopping their brows—and it isn't the weather.

They arrested Luis Lucy, 32, as he nonchalantly trundled 200 cans of T.N.T. through the crowded street. Lucy said he was on his way to surrender the explosive to a policeman he knew.

Expand Activities

SASKATOON, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A member of the students' representative council, student governing body at the University of Saskatchewan, said yesterday the S.R.C. planned to expand student activities rather than curtail them and this was being made possible by the adoption of a sound financial policy.

Alberta Tar Sands Up

Development Western Canadian Oil Sought

By George Kitchen

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The Commons resumed the lingering throne speech debate yesterday and turned its attention to a variety of subjects, including wheat, higher allowances for veterans and the development of Western Canadian oil resources.

OPPOSITION speakers held the floor and an echo of the dormant flag issue was heard as a Quebec member—Liguori Lacombe (Ind., Laval-Two Mountains)—called for the adoption of a truly Canadian flag and a loosening of Canada's links with the United Kingdom.

Among those taking part in the debate were Douglas Harkness (P.C., Calgary East), and E. B. McKay (C.C.F., Weyburn).

Mr. Lacombe drew the flag issue into the throne speech debate with the observation that the Red Ensign, bearing the Union Jack in the canton, still is flying atop the parliament buildings.

"That flag still spreads the impression that we are under the tutelage of another nation, that we are subservient," he said. "Let us conquer colonialism, let us not listen to those who would prevent Canada's growth, and let us adopt a truly Canadian flag."

Mr. McKay called for a 25-per cent. increase in pensions to disabled and student veterans and said press reports indicated 31 per cent. of the veterans attending university had to abandon their courses because of financial difficulties.

VETERANS MINISTER Gregg entered the debate briefly to say that of the 32,000 veterans attending university only 63, or one fifth of one per cent. had left because of finances.

Mr. Harkness urged the government to encourage the movement of capital into oil exploration by granting concessions in taxes, duties and other charges sought by the oil industry. This would help to make Canada independent of the United States as a source of oil supplies.

Mr. Harkness drew attention to Canada's deficient oil supplies and said it was apparent that the country no longer could depend on the United States as a source of the liquid fuel.

HE REPEATED requests which he previously had made for special tax reductions for the industry.

He said the rise in crude oil prices had done much to encourage drilling for new oil supplies.

He suggested that special tax concessions granted to the gold mining industry last year be extended, in part at least, to the oil industry.

Suggesting development of Alberta's tar sands, he said they were a national problem and should be considered on that basis. Establishment of synthetic gasoline plants also should be undertaken on a national basis. Canada had plenty of coal for this purpose, and it should be utilized to avert a "crippling" shortage of oil products at some time in the future.

Dealing with the sales tax, he said it should be removed from many commodities such as food, coal and household articles. He also declared the eight-per-cent tax on newsprint was "unfair" as presently applied.

Duplessis Aims At Fall of King

QUEBEC, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Leon Casgrain (L., Riviere Du Loup) charged yesterday that Premier Duplessis was aiming at the fall of both Prime Minister Mackenzie King and External Affairs Minister St. Laurent and that it was for that reason the Quebec premier has regularly opposed any kind of an agreement on any question with the Dominion government.

Mr. Casgrain spoke during debate on one of the four government bills dealing with the housing problem. He called for an agreement between Ottawa and Quebec so that the two governments would work together to solve the problem.

"But Mr. Duplessis cannot come to an agreement on this question—or any other—because he has pledged himself to the destruction of Prime Minister King and Mr. St. Laurent," Mr. Casgrain said.

Manslaughter Case For Higher Court

VANCOUVER, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Edgar Willsher, 19, will be committed to trial in a higher court on a charge of manslaughter when he appears in police court Monday, Magistrate Mackenzie Matheson said yesterday. Willsher was charged after his father died at their home New Year's Eve.

Magistrate Matheson said the case against the youth was weak, but that he was sending it to a higher court for trial "because I dismissed a case recently that is now going on anyway."

Evidence heard at a preliminary hearing indicated that the father, Harold Willsher, died during a struggle with his son.

A coroner's jury decided he died from heart failure after the city pathologist testified that death was from natural causes as a result of a heart condition and a bronchial ailment, plus stimulation caused by alcohol and emotion.

R. Dahl, Raymond, Heads Association

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Feb. 14.—(CP)—Rulon Dahl of the Raymond irrigation district has been elected chairman of the Alberta Irrigation Association for 1948.

He succeeds P. M. Sauder of Strathmore, who becomes an ex-officio member of the executive. First vice-president is Ted Hundal of the Taber irrigation district, and second vice-president Dr. W. H. Fairfield of Lethbridge. Each irrigation district will name a representative for the board of directors.

Flames Destroy Canning Factory

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A two-alarm fire destroyed the Kildonan Canning Co. factory in suburban East Kildonan Thursday night and loss was estimated at between $75,000 and $100,000.

A brick boiler room and a warehouse, both nearby, were untouched by the flames, which were fanned by an 18-mile-per-hour wind. Company officials said it might be possible to salvage some canned goods from the factory.

Sunday Services in Edmonton Churches

Special Services Of Consecration

Special consecration services will be held at Central Lutheran Church from Sunday to Thursday, it was announced Saturday by Rev. T. W. Maakestad.

Paul J. Lindell, director of the World Mission Prayer League, Minneapolis, will be the guest preacher.

Mr. Lindell will stop in Edmonton on his way to the Pacific coast. From there he will leave with a party of five missionaries for the Chinese Tibetan border in Sikang, where a new mission field will be opened for the people of Tibet.

He will speak at regular morning and evening services at the church Sunday and each evening including Thursday. The public is invited.

Y.P.U. Plans Study Shakespeare Play

A brief study of the life and works of William Shakespeare, with particular emphasis on Macbeth, will be made by members of the Young People's Union of Knox United Church at a meeting Sunday evening. Jocelyn Rogers, culture convener, will be in charge of the program.

A sleigh ride was held recently by the group when they were hosts to other young people's groups from the South Side. Refreshments were served following a sing song and discussion period.

On another occasion, members entertained at a sleigh ride followed by games and refreshments at the church. Don Kettyles, social convener, was in charge of arrangements.

TODAY'S MESSAGE

Charity in Lent

Lent comes this year to a world where millions of young and old are enduring hardships and privations far in excess of any rigors pious Christians might impose upon themselves during this solemn penitential period.

Because Lent is a season which calls for the exercise of charity as well as of self-mortification, it should be appropriate to suggest that an excellent way to observe it would be to give constant, practical thought to war victims who are experiencing a lent which began when Nazi armies first marched across the German borders.

Lent is a time when Christians, besides spending more time in prayer and meditation, deny themselves legitimate pleasures in order better to prepare themselves for the glory of Christ's resurrection. Some give up candy or cigarettes; others stay away from the movies or the theatre. All are asked to be more abstemious in eating and drinking.

However, these acts of self-denial, although highly meritorious and pleasing to God, are far less fruitful than the practice of a lively and generous charity. By helping the poor, the sick or the spiritually downcast, Christians can make Lent a time of profound benefit to themselves and of great consolation to others.

If in the past our observance of Lent has been meagre or half-hearted, we can atone this year by a truly generous concern for those in far-off lands who stand in appalling need of even the most rudimentary necessities. The spirit of Lent calls for unselfishness; it is only by giving, even to the point of real sacrifice, that we may hope to experience the full joy and splendor of the Easter miracle.

The pall of gloom and despair has hung too long over the starving lands of Europe. It is a rebuke to the Christian conscience that countless numbers of Europe's children have never known a happy Easter; that a generation is growing up without a decent chance for survival. The only hope to which these innocent sufferers can cling is that elsewhere in the world are other millions who will deny themselves a little so that the unfortunate of God's family may no longer have to endure a Lent that seems to have no end.

COME TO CHURCH THIS SUNDAY

Plan Observance World Prayer Day

On Sunday evening, "Universal Day of Prayer" will be observed at Metropolitan United Church, when Rev. Frank E. Ball, S.C.M. Campus Secretary, will be guest speaker. The minister will preach at the morning service.

After church on Sunday evening, the Young People's Union will meet in the assembly hall. Miss Frances Buckles, of India, will be the guest speaker.

Christian Science

Christian Science churches on Sunday will hear an exposition of "Soul." It will be elucidated in the reading of selections such as these: "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." (Romans 8: 6). "It is our ignorance of God, the divine Principle, which produces apparent discord, and the right understanding of Him restores harmony." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 390.)

Return to Bible Is Need

Sees Utilitarian Education Causing Moral 'Looseness'

By Rev. G. Stanley Russell

Some time ago Prof. Watson Kirkconnell of McMaster University informed the Baptist Federtaion of Canada that, as a nation, we have the highest illegitimacy rate, the highest abortion rate, the highest divorce rate, the highest rate in new venereal disease cases, and the highest record of arrests for drunkenness in the history of this country.

THAT IS IN ITSELF a sufficiently disturbing statement, and, considering its source, there is little doubt as to its accuracy. Wide as is its range, and serious as is its indictment, it does not exhaust the description of our condition.

No one who has just recently completed a 1,300-mile drive from Cape Breton island to Toronto will have failed to find it punctuated by little roadside groups assembled around an unnecessary accident, by wild and furious driving, alongside which Jehu the son of Nimshi was a laggard, and which the authorities seem unable to control with a firmer hand than that which presents a "ticket" for parking in the wrong place, or publishes a pleading injunction to "Drive carefully."

There is also that strange mentality which organizes "beauty contests" and offers "adult entertainment" of which the one certain thing is often that it is unfit to be seen.

All these things of which Prof. Kirkconnell has spoken are the result of a looseness of manners and morals which ought to have provoked, long before now, the anxious concern of all good citizens.

The fact that they do not appear to have done so, that we are apparently content to meet the situation with nothing more drastic than lamentations, is not the least dreadful aspect of our condition.

MUCH, OF COURSE, must be laid at the door of our education. By that I am not indicting teachers, or even authorities, but public opinion. We have so demanded "useful"—by which we mean utilitarian—training for the young that fineness of feeling and sensitiveness of spirit no longer appear as the objectives of a curriculum.

Many years ago, when it was proposed to assemble "The Hundred Best Books," Sir Henry Irving was asked for his list, and answered that, after people had become thoroughly familiar with the Bible and Shakespeare, it would be time to talk about other literature. There is much to be said for that. In addition to which, it is not just prejudice which makes us whose education was founded on the classics believe that the decivilization and dehumanization of man began with the swing to the other extreme of a purely utilitarian education.

THAT "FINENESS of feeling and sensitiveness of spirit" would prevent the inconsiderate, if not dangerous, practices of the roadhog, as well as the animal view of marriage and the debauchery of body and mind which seem so prevalent. Those who have pleaded again and again for the revision of ideas of education are not animated by hostility to science or desirous of sousing everybody in philosophy. Quite frequently they are themselves people who have received scientific, as well as other, instruction.

What they are saying is that much juvenile delinquency and adult disintegration is the result of a one-sided instruction, which has omitted the supreme purposes of all training—the making of character. "This ought ye to have done, and not to have left the other undone."

It is, of course, quite certain that this argument involves a return to religion, and probably a revision of religious forms and becomes a vital matter.

When we deplore the lack of young men for the ministry—though they still come from some quarters, and especially the heroic manses of the rural districts—we are apt to assume that the whole fault lies with the young men. It is possible that we have given the impression that the ministry is a dull and narrow-minded occupation for dull and narrow-minded youths. Forty years ago it was assumed that no minister was properly educated without German theology, a knowledge of the German language, and probably a time at a German university.

On that subject there is today a discreet silence, which is rather amusing to those of us who always knew that the attitude was exaggerated, if not absurd. At the same time, the training of ministers remains too academic and ecclesiastical.

THE THINGS THEY KNOW are less important, sometimes, than the things they are never taught, and not all the changes that have taken place in the life and thought of the world during the last 40 years have made much impression on those who imagine that a man can represent religion without encountering much of that life of which religion is not a department but the interpretation. Sir Henry Irving's contention ought to be remembered, and those of us who were drilled in Haekel's ephemeral and unimportant "Riddle of the Universe" would have been much more profitably occupied in learning to understand and declaim the speeches in "Hamlet."

THAT MEANS, of course, a wider as well as a much deeper conception of Christianity in the heart of the ordinary churchgoer. The wife of an American correspondent in Moscow says that the Russians go to church like starving people suddenly admitted to a banquet, and that, even if the government be as irreligious as ever, it dare not resist what is practically a mass movement. As a matter of fact, both in our relations to Russia and our conception of One World, we are laying far too much stress on political contact ands not half enough on commercial, artistic, and religious connections and phenomena.

The ordinary person must realize that the supreme fact about religion is not that it should "attract." That depends on what it is desired to draw, and a mob was never yet much use for constructive or idealistic purposes. The supreme necessity is the influence of the single Christian in business and society, and the sincerity with which, carefully avoiding ostentation or the "I-am-holier-than-thou" attitude, a definite push or pull is given in whatever circle the disciple may be.

WE HAVE LOST our grip and perspective, and if "like priest like people" is one proverb, the Old Testament is quite sure that defective prophets are the result of indifferent audiences. It is said that, in a village in Ireland—very remote, primitive, and self-satisfied—the carpenter one day set a sign at the end of the main street. It contained only the words "To Dublin," but it enlarged the horizons and lifted the faces of all the inhabitants.

That is a suggestion as to what is needed in our schools, churches, and homes. The result will be a kindlier mind and a cleaner heart, and the liberation of a power which can deliver us from ourselves.

"Army" Planning Youth Week-End

Special gatherings have been planned for Saturday and Sunday in connection with the Young People's Annual Week-end, to be held at the Salvation Army Citadel on 102 street. Mrs. Major David Rea of Calgary, who with her husband was stationed for some years in Edmonton in charge of the Salvation Army Canadian War Auxiliary Services, will be in charge.

Saturday night a young people's rally will be held at which Mrs. Rea will be the speaker. A sound picture, "We, Too, Serve," will be shown. This depicts the rescue of American fliers shot down in the Pacific by natives who had been converted through the work of missionaries.

On Sunday Mrs. Rea will be the speaker at the regular Holiness and Salvation meetings held at 11 in the morning and 7:30 in the evening. The Guide and Brownie troops will be in attendance at the morning service.

A special program has been arranged for the afternoon at 3 o'clock. Various items will be presented by the young people as will Sunday School awards for the year 1947.

Student Movement Is Oldest of Type

The World Student Christian Federation is the oldest international student organization in the world, and it was founded by the renowned missionary, John R. Mott, in 1895. Now it comprises Student Christian Movements in 27 countries and has affiliated members in 20 other countries. The federation, by means of its conferences and publications, and especially through its travelling secretaries, has helped to bind together Christian students of the world.

IN RECENT YEARS in Canada some of these secretaries have been such men as Dr. T. Z. Koo of China, Dr. John Karefa-Smart of Sierra Leone, and Philippe Maury, a leader in the French Resistance movement during the last war.

During the last 50 years there has been a trend toward world unity within the Protestant denominations. This trend has been given tremendous impetus by the W.S.C.F. For instance, the federation has done a great deal of the pioneer work in the development of the World Council of Churches, which will meet for the first time next summer in Amsterdam.

Throughout the war years many student movements were forced to develop new activities as they functioned in an abnormal university situation; often they worked against official opposition. Out of this experience these movements emerged with a new awareness of the need for Bible study. Although war time pressures have gone, there is still a sense of the seriousness of the issues of our day and a conviction that in the Bible will be found what God would have us do.

IT IS ALSO FELT a clearer understanding of the nature of the world we live in is needed as well as a study of social and political problems in the light of the Bible. This attitude is particularly strong in the countries noted for resistance: "Everything Concerns the Church" has become the Norwegian watchword.

While older movements struggle to rebuild their work, new movements have grown up in various parts of the world, notably in South America and in Africa. The federation now is in active contact with movements in the Argentine, Brazil, Chile, Cuba, Mexico, Peurto Rico, and Uruguay and there is indication that these groups are slowly but steadily gaining ground although they occupy minority positions in a very difficult spiritual situation. The student movements promise to have a great future in West Africa, as a program for developing university colleges there moves ahead. The federation has contact through the British Student Christian Movement with leaders and movements in Nigeria, the Gold Coast, and Sierra Leone.

THE W.S.C.F. CONTINUES today with the common work in student relief in co-operation with a Roman Catholic students' organization, the International Student Service, and the International Union of Students, in addition it is taking potential leaders still alive in Europe and China and giving them rest and further training to make them ready to serve their people and to ensure that in universities throughout the world there shall be strong staffs giving capable Christian leadership.

There are two student organizations on the campus who are affiliated with the W.S.C.F. One of these organizations is the Student Christian Movement and the other is the Lutheran Student Association.

Training Ground Now Bible School

CARON, Sask. — Caronport, formerly a training ground for the R.C.A.F., has been converted into a new Bible school.

Known as Briercrest Bible Institute, it was organized originally at Briercrest, Sask., in 1935. At that time it occupied one house and had 15 students. In 1946 the institute purchased the airport at Caron, consisting of 18 buildings and three quarter-sections of land, and the school was opened late in 1947. Present enrollment is 325 students.

Students come from all over Canada, the United States and there is one from the British West Indies. They are learning to become Bible teachers and missionaries. Every student takes a three-year course, with each term lasting six months.

DURING the summer the institute operates a Bible translator's school, the only one in Canada, to teach rudiments of any language to missionary students. Teachers at the translator's school come from Wycliffe Bible School, Glendale, Calif. The institute itself is affiliated with the Evangelical Teachers' Training Association, Chicago.

The institute also operates a high school and commercial school. Students enrolled in either of these courses, authorized by the Saskatchewan Department of Education, also take two hours of Bible instruction per day.

The institute does not ordain. Upon graduation the students return to their homes to supervise Bible classes with such churches as Baptist, Brethren, Mennonite, Presbyterian or Lutheran.

In the foreign field graduates are with the China Inland mission, the Africa Inland mission, Scandinavian Alliance mission in India, South America and the West Indies mission.

The school has its own gymnasium, indoor rink, post office and store. It owns a dairy herd of 54 animals, grows its own feed, raises chickens and has large gardens.

Winter Flying is Pleasant

leave the weather on the ground

There is a wide difference between ground conditions and the weather upstairs. Neither frost nor snow give any indication of the weather up above. These conditions are known always to T.C.A. and flights planned accordingly.

Winter or summer T.C.A. takes you where you want to go in the least possible time, comfortably and economically. To businessmen this means a saving of many valuable hours ... to the pleasure traveller, more hours at his destination.

Join the thousands of travel-wise people who go by air the whole year 'round. Fly with T.C.A. — a pleasant experience awaits you.

Stamps Hit Old Stride to Down Flyers 5-3.

SPORTS

HAROLD DEAN, Sports Editor

JQAYCK ARBOUR might have had a couple of rabbit paws carefully tucked out of sight, seeing it was Friday the 13th, but if he did come so prepared, he didn't have to squeeze them many times at the arena last night.

Flyers might have won the game in the second period when they stampeded the Stampeders and kept them on the run until they eased off and let Tony Demarais in for a soft and tying goal with less than three minutes to go.

The loss—second to Calgary on Edmonton ice this season, the opener on Oct. 11 being the other—is a damaging blow to Flyer aspirations. Seven points behind Regina and three below Calgary and both with a game in hand, make the prospect of finishing second slightly grim. A Regina win over Stampeders tonight would help. Edmonton has five games remaining, three at home.

First Period All Stampeders'

OPENING period last night definitely was Calgary's and Flyers had only three shots on Dertell to the 10 Stamps fired at Rollins. The penalty to Watt was a cheap one and it seemed Gordie might have been credited for the apparently unseen flattening of Hunter a few seconds before.

Cairns' low shot at 12:35 and just inside the post, was a good goal. Hergert was most fortunate in escaping a misconduct for jostling Referee Swain after being tagged with a holding minor. Flyer passing in the period was poor and nothing like their usual show. Rollins made a beautiful save when Emery was presented with a gift breakaway.

Flyers had an early edge in the second and Pringle, Young, Merluk and Clovechuk all missed good chances before Calgary's second tally came at eight minutes. Seconds later Maher golfed one wide of the net from only a few feet out.

Winning Calgary Goal Lucky

WATT should have been given an assist on Flyers' second goal by Merluk and Merluk evidently was overlooked on Clovechuk's counter which put Flyers up 3-2. Flyers outshot Stamps 13 to nine and three of Calgary's came in the last there minutes.

Deviq's wniinng goal glanced into the net off Pettinger's knee and Rollins never had a chance—possibly Arbour was squeezing a rabbit paw at that moment. Kreller at times looked to be regaining his old time stride and almost beat Dertell with a terrific drive, as Flyer pressure began to increase. Edmonton rained nine shots on Dertell in 11 minutes.

The penalty to Pringle at 14 minutes and which came with Hunter off for hooking, probably killed Flyer chances to win. They never did regain the same degree of control of the play afterward. Goalie Rollins was taken out with 50 seconds remaining and so will not be charged with the fifth Calgary goal, scored by McDonald who stole the rubber from Merluk. Flyers outshot Stamps 15 to 9 in the last period, making 31 to 28 for the game. The refereeing certainly wasn't the best seen in the arena this season.

Artificial Hockey Rink Would Help

ALTHOUGH this is only St. Valentine's Day, hockey playdowns have commenced in many centres throughout Canada. That means the clubs which failed to make playoff berths already are sidelined and must await another season. And the list of inactives will continue to grow as eliminations proceed.

New playdowns are very necessary and, the plan in senior and junior "A" being Dominion-wide in scope, an especially early start is indispensible. The same applies, to a lesser extent, to intermediates, now an interprovincial basis in the west. And no time can be wasted either for the juveniles, midgets and bantams, for natural ice cannot be depended upon as the sun gradually "creeps north."

Minor hockey never gets a very early start at the best and this season the situation was further aggravated by a mild fall and winter. Now it's all over for many boys after considerably less than two months.

A second artificial plant devoted primarily to hockey for divisions from junior down, rather than one on a grandiose scale to accommodate a 10,000 crowd would be more appropriate. In any event, such a rink would solve the hockey problem for Edmonton's young puckmen and take care of more of them—and for a longer term.

Oust Varsity Quintets

Mortons and Civils Snatch Final Berths

Mortons and Civil Service qualified for final berths in the "A" and "B" divisions of the Ladies' Basketball League last night when they racked up their second-successive victories in the semi-final rounds at the McDougall gym.

In the eye opener Civil eliminated Varsity Juniors from the "B" section playgrounds with a 30-18 triumph, and Morton "A" ousted Varsity Pandas 38-20 in the curtain-dropper.

MORTONS WILL now clash with Clare Hollingsworth's undefeated Army and Navy Pats, and Civil will take on the unbeaten Starlets in the final rounds for city laurels. Probable starting date will be next Wednesday.

The Morton lassies were "Dead-Eye-Dicks" around the basket last night. Soaring to a convincing 23-9 margin in the opening half, they then slowed down to a walk, but still out-scored Pandas 15-11 in the final.

GLADYS LIMMING was again the shooting star for the winners, flipping 12 points through the opening in the first half. Doris Nufer was a vital cog in the losers' armour with 10.

It was almost as simple for Civil Service. They too waltzed to a commanding lead in the opening half, and then put the "crusher" to the Juniors with a continuous basket-ward attack in the final.

Big guns for the winners were Evelyn Richardson and Sheila Barnes with 10 and eight points, respectively, while Marian Irwin flashed seven for the Varsity quintet.

"B" DIVISION

Civil Service—Evelyn Richardson 10, Gloria Sohnie 2, Mirian Williams 4, Sheila Barnes 8, Eleanor Robertson 4, Helen Wakaryk 2. Total 30.

Varsity Juniors—Marian Irwin 7, Rita McCormick 5, Glen Matheson, Arlene Maximchuk, Carol Barnes, Marian Brown, L. Hurnanen, Doris Morrison 6. Total 18.

"A" DIVISION

Mortons—Bella Marsh 6, Connie Strachan 6, Kay MacBeth, Marg Hembling 2, Ev Cramer 5, Denize Calloway 6, Joan Cragg, Glayds Limming 12, C. Cornelius 1, Mildred Birch. Total 38.

Varsity Pandas—Doris Nufer 10, Marie Schwarz 4, Ev Silk 2, Mary Miller, Kay Tanner 3, Joan Arnold, Jean Gauld, Helen Echart 1, Coreen McLeod, Bernice Moore. Total 20.

Officials—Tom McClocklin and Dorothy Allan.

Another Edmonton Thrust Ends at Dertell's Gate

Russ Dertell and some wild shooting on the part of the Flyers had a lot to do with Stampeders' 5-3 victory over the homesters last night and in the above photo the Calgary goalie is shown catching the little disc right at his doorstep. Gordie Watt is optimistically waiting at the goal-mouth for the puck to slide out of the melee, but Russ had his "paws" on it. Archie Wilder is also at the goal-mouth, but not for the same purpose as Watt. Morey Rimstad (No. 14) is shown towering over Dertell and Dunc Grant is looking on from the side.

Canadiens Win Junior League In Manitoba

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(BUP)—The curtain came down on regular season play in the Manitoba Junior Hockey League last night with the Winnipeg Canadiens sitting on the top of the pile.

The Canadiens took the league title by virtue of the 6-2 victory over the third place Winnipeg Monarchs at the amphitheatre. As the teams skated onto the ice, the Canadiens were leading the league by two points over the Brandon Wheat Kings who played host to the Black Hawks last night.

HAD THE CANADIENS lost and their rivals, the Wheat Kings, won, the league would have been all tied up. As it is, however, the Winnipeg squad are league champions no matter how the Brandon-Black Hawk tussle comes out.

In the first period last night, the Canadiens and the Monarchs both found the mark twice. But in the second frame, the Canadiens pulled away and the issue was never in doubt. They rammed in two more goals in the middle period and in the final period they put the clincher on the game with two more goals.

Longridge and Williams in Final

Edmonton's Louise Marshall Victim of Badminton Upset

CALGARY, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Frank Longridge of Saskatoon and Al Williams of Calgary will meet in the final of the men's singles championship in the Alberta Badminton tournament following victories in the opening rounds yesterday. All finals will be played this afternoon and evening.

Longridge disposed of Dave Clapperton of Calgary in one semi-final match yesterday in straight sets 15-8, 15-7, while Williams scored a decisive 15-9, 15-0 victory over Al Ingall of Edmonton in the other semi-final.

BARBARA HACKNEY of Calgary came through with a stirring upset in the ladies' singles when she eliminated the No. 1 seeded player, Louise Marshall of Edmonton 11-1, 11-6 in a quarter-final match and then went on to down Ursula Long of Calgary 11-7, 11-6 in the semi-final.

The Saskatoon prodigy, 15-year-old Joanne Legger, bowed out of the ladies' singles event to Calgary champion Eileen McFarren after a closely-fought three-set semi-final match 9-12, 11-4, 11-3.

THE MEN'S doubles will find Williams and Clapperton of Calgary engaging Saskatoon's Longridge and Hosie. The former team showed too much finesse in their bout with McManus and Ingall of Edmonton to win 15-8, 15-13. Hosie and Longridge crushed Magruire and Parker 15-6, 15-9 in the other semi-final.

The Edmonton ladies' team of McManus and Marshall outlasted Hackney and Long of Calgary in an interesting three-set affair 15-11, 12-15, 15-8 and earned the right to exchange shots with McFarren and Toole of Calgary who breezed by the Holmgren and McAvoy combination without too much difficulty, 15-11, 15-8.

Another Casualty

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(CP)—New York Rangers counted another casualty Friday when left wing Cal Gardner went to hospital with a severe cold, joining Rene Trudell among the National Hockey League's hospital cases.

Senior High School Loop

Impressive Victories In Boys' Cage League

Victoria, Commercial and Garneau all scored impressive cage victories last night as action in the Senior Boys' School Basketball League continued with a triple-header before more than 300 fans at Eastwood gym.

The Vic quintet flashed too much basketball at Westglen for a crushing 47-24 win, while Commercial edged Eastwood 28-21 and Garneau nosed out a split 27-23 victory over Scona.

THE POLISHED Vic crew wrapped up their triumph with a potent punch in the last half. They romped to a 20-13 edge in the opener, and then ran wild to outscore the West-Enders 27-11 in the final.

Art Kruger and Al Fekete were the "eagle eyes" for the winners with 12 and 11 points respectively. For the losers it was Gordon Pearson with a half-dozen.

DON MOORE SANK 10 points to spark Commercial to its narrow victory over the scrappy Eastwooders. Ernie Sandstrom was next high for the victors with eight, while Jack Allford and Carl Hartson flipped nine and eight respectively for the losers.

The Garneau-Scona encounter was a thriller right down to the wire, with the verdict swinging from side to side until the final minute of the game.

Ken Richards set a sizzling pace for the Garneau quintet, sinking 18 of its 27 points. Top man for the losers was Hans Finken with eight.

FIRST GAME

Victoria—Lutch 6, Fekete 11, Malkewich 8, Kruger 12, Morrison, Reid, Melynchuk, Saddy 2, Polonuk 8, Lightbody. Total 47.

Westglen—Campbell 3, Robson 2, Pearson 6, Crawford 5, Blackwell 2, Podolsky 4, Aiken. Total 24.

SECOND GAME

Eastwood—Allford 9, Aldridge 1, Cuff, Kropp, Sparratt 1, Hartson 8, Neilson 2. Total 21.

Commercial—Moore 10, Davies, Sandstrom 8, Arychuk 2, Halberg 2, Patterson, Cooper 2, Gavin 4, Varley, Kirrik. Total 28.

THIRD GAME

Scona—Finken 8, Chebry 8, Bradshaw 6, Clarke, Museley 1, Bryant 3, Davis, Kulak. Total 23.

Garneau—Richards 18, Konashewski 4, Smith 4, D'Amur, Chadwick, Chaban, S. Holmes 1, Beatty, D. Holmes, Ingraham. Total 27.

Officials—Art Henderson, Jack Morrison and Ted Sawchuk; timer, Wilkie; scorer, George Gibson.

Bowling Tourney Entries Over 500

All indications are that the 20th annual five-pin bowling tournament to be held March 6 to 13 inclusive, will be the largest ever held in Edmonton. Entries opened on Feb. 2 and do not close until Feb. 28, but already Jack Edwards and his tournament committee have received over 500 individual entries.

Additional entries from outside points are expected within the next few days, and it is urged that all Edmonton bowlers who wish to participate in the events should get their entries in as quickly as possible, so that they may bowl their games at times more convenient to themselves.

A member of the Edmonton Five-Pin Bowling Association executive will be on hand every evening and on Saturday afternoons to accept entries.

Weyburn Quartet Cops Junior Title

REGINA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Keith Lackey of Weyburn yesterday won the Southern Saskatchewan junior curling championship by defeating Bill Hans of Moose Jaw 10-7. Trailing 7-3 after eight ends, Lackey tied the game on the 10th and scored in each of the final two ends.

Button Captures Title

BARBARA NEARS SKATING RECORD

DAVOS PLATZ, Switzerland, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Beautiful Barbara Ann Scott of Ottawa today was well on the road to her third major figure-skating crown in a month after showing the heels of her flashing blades to 19 rivals in the early stages of the ladies' world championship tournament.

She will reign alone in the skating world if she retains her title when the competition ends Sunday.

Wearing a blue-grey doeskin outfit with white gloves and cap, a string of pearls around her neck and the Toronto's Men's Press Club gold key clipped to her left arm under a "Canada" crest, she was as stylish a figure as those she carved in the ice. She wore sun glasses against the glare in crisp weather and as usual throngs gathered wherever she moved.

IN YESTERDAY'S other event, Richard Button of Englewood, N.J., came sweeping back to win the men's singles with a point total of 1,980.7 compared with 1,948.5 for his closest rival, Hans Gerschwiler of Switzerland, the defending champion.

Reuters News Agency said many observers regarded Button's performance as the most brilliant ever given in international competition.

Third was Ede Kiraly of Hungary, 1,917.9 points; fourth, John Lettingarver, St. Paul, Minn., 1,909.8; fifth, James Grogan, Oakland, Calif., 1,907.2; and sixth, Graham Sharp, Britain, 1,809.9.

BOTH GERSCHWILER and Kiraly fell while attempting difficult figures.

Wally Distelmeyer of Toronto placed ninth with 1,724.4 points.

If Miss Scott wins the ladies' title, as she seems certain to do, it will mark the first time both world titles have been carried across the Atlantic.

Barbara Ann, who has been in the international skating spotlight since she won the European and world crowns last year and who already this year has retained the European title and achieved her lifetime ambition of winning the Olympic gold medal, was perfectly at ease before the nine judges.

ABOUT 700 spectators sat bundled in chairs around the ice in gay mood, but there were at least two disappointed visitors during the day.

They were former King Michael of Romania and Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma.

The royal couple arrived almost unnoticed at the stadium as the men's singles ended. The ex-king and his fiancee said they had come just to see Barbara Ann.

Miss Scott was nowhere in sight. The couple expressed their disappointment to newspaper men, then left.

Edmonton Players Pass Up Chances

Displaying team-work and spirit reminiscent of the brand that carried them to the pinnacle of senior hockey in Canada in 1945, Calgary Stampeders capitalized on their opportunities here last night to subdue the Flyers 5-3 and at the same time tossed icy water on Edmonton's aspirations of finishing on top of the league standing.

It was by far the Stampeders' best showing of the season on Edmonton ice. They fought their way into a two-goal lead, saw the Flyers rap in three in a row, then fought back to flash the red light three times themselves for their victory.

AT THE SAME time it was a night of lost opportunities for the homesters. They definitely held the upper hand in the first eight minutes of the second period and missed enough chances to win three ordinary hockey games. And, ironically, at the end of that spirited eight-minute offensive the opposition took advantage of a break to score.

Neither team scorched the ice with speed in the straggly first period, and Stampeders appeared to have a slight edge in the third.

REGINA'S 5-1 victory over Lethbridge left the Caps three points up on the Stampeders with 51 points, while Flyers are nestled in third spot with 44.

Stan Devicq was Calgary's ace marksman with two goals, while Tony Desmarais had a goal and an assist and Butch McDonald, and Doug Cairns netted singles.

Edmonton's most potent line was the "Pony Express", composed of Doug Anderson, Bing Merluk and Andy Clovechok.

This "dynamite trio' tossed the Stamps back on their heels right at the start, but couldn't penetrate Russ Dertell's fort. They also played an important role in the flashy second period drive.

KEN STEWART was out-guessed by Rollins and Flyers held the Stamps off when Watt was penalized, but at the 12-minute mark Tony Desmarais carried the disc in relayed it to Cairns and Doug batted a low shot into the corner.

A penalty to Hergert almost back-fired on the Flyers when Bud Emery broke away, but again Rollins was equal to the occasion.

After Rollins stopped Don Culley's shot from point-blank range in the second, Holmes, Young, Merluk and Clovechok missed from no further than 10 feet out as Flyers completely dominated the play. Dunc Grant was home free on a break-away, but Rollins turned his shot aside. Merluk was through again, but lost control of the puck and Rimstad, Maher and Holmes breezed in on Dertell with fruitless results.

Stampeders went two up at the end of this flurry, Don Culley carrying the puck in and Devicq slapping his pass past Rollins.

PRINGLE buoyed the Flyers' hopes when he deflected Watt's shot into the net as he stood near the corner, and while Bud Emery was sitting in the penalty box Louis Holmes golfed in a relay from Merluk. Less than a minute later Clovechok and Anderson combined for a sweet goal with Andy finishing off the play with a waist-high shot into the hemp.

STAN DEVICQ, who performed with the Flyers last winter, scored what proved the winning goal. He took a slap at the rubber during a melee in front of the net and it wound up in the net.

Kreller boomed a terrific drive off Dertell's chest, Clovechok missed on a back-hander in front and Watt almost scooped his own rebound in, but the Flyers just could not dent Dertell's citadel. Rimstad, Maher and Holmes had chances in front and Ken Hunter failed to out-guess Rollins.

Rollins was taken from the goal as time was running out and with only one second remaining McDonald stole the puck from Merluk and pushed it into the empty cage.

Calgary — Dertell; Emery, Wilder; McDonald; Devicq, Culley. Subs: Stewart, Hergert, Dame, Hunter, Brownridge, Grant, Desmarais, Cairns.

"Official" Sextet Beats Swiss 8-6

BASLE, Switzerland, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The "official" United States Olympic hockey team, which didn't compete in the recent games at St. Moritz, defeated the Swiss Olympic team 8-6 last night.

The Americans scored five goals in the first period, two in the second and one in the third, while the Swiss got three in both the first and second periods.

THE OLYMPIC squabble over whether the United States Olympic team or one representing the United States Amateur Hockey Association would represent the United States caused both teams to be ruled out of the games.

Big Moments in Sport
25 Years Ago

From the Bulletin Sports Files

Edmonton will be represented this week at the annual bonspiel to be held in Calgary. Among the city rinks will be those skipped by J. R. McIntyre, Royal; Williscroft, Capital, and Trimble and Seller of the Granite.

Edmonton's Allan Cup aspirants received a bitter shock last night when Blairmore trounced the Edmontonians 7-1 in the first of a final series for the provincial title. Goalie Campbell was the outstanding player for the losers, while Rennicka was the pick of the winners. Bowen notched Edmonton's lone marker on a pass from McKinnon.

Has Eye-Opening Record

Youthful Montreal "Whiz-bang" Desires to Become Toronto Leaf

MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—(CP)—It's either high treason or laudable ambition—depending upon which city you live in—but Don Currie, the 12-year-old whizz-bang centre of Guy-Drummond School's hockey team, has one burning desire—to become "a Toronto Maple Leaf."

Such aspirations, right in Montreal Canadiens' home town may be remarkable. Even more so is the eye-opening record of this one-man peewee team of the Outremont School League.

IN 12 GAMES, both regular schedule and playoffs, Don scored 42 of his team's 55 goals.

In one playoff game, when Guy-Drummond defeated Lajoie school, Don scored all his team's goals in an 8-1 victory. In the eight-game schedule he scored 24 of his team's 35 goals, and in four playoffs he drove in 18 of the 20 goals rung up by his team.

On top of all this, he has eight assists for the season.

THE GUY-DRUMMOND ace—his team won the league champoinship, undefeated, of course—weighs 85 pounds and is four and a half feet tall. He has been playing hockey for three years and credits his smooth style to Coach Maxwell Lewis. He says playing against bigger boys on Outremont rinks helps too.

Coach Lewis, happy over his steam's performance against four other schools in the league, predicts big things for his centre star.

Legion, Arcade Pee-Wee Winners

W. W. Arcade edged out Sterling Furniture 3-2 at Eastwood rink and Canadian Legion shut out Stinsons 5-0 on 101 street ice in Friday night games of Maple Leaf Athletic Club's pee-wee league.

Bill Bucyk netted a pair for Arcade, Norman Klingspoon adding the third, while Roy Matsuba and Ken Popow counted for the Furniture squad.

ROY McCLURE turned in shutout goaling for Legion during the entire route against Stinsons, and his team-mates, Dennis Stein (2), Ron Tookey, Bob Roberts and Roy Haugh provided the tallies.

These two completed the regular 15-game schedule for the Leaf peewees, with the exception of a couple of postponed fixtures.

Play in Moscow

MOSCOW, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Russian hockey teams may be hosts to travelling international clubs this winter. The city's biggest rink at Dynamo Stadium is being cleaned up. Indications are that Czechoslovakia may be the first country to send a team.

Ted Atkinson's Winnings Pass Five Million

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Ted Atkinson came through with a photo triumph astride the 2-5 favorite, Marine Band, in the sixth race at Hialeah yesterday and thus passed the $5,000,000 mark in all-time earnings of his mounts.

The Samuel R. Riddle three-year-old picked up $2,600, which made Atkinson's gleanings hit $5,002,488. Terrific Ted from Toronto began riding in December of 1937 but had only two mounts that year, earning exactly nothing.

SINCE HE GAVE up a job in a Brooklyn chemistry plant to become a jockey, Atkinson has had 1,683 winners, 1,479 seconds and 1,296 thirds. This year, at the current meeting, now 25 days old, Ted has ridden 40 winners, 20 seconds and 18 thirds for earnings of $139,450.

Chess Club Draw

All games of the Edmonton Chess Club must be played and result turned into the secretary, P. Connell, 10219-155 St. (Phone 91545), before Friday, Feb. 20. A correct score of the moves should be kept.

Following is the drawn for week starting Monday, Feb. 16:

SECTION 'A'

Holowach vs Horyn; Howard vs Connell; Shnitka vs Pyrcz; Erickson vs Melnychuk.

SECTION 'B'

Bergmann vs Brody; Windish vs Rabin; G. Grant vs Hegler; Byes Whitefoot, Mrs. Grant, Swift, Burfield, Sizer.

Leaders Trounce Lethbridge 5 to 1

LETHBRIDGE, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The league-leading Regina Capitals trounced Lethbridge Maple Leafs 5-1 last night in a Western Canada Senior Hockey League game to leave Leafs four points ahead of the cellar-dwelling Saskatoon Quakers.

The first period produced fast, exciting hockey, with both clubs skating at top speed both ways. Mallie Hughes of the Leafs was called on for 13 stops, Johnny Sofiak for 12.

THE ONLY goal of the period went to Harvey Barnes, who took Jim Fairburn's pass from the corner to beat Hughes at the 15:02 mark. Sofiak turned in a sparkling game in the Regina nets, handling close and hard shots capably. Hughes also turned in a sound game before about 2,200 fans who braved 10-below weather.

Fairburn, Gus Kyle, Toby Brown and Joe Fisher scored Caps' other goals. Steve Latoski was Leafs only scorer.

The fast pace kept up in the second session. Hughes rose to the heights in holding off the Caps as his defence folded, hardly ever covering their men.

Regina went two up at 7:54 when Fairburn scored from close in. Latoski notched a neat goal only 18 seconds later on a three-way passing play with Roy Heximer and Grant Hall. But Leafs' joy was short-lived as Gus Kyle made it 3-1 two minutes before the period ended on a long, low shot fired during a scramble.

Cap forwards hit the goal post twice during the period.

The Leaf defence went to pieces again in the third period. Brown backhanded one in at 3:32. Then Fisher trapped the puck in the centre ice area, sped in on Hughes alone and scored.

The Caps received two penalties in a row, but they did the faltering Leafs no good. Sofiak outguessed them every time they managed to come in close.

Regina—Sofiak; Grinke, G. Kyle; B. Kyle; McDougall, Van Deelan. Subs: Barnes, Myles, Fairburn, Brown, Hauck, Schmidt, Staseson, Fisher.

Lethbridge—Hughes; Boorman, Taggart; Latoski; Heximer, Hall. Subs: Luke, Gray, Kirkpatrick, Simpson, Gibson, Nordin, Thomas, Menzies.

Officials—Vic Lindquist, Mel Friend.

SUMMARY

First Period: 1—Regina, Barnes (Fairburn), 15:00. Penalties: Menzies, Grinke.

Second Period: 2—Regina, Fairburn (Schmidt, Staseson), 7:54; 3, Lethbridge, Latoski (Hall, Heximer), 8:12; 4—Regina, G. Kyle (Fisher), 18:00. Penalties—None.

Third Period: 5—Regina, Brown (Fisher, Hauck), 3:32; 6—Regina, Fisher (Barnes), 12:20. Penalties—Van Deelan, G. Kyle.

Record Entry For Women's Bonspiel

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A record entry of 128 rinks will open play next Tuesday in the 24th annual bonspiel of the Manitoba Women's Curling Association. This is four more entries than the previous mark set last year, and now is believed to be the world's largest bonspiel for women.

Outside entries include a rink from Saskatchewan, skipped by Mrs. John Spence of Carnduff.

VANCOUVER.—(CP) — Mrs. W. Crodie of Vancouver told police a fast-working thief hopped from an automobile and picked up a bed spring which fell from a moving van carrying her furniture.

Huskies Tighten Jaws on Trophy

Chew Bruins 5-2 In Third Contest

Scoring all their goals while the opposition was shorthanded in the second and third periods, Hobb Wilson's University of Saskatchewan Huskies last night swept over Alberta's Golden Bears, 5-2, in the third of a four-game series for the Halpenny Trophy at the Varsity rink.

The victory all but gave the invading pucksters possession of the trophy, emblematic of intercollegiate hockey supremacy, which has decorated the Alberta mantle for 10 or more years. Huskies lead the series two games to one.

IF ALBERTA should take the final match at the Varsity rink at 2:30 this afternoon, the winner will be decided from the best goals average Olympic style. Huskies also lead in this department by 13-9.

Beavers were first to break into the scoring column last night, illuminating the scoreboard twice in the sandwich frame after the initial canto resulted in a no-goal stalemate. However, a five-minute penalty in the dying minutes of the period to Alberta's Bob Colborne proved costly as Huskies tallied once before the second breather and again early in the final.

THE COUNT was all even at 2-2 when Vince Krehel of Bears was given the thumb midway through the period. Then came the big break in the game as Huskies rapped home three-straight markers, within one minute, while the Bear star looked on from the penalty box.

Git Rempel, who also plays for Saskatoon Quakers of the W.S.H.L. led the big and heavy invaders on their victory march with two goals, while singles fell to Jim Hay, George Parker and Pete Smandych. Hay, who turned in a standout performance on the line, also was big play-maker with a brace of "helpers."

VINCE KREHEL and Doug Ringrose lighted the lamps for the Bears.

Approximately 150 fans watched the two evenly-matched sextets struggle through a scoreless 20 minutes in the hard-fought initial stanza.

BEARS SOARED into what appeared a substantial 2-0 lead, on goals by Krehel and Ringrose, early in the middle frame, but then came Colborne's disastrous five-minute stretch. Hay teamed up with Army Kroeger to sink the first Saskatchewan marker at 19:26, and Rempel evened the count at 2:31 of the final on Hay's perfect setup.

It was "even-Stephen" until the 16:27 mark. Then, with Krehel sitting in the "sin-bin," Huskies opened up with all jets, sinking three "rapid-fire" tallies within 59 ticks of the clock. Parker, Rempel and Smandych fired the three Saskatchewan "quickies."

Bud McPhee turned in a brilliant net-minding chore for the victors, especially in the opening 20 when Bears swarmed in for the kill.

Saskatchewan—McPhee; Lovell, Kroeger; Owen; Smith, Smandych. Subs: Arnold, Spice, Parker, Meyer, Hay, Rempel, Burowski, Campbell.

Alberta—Moran; Soldan, Ingram; Fleming; Dockery, Krehel. Subs: Lyons, Colborne, Case, Hardy, Ringrose, Ellis.

Officials—Ken Fraser and Jim O'Connor.

SUMMARY

First Period: No scoring. Penalties—Hay, Ringrose.

Second Period: 1—Alberta, Krehel, 4:54; 2—Alberta, Ringrose (McQuay), 11:45; 3—Saskatchewan, Hay (Kroeger), 19:26. Penalties—Meyer, Colborne (major), Hay.

Third Period: 4—Saskatchewan, Rempel (Hay), 2:31; 5—Saskatchewan, Parker (Hay), 16:27; 6—Saskatchewan, Rempel (Meyer), 17:15; 7—Saskatchewan, Smandych (Owen, Smith), 17:26. Penalties—Krehel, Lovell, Spice.

Eyeing Title

Can Ted Allard's smooth-passing Maple Leafs capture the City Junior Hockey League title by knocking over the EAC's in three straight at the Edmonton arena tonight? That is the question buzzing among Junior followers, but the answer will not be known until the two scrappy clubs "fight" it out tonight. It will be EAC's last stand if they lose, as Leafs are in the driver's seat with two successive victories in the best-of-five final series.

West Indies Team Scores 447 Runs

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—With two days left for play, England will need a supreme effort to avoid defeat in the second test match against the West Indies, for when stumps were drawn at the end of the third day's play, the West Indies were 85 runs ahead on first innings with four wickets still standing.

The West Indies have scored 447 runs for six wickets in reply to England's first innings total of 362.

ENGLAND'S bowlers toiled in the field all day and although bowling well, met with little success until just before the close when two quick wickets fell.

Both the West Indies opening batsmen, George Carew and Andy Ganteaume, scored centuries, while F. Worrell failed when only three short of his 100.

Two Yankees Sign

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(BUP)—Outfielder Johnny Lindell has come to terms with the New York Yankees after a phone conversation with general manager George Weiss, and the Yankees' combination catcher and outfielder—Yogi Berra—says he has signed his 1948 contract.

Eight Rinks Undefeated At Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Two more rinks dropped out of the undefeated list last evening in the Manitoba diamond jubilee bonspiel. Jimmy Irving of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange was set back 9-5 by Coleman of Darlingford, Man., and Bung Cartmell dropped a close one to Scottish of Strathcona 7-6. These games reduce the number of unbeaten rinks to eight—six from Winnipeg and two from out-of-town.

Those from Winnipeg still in undefeated category include Dr. L. Howden, Bill Walsh, George Sangster, Bill McTavish, Harold Hindle and Bill McLeod. Those from out of the city are H. Duffy of Headingley, Man., and Bob Dunbar of St. Paul, Minn.

Jimmy Welsh, 1947 Canadian champion, kept his hopes alive for the playoffs by turning back Mannes of Domain, Man., 6-5 in a game that saw four ends blank. Ken Watson also turned in a victory over Shepherd of Russell, Man.

Docusen Gets Nod Over Gene Burton

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Bernard Docusen, a bouncing stylist from New Orleans, stabbed shut Gene Burton's left eye last night in winning a 10-round Madison Square Garden decision over the New York Negro. Docusen at 143¼ had a slight weight edge over Burton who weighed 142¼.

The main event suffered in comparison with the semi-final performance of Kid Gavilan, Havana's latest edition of Kid Chocolate. Gavilan scored a smashing hit by outpointing Vinnie Rossano of Brooklyn in 10 rounds.

Docusen reversed a Dec. 9 decision he lost to Burton at Los Angeles when he cleverly outboxed the New Yorker.

The Associated Press scoreboard read for Docusen 5-3, with two even.

A crowd of 15,047 wandered out of the fog and chill rain, shoving $59,422 into the till for the "all star" card that was to produce future foes for Ike Williams and Ray Robinson. Robby may get Gavilan later and Docusen may be matched in a non-title scrap with Williams. A Gavilan-Docusen bout Feb. 27 is another possibility.

Seattle and Monarchs Lead Coast Divisions

VANCOUVER, Feb. 14.—(CP)—As the door slowly closes on the 1947-48 season of the Pacific Coast Hockey League today the southern division pennant race shapes up as a race between San Francisco Shamrocks and the division-leading Los Angeles Monarchs.

In the northern division, Seattle Ironmen, have all but the final fitting of the championship. They hold a 17-point bulge over second-place Tacoma. The difference in divisions is demonstrated by only 15 points separating the last-place Oakland team and leading Los Angeles in the southern division.

HOWEVER, indications that the northern division clubs have improved in late season are evident with the recent invasion of the Monarchs. In their first three games they dropped two engagements and only managed to tie the third.

Currently the "hot-rod" club of the league is the Vancouver Canucks who have socked seven straight sessions away and are only one game out of a northern division, second-place deadlock with Tacoma.

New Westminster Royal's Ken Ullyot and Seattle's Roy McBride are sitting atop the north's scoring race tied with a total of 71 points. In the south, Maurice Vaillancourt, San Diego sharp-shooter, leads the division with 63 while Pete Wywrot of San Francisco has 61.

KIMBERLEY Dynamiters are well in front of second-place Trail Smoke Eaters in the Western International Hockey League. Spokane, Wash., Spartans are running third while Nelson Maple Leafs are in the loop basement.

Five teams remain in the Pacific Coast Senior "B" Hockey League race—just four after tomorrow. University of British Columbia Thunderbirds and Vancouver Indians are battling through a two-game elimination series with Indians holding a 3-1 edge.

FEWER GRADUATE

EDMONTON—(CP)—Fewer Alberta students have graduated from grade 12 this year than in 1947. Diplomas now are being mailed to 2,736 students. Last year, when many veterans completed their high school courses, 3,183 students graduated.

Injured Ringster Fights For Life

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Eddie Franklin, 23-year-old Philadelphia heavyweight, was operated on yesterday for removal of a clot on the brain—the result of a punch to the head in an eight-round fight.

Franklin was reported in serious condition. He was knocked down three times in the eighth round Thursday night by Bill (Chicken) Thompson who won a unanimous decision.

REFEREE Charley Daggert said he didn't stop the bout because there was no evidence that Franklin had suffered an injury.

"Besides," the referee said, "the three official scores show that Franklin needed only to win the last round to earn a draw, and could have gained the decision if had floored Thompson before he was dropped himself."

Accepts Try-Out

MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League announced last night that Gerry Plamondon, high scoring right winger of Montreal Royals in the Quebec Senior League, had accepted a two-game lend-lease trial with Canucks and will see action against Toronto Maple Leafs tonight.

South Side A.A. Meeting Wednesday

Annual meeting of South Side Athletic Association will be held at 8 p.m. next Wednesday in Orange Hall, 84 avenue and 108 street.

Assault-At-Arms Trials

MacLean Scores Quick Kayo In Title Battle

Laurie MacLean, Western inter-collegiate welterweight champion, took only one minute and 30 seconds to defend his title last night.

THE TITLE bout highlighted a program that included boxing, wrestling, fencing and a judo demonstration. Winners of the bouts will go to Saskatoon for the annual inter-collegiate Assault-at Arms.

Performing before approximately 500 fans, the Judo experts, Yoshio Katsuta and Yoshio Senda, gave a clever exhibition. Katsuta won four points to one.

Following are the results of the various matches:

WRESTLING

Bob Mitchell, Blairmore, defeated Roy O'Hashi, Regina, one fall.

Joe Gurba, Waskateneau, won unanimous decision over Lloyd Yakimowich, Edmonton.

Larry Edwards, Three Hills, defeated Joe Lancaster, Bluesky, by two falls.

BOXING

Gerald Dahms, Red Deer, defeated Doug Ross by unanimous decision. (Featherweight).

Marlin Wozniak won by technical knockout in third round over Andy Porter, Calgary. (Welterweight).

Fiz Leadiy, won split decision over Arnold Holmes, Carstairs. (Middleweight).

Officials, referee, Wally Beaumont; judges, Alex Wynnychuk and Roy Haliburton; timer, A. G. Shute.

FENCING

Sylvester Adlemann vs F. Wetterberg; Stan Mealing vs Dr. White.

Sabre bout—Prof. L'Gads vs F. Wetterberg.

DISTRICT NEWS IN BRIEF

Plan Amalgamation Co-op Organizations

BEAVERLODGE, Feb. 14.—N. F. Priestly, general manager of the U.F.A. Central Co-Operative Association and R. McCoole, superintendent of stores for the same concern, were guest speakers at a meeting of the directors and shareholders of the Beaverlodge Co-Op in the community centre here recently.

THE VISITORS endeavored to explain the system under which the two bodies would work as a joint concern. The matter was thoroughly discussed and it was decided that negotiations for the proposed amalgamation should begin immediately.

The local Co-op association agreed to canvass the district for membership loans to supply the funds necessary for the erection of a new building. The aim at present is to build a unit of the proposed plant at an estimated cost of approximately $15,000.

It is hoped that work on the new building will commence early in the spring.

Guest Speaker

HIGH PRAIRIE, Feb. 14—Miss Cecelia C. Connelly, district home economist, addressed members of the High Prairie Women's Institute at a recent meeting here, speaking on budgets and labels of food and clothing.

Miss Connelly also spoke of visits to women's clubs at Fairview, Brownvale and Berwyn.

Elect Officers

ENTWISTLE, Feb. 14—Mrs. M. Thompson was re-elected president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion branch in Entwistle at the annual meeting recently.

Others elected are: first vice-president, Mrs. M. Sullivan; second vice-president, Mrs. M. Steele; secretary-treasurer, Miss M. B. Smith.

Returns to Entwistle

ENTWISTLE, Feb. 14—F. W. Maddock, president of Entwistle plant of Northern Alberta Dairy Pool, has returned to Entwistle from Brockville, Ont. where he attended a convention of Canadian dairymen.

Re-elect Chairman

WETASKIWIN, Feb. 14—At the annual meeting of the Wetaskiwin Divisional School Board, B. C. McRae was re-elected chairman. In Mr. McRae's absence at the West coast for six weeks, H. Strohschein will fill the chair.

Ejnar Cortsen, has returned from Winnipeg where he attended the conference of auto store managers from the three prairie provinces and the managers of Western Auto Stores, British Columbia. Due to repairs being made in the local rink, the annual Bonspiel will be staged at a later date than usual. Dates for this year's 'spiel are Feb. 23, 24, 25.

Wetaskiwin I.O.D.E. Names New Officers

WETASKIWIN, Feb. 14.—At the annual meeting of the Peace Hill chapter, I.O.D.E., the following officers were elected: regent, Mrs. Walter Vassar, first vice-regent, Mrs. L. B. Yule; second vice-regent, Mrs. Jack Campbell; secretary, Mrs. Fred Frederickson; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Aboussafy; echoes secretary, Mrs. Sam Slutker, educational secretary, Mrs. William Janzen (retiring Regent after three years); standard bearer, Mrs. Godfrey Baker. Councillors are: Mrs. R. W. Manley, Mrs. Thomas Palfrey, Mrs. Alex Barnhill, Mrs. H. Hosford, Mrs. Percy Ball, and Mrs. M. Aboussafy.

The financial report showed all obligations to the National chapter, Post War Service Fund and Provincial chapter were met. The sum of $1,059 was raised during the year.

To Open Didsbury Arena February 18

DIDSBURY, Feb. 14.—A special program has been arranged for the official opening of the new Didsbury Memorial Arena Feb. 18. Skaters from the Glencoe Skating Club of Calgary will give a performance which will last about one hour and hockey games are planned.

Maj.Gen. M. H. S. Penhale, officer commanding Western Army Command will give the dedication address and officially open the new building.

Credit Union Presents Reports

ST. PAUL, Feb. 14—Approximately 200 people attended the ninth annual meeting of the St. Paul Credit Union in the Parish Hall recently. The report shows an increase in the business carried out in 1947, with a turnover of $320,000.

Edmond Duchesneau was in the chair to welcome the attendants, introduce the speakers and conduct the meeting. The financial report was given by the treasurer.

Re-elected by acclamation were the retiring officers who are as follows: Edmond Duchesneau, president; J. E. Roy, vice-president; Thomas Frigon, secretary-treasurer; Albert Doucet, H. Genereux, A. Gosselin, Joseph Blanchette, directors. Members of the credit committee are: C. Charron, president; J. A. Joly and J. E. Duchesneau; supervisory committee: J. Van Brabant, L. A. Pigeon and George Joly.

Improvements at Beaverlodge

BEAVERLODGE, Feb. 14.—Annual meeting of the ratepayers was held in the Community Centre here recently. The mayor's report was read by Dr. W. A. Young, retiring mayor. Many improvements were made in the town during the last year, including the grading of two new streets. Cement culverts were installed, replacing many old wooden ones. It is planned to put concrete sidewalks down the main street this year.

Funds have been set aside for the erection of a new town hall, which is to house the fire engine besides providing space for town offices. Construction of this building will commence as soon as possible.

A vote of thanks was extended to the retiring mayor for his service by A. Bowtell. The financial statement for the year 1947 was then read by the secretary-treasurer, N. D. McFarlane. This revealed a capital surplus of $13,370.

Nominations are now open for new council members and voting will take place on Monday, Feb. 16.

Mundare Group Elects Mrs. Ferbey

MUNDARE, Feb. 14. — Mrs. D Ferbey was re-elected president of the Ukrainian Catholic Women's League of Mundare for the third term recently at the annual meeting in the Mundare National hall.

Others elected are: vice-president, Mrs. J. Feniak; recording secretary, Mrs. W. Skeptycki; financial secretary, Mrs. J. Cherniawsky; treasurer, Mrs. William Karoluk; executive committee, Mrs. M. Pehowich, Mrs. J. Topylko, Mrs J. Laibida, Mrs. John Winicke and Mrs. A. Hill.

Skiers' Pastor Dies

NORTH CONWAY, N.H., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Rev. J. Eugene Belford, 60, pastor of the Church of Our Lady of the Mountains and known as the "skiers' pastor," died last night. Father Belford, a graduate of the Montreal grand seminary where he was ordained, gained prominence when he originated his annual skiers' mass at which skis were blessed and prayers were said for the safety of skiers.

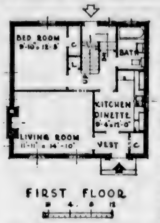
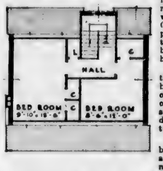
BUILDER'S GUIDE

N.H.A. DESIGN-OF-THE-MONTH



FIRST FLOOR



SECOND FLOOR

First in a new series of popular Canadian house plans, this "N.H.A. Design-of-the-Month" is a 1½-storey type in which the functional planning has allowed for variation of use to suit individual requirements. Comprising five standard rooms and bathroom, the plan provides a living room, kitchen-dinette and three bedrooms but has been arranged to allow use of the first floor bedroom as a dining room or as a childrens' playroom which could serve as a guest room when necessary.

Financial assistance in building new houses such as the one illustrated, is available to Canadians under the terms of the National Housing Act, 1944.

The kitchen fixtures are planned on the single wall or straight line basis, except for the position of the electric range which is at the rear of the kitchen. All the rooms have large windows providing adequate light and ventilation. The bathroom is on the first floor, a feature which is gaining popularity with Canadian home-owners. Complete privacy is afforded since access from the second-floor bedrooms to the bathroom is by means of the stair hall.

The photograph illustrates one type of construction for this design, brick veneer walls with wood siding on the gable ends. The owner made one change from the standard plan, substituting a group of three windows in the front elevation for the two windows shown in the sketch.

While this particular house is brick veneer, the working drawings are designed so that construction may be solid brick, block or wood frame with stucco, siding or shingle finish. This permits selection of an exterior finish to suit the individual.

Depending on the type of finish, the exterior dimensions are approximately 26 feet by 26 feet. For estimating costs, the floor area may be considered to be 1170 square feet.

Complete construction drawings for this plan, known as Design No. 502A, are available from Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation at minimum cost.

Negro Acquitted On Murder Charge

KINGSTON, Ont., Feb. 14.—(CP)—Leon Stafford, 24-year-old negro from Waycross, Ga., yesterday was acquitted of murder in the knife slaying of Gerald Harrison, 22, of Toronto, during a dice game fracas last August.

The jury in Ontario Supreme Court returned its verdict late yesterday at the end of a 3½-day hearing.

The jury deliberated three hours. Its verdict was received with wild cheering and shouting and several women broke into uncontrollable sobbing. When order was restored, Mr. Justice G. F. McFarland, who presided, told Stafford:

"Leon Stafford, you have been found not guilty. I consider you a very lucky man. I hope you have learned your lesson. You are discharged."

H. J. Campbell, one of the eye-witnesses, gave evidence late in the trial that he saw Harrison strike Stafford at least twice, that after being knocked down, Stafford got up and ran toward the lake.

Another of those present, Donald Patterson, testified that although he saw Stafford fall, he saw no blows struck.

Hot Words are Spoken

Verbal Battle Flares During House Debate

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Fiery H. G. Archibald (CCF—Skeena) and Labor Minister Mitchell crossed verbal swords in the commons last night and in the brief spat accused each other of making speeches of the type heard in Communist Moscow and former Nazi-controlled Berlin.

MR. ARCHIBALD set off the fireworks when he charged the government was governing for a segment of the population and was destroying the faith of the people in democracy.

"The speech you just made was made in Moscow," interjected Mr. Mitchell during continued debate on the throne speech.

"I fought the Communists long before you ever did," retorted Mr. Archibald. He charged that during the 1945 election campaign Mr. Mitchell had Tim Buck, Labor-Progressive party leader, "around your neck."

"Just because you have carried out the spy probe and sent a few fellow travellers away on a one-way ticket and chased Sam Carr (former national organizer of the Labor Progressive party) to Mexico is no reason why you should try to damn the movement of the Canadian people," said Mr. Archibald amid cries of order.

Howard Green (PC—Vancouver South) rose on a point of order and said it ill behooved a member of a Canadian parliament or legislature to charge another with making a speech that was made in Moscow. He asked for a withdrawal.

Mr. Mitchell said he would withdraw and say simply that speeches like Mr. Archibald's were made in Moscow.

"Your speeches were made in Berlin," retorted Mr. Archibald.

JOSEPH HARRIS (PC—Toronto Danforth), who took the floor following the incident said his impression of Skeena certainly had not been improved by the demonstration of Mr. Archibald.

In remarks that led up to the incident, Mr. Archibald sharply criticized the prices board's handling of housing regulations.

He said Owen Lobley was sent by the board to Ocean Falls, B.C., to investigate an application by Pacific Mills Ltd., for a rent increase of employes' houses.

Mr. Lobley had heard evidence of about 20 out of 500 tenants and then returned to Ottawa to write his recommendations.

He recommended that the accommodation in Ocean Falls be no longer subject to price board orders.

"Who is this egotistical, stupid, frustrated little man who is taking on the powers of royalty?" asked Mr. Archibald in quoting from the ruling which increased rents in the company town by an average of 24 per cent.

WHEN THERE WERE interjections and questions from members, Mr. Archibald said:

"I decided a while ago that I would not try to answer interjections from the Progressive Conservative party because as a political force it could not fight its way out of a paper bag."

Mr. Harris said he hoped that Mr. Archibald would "mature" and take a broader view than one which set one class of people against another. Canada needed "big" men and "broad" men.

He wondered if the views of someone outside the chamber were being put on the official record and whether those who did that had "a right to sit in this chamber."

"Pretty cheap, that is," said John Blackmore (S.C.—Lethbridge).

Stanley Knowles (C.C.F.—Winnipeg North Centre) said he thought Mr. Harris might be violating the parliamentary principle that a member was assumed to believe himself the things he said in the house.

Mr. Harris said he wondered whether Mr. Archibald had used "good taste."

Says Examinations Were Being Rigged

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A charge of "political interference and finagling with civil service appointments" in the Indian affairs department was made in the commons yesterday by Douglas Harkness (P.C.-Calgary East).

Mr. Harkness alleged that examinations for the post of chief inspector of agencies were being rigged to permit the appointment of the private secretary of Resources Minister Glen, in charge of Indian affairs. He did not name the secretary.

(Mr. Glen's private secretary is W. J. Pratt.)

The Calgary member said several senior Indian affairs officials had applied for the job, along with the secretary. After the first examination, a selection board recommended appointment of Col. F. P. Randle, superintendent of the Six Nations reserve near Brantford, Ont.

But, he said, that recommendation was not accepted, and another competition was announced with the qualifications changed, "apparently to make it easier for one of the other candidates to obtain the appointment." On the second examination, Col. Randle again was chosen, but again the recommendation was not accepted.

"Now I understand another competition is to be held, or has been held," Mr. Harkness said. "For this competition they have changed the title of the job . . . they are going to call it executive assistant I suppose that gets away from the necessity of having experience."

To Train Women

MUNICH, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—About 200 wives of United States air force men stationed at the Neubiberg air base in Bavaria will begin training in the use of army carbines on Monday so that they may be armed against prowlers and marauders.

Easy Stages to a Fine Home

No. 155

You may want to build this house in several stages.

First the basic five rooms. Then, the breezeway porch. Third, the garage.

Thus the house may be created as it were, on the installment plan as material, labor or funds are available.

There is a fourth step possible—to build two extra bedrooms over the first floor bedroom suite by reducing the size of the first floor bedroom and building stairs at one end.

The living room has several attractive and wanted features. There is a splendid wood-burning fireplace with a small utility closet at one side useful for games, books or storage.

A huge picture window at the front floods the living room with sunlight and, further, provides auxiliary solar heat to the room. The center portion of the window is of stationary plate glass with out-swung casements on either side for ventilation.

One enters the house from the breezeway porch through the entrance door recessed between two coat closets.

There is no dining room, but room is provided for a table below the kitchen window.

Home Will Cost More

Lumber Now Available But Prices Are Higher

By George Finlay

VANCOUVER, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Plenty of lumber will be available for building that "dream home" this year, but the price will be another thing.

TO THE FIRST TIME in five years, there is a surplus of lumber, but there is not the slightest chance, say dealers, of price reductions.

Export markets are still sufficiently active to hold domestic prices at a high level, with most of the demand coming from the United States. Shippers also see a demand from Europe once the Marshall Aid Plan is in operation

In contrast to the war years, lumber is stacked high in the yards here, and it is possible to put a complete order into mills now, saving the shopping around of the shortage era and cartage costs.

Builders find a continuation of the interest in home building, but cash deals are fewer, down payments smaller, and mortgages on the high side.

Labor and building costs are far ahead of a year ago, and the $7,000 house of 1947 will cost $7,800 this year.

IT MAY HAVE smaller rooms to cut some of the cost down. Many builders estimate costs 20 to 25 per cent a year ago.

Dimension lumber, No. 1, has advanced $18.50 a thousand board feet from $46.50 to $65; finishing lumber $29.50 from $96.50 to $126; nails up from $6.50 a keg to $8.50; shingles, No. 1, up $1.55 from $8.45 to $10. Plumbing and heating installations also show advances ranging from 20 to 30 per cent.

Remember, however, these are coast prices, where purchases can be made from the mills, free of freight rates.

Contractors have one advantage this year—the labor supply is good and better-type workmen available.

"The men are getting back to the old idea of doing a day's work," said one contractor.

WHATEVER THE costs, it will be a "dream home." The builders have plans to overcome the smaller room idea, more built-in features to give greater living space.

Charges Phelps With Dictatorship

REGINA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—An opposition bid for a full-scale debate on pensions was partially successful in Saskatchewan legislature yesterday when speaker Tom Johnston admitted an amendment to the address in reply to the throne speech by G. H. Danielson (L.—Arm River) regretting the government had stopped payment of supplementary old age pensions after the legislature had voted the necessary funds last session.

The speaker withheld his ruling on a point of order raised by Premier T. C. Douglas who said the house had only voted funds for the province's share of $30 monthly supplementary payment and had not authorized payment of $5 monthly supplementary allowance for the complete year

The speaker ruled the throne speech debate could continue pending his ruling on the correctness of the motion's wording.

It was generally believed Mr. Danielson would agree to deletion of the disputed statements from his amendment and debate would be deferred until Wednesday when Welfare Minister O. W. Valleau would be in the house.

Mr. Danielson charged in the throne speech debate that Canada's only C.C.F. government had placed northern Saskatchewan completely in the grip of a "dictator,"—Resources Minister J. L. Phelps—and that regimentation and control were creeping south to the prairies.

The province's Mineral Taxation Act, providing for taxation of mineral rights of all underground minerals, already had confiscated mineral rights belonging to many farmers and confiscation of surface rights on their land could well be next.

Fire Aboard Ship Does No Damage

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(AP)—One man was injured last night in a fire aboard the freighter Augustana Victory berthed in the Hudson river. The fire—high in the vessel's mainmast—was put out before causing damage to the freighter itself.

The United States Lines announced the ship, carrying general cargo, would sail for Antwerp today as scheduled.

Frank Frosch, 38, an electrician, was injured when a flash fire ignited a tarpaulin curtain rigged to protect a welding crew working near the top of the mast. Only the curtain, used to shield the crew from rain and wind, and the welders' scaffolding were damaged. Frosch was burned on the right arm.

Born Without Mouth Opening

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Feb. 14 —(AP) — A baby girl, prematurely born without an opening in its mouth, yesterday had a chance to live normally. The Fayette County Medical Society, which described the case as the first in medical history, gave details of two operations performed by a dental surgeon.

Feeding was done by a tube through the nostrils.

In the first surgery, the upper and lower jaws were separated and the tongue freed. The second operation removed excess tissue and completely freed the jaw

The baby weighed four pounds at birth and now is able to move her jaws, cry and nurse with a special nipple

Army Is Losing Devoted Servant

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Defence Minister Claxton, commenting last night on the retirement of Maj.-Gen. E. J. Renaud, C.B., C.B.E., general officer commanding Quebec Command, said the "Canadian army is losing one of its most devoted servants."

Gen. Renaud goes on leave today pending retirement from the permanent force. He is a veteran of both Great Wars and was born in Ottawa 57 years ago.

He has been succeeded by Maj.-Gen. R. O. G. Morton of Toronto, formerly of Prairie Command.

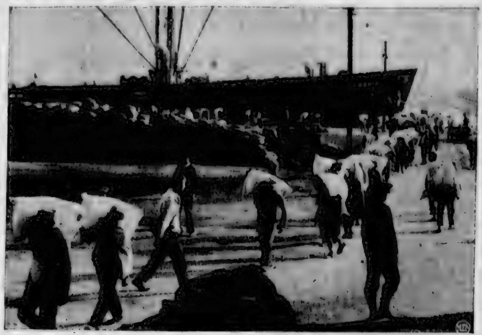
"Baby Shower" Came First Twice

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Jerry King, 26, a teleprinter operator, wagered $6 in a $2 across-the-board hunch bet on "Baby Shower" in the eighth race at Santa Anita Park.

Just about the time the race was being run Thursday King's wife, Rae Jean, 21, gave birth to an eight-pound boy at Monte Sano hospital, the couple's first child.

"Baby Shower" came home first, paying $17.40 to win, $8.30 to place and $4.30 to show. King collected $30.50.

First U.S. Stop-Gap Aid Arrives in China



Chinese coolies carry sacks of flour from the hold of the S. S. California, following ceremonies at which Mayor K. C. Wu of Shanghai officially accepted the 8,000-ton shipment, first to arrive from the U.S. under the stop-gap aid prpgram.

Ship Workers Strike Spreading

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—Three hundred ship repair shop stewards voted last night for a complete stoppage of work at the dockside repair shop on Merseyside (dock area of northwest England of which Liverpool is chief centre) starting today.

Six thousand workers now are on strike, and last night's decision will increase the number to 20,000, involving work on 20 ships including the liners Britannic, Orbita and Empress of Canada.

The dispute is over termination of an "incentive bonus."

"Mad Parson" Hunt Now Intensified

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Scotland Yard yesterday intensified its widespread manhunt for John Edward Allen, 35-year-old "mad parson" who escaped seven months ago from the Broadmoor asylum for criminal insane.

Allen fled in a business suit but was known to be carrying a suitcase containing clerical garb. The search centred in London where the "mad parson" was believed to have been in the Fleet Street area within the last few days.

Word went out to all metropolitan police stations to pick up Allen "at all costs." He had been convicted of strangling 17-year-old Kathleen Woodward in 1937 and was sentenced to be hanged. Later he was found insane and committed to Broadmoor.

Charges Chinese Being Persecuted

VANCOUVER, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Ian Cameron, a barrister, charged in city police court yesterday that political reasons are largely responsible for the drive against Chinese gambling here.

"The Chinese have been selected as a group, as against the white man who plays day and night, and nothing happens to him," he told the court. "The Chinese as a group are being persecuted."

Mr. Cameron defended some of 114 Chinese who paid a total of $1,072 in fines when convicted yesterday on gambling charges.

"We are not hitting at the people who are playing, but at those who obtain a rake-off from the gambling," said Stewart McMorran, city prosecutor.

Since Dec. 23, 813 Chinese have been arrested, and fines totalling $3,470 collected.

"I am not dictating the policies of the police commission," said Magistrate Mackenzie Matheson. "There is a way in which this could be stopped, but it is not for me to say."

Western European Union Great Hope

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 14.—(AP)—State Secretary Marshall last night described the formation of a Western European Union as "our great hope."

A "stable and healthy Western Europe," Marshall said, would make Soviet leaders "much more inclined" to reach a settlement of problems that now divide Russia and the West.

Marshall's remarks were contained in an address prepared for the National Farm Institute. Grounded by bad weather at Knoxville, Tenn., while en route here by plane, the secretary arranged to read his speech by telephone from a radio station in Knoxville.

He unreservedly endorsed the Western European Union proposals of Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

And he declared that "half-hearted and inadequate" United States aid to Europe would have the "tragic" result of letting Western Europe, the Middle East and the entire Mediterranean area pass into the contro. of "the Soviet Union and their Communist Allies."

Marshall said the decision of 16 European countries to pool their recovery efforts under what has become known as the "Marshall Plan"—was "a historical step of first importance towards the making of a peaceful world."

"And now," he said, "there is in progress a further development of this concert of free nations and one of great importance to the future of Europe.

"On the recent proposal of the British foreign minister, Mr. Bevin, they have passed beyond their agreements for economic co-ordination to the consideration of a Western European Union."

New Conference European Powers

PARIS, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—A new conference of the 16 European countries which took part in the Marshall Plan conference last year, probably will be held here within three or four weeks, it was learned Thursday in well-informed circles. It was understood that the new conference would be asked to consider the setting up of a permanent 16-power organization and the study of further development of inter-European co-operation.

Jockeys Injured At Hialeah Park

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 14.—(BUP)—The two jockeys injured yesterday afternoon at Hialeah Park—Harold Featherston and Richard Kline—both are reported in serious condition last night at a Miami hospital. Featherston suffered a broken right arm, fractured back and possible paralysis when his horse collided with Kline's mount at the start of the second race. Kline has a broken right leg.

Suspend LaMotta Until June 21

NEW YORK, Feb. 14. — (AP) — The New York State Athletic Commission yesterday suspended boxer Jake LaMotta until June 21 and fined him $1,000 for having concealed facts of his physical condition before he was stopped by Billy Fox of Philadelphia Nov. 14 at Madison Square Garden.

LaMotta has been under "temprary suspension" since Nov. 21, when he admitted to the commission that he went into the Fox fight with an injured side and against the advice of his physician.

The bout was halted in the fourth round after LaMotta had taken a fierce beating from the Philadelphia Negro.

Washington Upsets Leading Hornets

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The lowly Washington Lions upset Pittsburgh Hornets, leaders of the American Hockey League's western division last night, downing the Toronto Maple Leaf farmhands 5-3. Johnny Carr-Harris tallied twice and Dan Porteous, Don Slater and rookie Maurice Robidas added singletons for the winners. Pete Backor, Fleming Mackell and Bill Benson were the Hornet scorers.

Kirk Signs New Quaker Contract

SASKATOON, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Saskatoon Quakers of the Western Canada Senior Hockey League last night announced that Bobby Kirk of Winnipeg had signed to coach the club again during the 1948-49 season.

Soon after signing his new contract Kirk got into the practice with his Quakers, became too ambitious, crashed into the goal post and cracked three ribs.

Jimmy Demaret Up Four Strokes

HARLINGEN, Tex., Feb. 14. — (AP) — Smiling Jimmy Demaret shot a seven-under-par 64 on the 6,045-yard Harlingen Municipal course yesterday to take a long lead in the lower Rio Grande Valley open golf tournament.

Demaret, co-leader Thursday with Clayton Heafner, with a 65, turned the first nine in 30, five under par, and came romping in with a two under on the back nine.

HIS TOTAL of 129 was four strokes better than Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, who shot into second place with a 65 to go with his 68 of Thursday.

Southern Playoff Starting Tonight

CALGARY, Feb. 14. — (CP) — First game of a best-of-seven series for the Southern Alberta Hockey League championship will open at Lethbridge, Alta., tonight between Lethbridge Native Sons and Calgary Buffaloes.

Second game of the series will be played in Medicine Hat, Alta., Monday with the series moving to Calgary for the third game Wednesday. The fourth game will also be played in Calgary with the series probably moving back to Lethbridge if any additional games are required.

Splendid Cough Syrup Easily Mixed at Home

To get quick relief from a distressing cough, mix this recipe in your own kitchen. Once tried, you'll say it's your favorite cough medicine, and it's so simple and easy.

First, make a syrup by stirring 2 cups granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. Anyone can do it. No cooking needed (Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup)

Then get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist. This is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well known for its quick action on throat irritations.

Put the Pinex into a 16 ounce bottle, and fill up with your syrup. Thus you make 16 ounces of very efficient medicine, and you get four times as much for your money. It tastes fine and never spoils.

And for quick, satisfying relief, it is splendid. You can feel it penetrating the air passages and taking hold of the cough. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and eases the soreness. Thus it makes breathing easy, and lets you get restful sleep.

Pinex Is Swift Acting. Saves Money. Easily Mixed.

What Character does your handwriting Reveal?

Are you talented? What type should you marry? How can you overcome your weaknesses and make the most of your strong points?

All this can be scientifically answered by Andrienne, famous handwriting analyst. Send a sample of your handwriting with twenty-five cents (in coin) and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Andrienne, care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

This week Andrienne analyzes the handwriting of Joan Crawford, prominent Hollywood star.

Dear Andrienne
Just try and analyze this
Joan Crawford

IN JOAN CRAWFORD we find a highly emotional, intense personality with exaggerated imagination, great ambition and driving force.

Observe her long, sweeping "t" bars. Joan is a person of great ardor, animation, vivacity and enthusiasm. Her looped "d" stems betray her sensitiveness, which she could not always conceal successfully

She is at heart a sentimentalist and would have to guard her feelings from gaining control of her better judgment.

She is quite sincere in her desire for self-improvement and what poise and confidence she now possesses, she cultivated by sheer determination and persistency.

Are Serving Canada

World Leaders Greet Scouts-Guides Week

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Greetings to the thousands of boy scouts and girl guides across Canada came today from leaders of the movement in Canada, Britain and the United States as Canadian scouts and guides prepared for their National Week Feb. 15-22 inclusive.

VISCOUNT ALEXANDER, as Chief Scout for Canada, sent his greetings to the 103,759 Scouts, while Viscountess Alexander wished success to the 65,000 Girl Guides in the Dominion. Other messages were sent by Lord Rowallan, Chief Scout of the British Commonwealth, and Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, Chief Scout Executive of the U.S. movement.

"As Chief Scout for Canada it is my privilege to send a message to Canada's Boy Scouts on the eve of Boy Scout-Girl Guide week," the Governor-General said. "During my travels I have seen many Scouts and Guides in training, learning to help others, learning to give and take, learning to live. Canadians may well be proud of you for you are training to serve Canada.

"I wish you every success during Scout-Guide week and hope that many people will avail themselves of the opportunities which the week presents for them to see for themselves just what you are doing in scouting and guiding."

VISCOUNTESS ALEXANDER, patron of the Canadian Girl Guides, said:

"To Canada's 65,000 Girl Guides my very best wishes for the success of Boy Scout-Girl Guide week. Like your brother Scouts you are members of a world-wide organization dedicated to serve others and work for world peace.

"It is gratifying to me that guiding is going well in Canada and that you are playing your part in the expansion of the movement in countries less fortunate than ours. Good luck to you all throughout the next week and throughout the year."

DROVE 11,000 MILES

WINDSOR, N.S. — (CP) — Earl Crowe and four companions have arrived home after an 11,000-mile automobile tour of Canada started last Aug. 4. The youths stayed longest at Taber, Alta., where Earl worked as a machinist and the others as carpenters. They also visited the northwestern United States and California.

Federal Payments Larger This Year

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—The federal government's 1948-49 payments to the provinces under Dominion-Provincial Taxation agreements will be increased by some $3,500,000 because of the 1947 increase in the value of the gross national product, a finance department official said yesterday.

The 1946 value of the gross national product, taken into consideration in calculating payments to the provinces, was $11,129,000,000. Preliminary figures show that the 1947 value was at least 10 or 12 per cent. higher.

The official said the department has not yet calculated what additional amount each province would receive, but a total of about $3,500,000 would be divided. All provinces except Ontario and Quebec will share in the money. The two central provinces did not renew wartime agreements with the Dominion.

Women Permanent Part British Army

LONDON, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—The women's section of the British army will in future be known as the Women's Royal Army Corps instead of the present A.T.S. (Auxiliary Territorial Service). The air force section will be called the Women's Royal Air Force instead of the W.A.A.F. (Womens Auxiliary Air Force).

These changes, approved by the King, were officially announced yesterday.

The women's army and air force services are, it was announced last week, to become a permanent feature of the armed services. The W.R.N.S. never was declared part of the armed forces of the crown in the same way as the other two services and will remain a civilian organization.

R.C.A.F. Officers Are Decorated

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—The Czechoslovakian and United States governments have conferred decorations on two top wartime R.C.A.F. officers, air force headquarters announced last night.

The Military Order of the White Lion for Victory, the Star first class, highest Czechoslovakian award ever conferred on an R.C.A.F. officer, has been awarded Air Marshal H. Edwards, C.B., of St. Sauveur Des Monts, Que. Air Marshal Edwards was formerly air officer commander in chief of the R.C.A.F. overseas.

Two decorations, the Order of the White Lion, third class, from Czechoslovakia and the Legion of Merit, Degree of Commander, from the United States, were awarded Air Vice Marshal N. R. Anderson of Walkerton, Ont., who was second in command of the R.C.A.F. overseas.

Doubt Reports Of Wheat Pact

By CHESTER BLOOM

Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 14.—Reports from Washington that Canada, the United Kingdom and the United States were near agreement on a four-year wheat contract agreement with a floor price of $1.20 and a ceiling price of $2 are regarded with considerable skepticism by top level government sources here. It is pointed out that every time the international wheat agreements are under discussion, up to the second last day, all read an agreement—then on the last day, some government backs out.

The position, say agricultural advisers, in Washington today is precisely the same as it was in London a year ago last January. At that time, agreement was near but in the end it broke down.

Nationalization Key Industries in Burma

RANGOON, Feb. 14.—(Reuters)—Burma will complete nationalization of all key industries within two years, the minister of commerce, U Ko Ko Gyi, said yesterday. He said it would not be long before major industries such as forests, mines and oil would be controlled directly by the government, even though not nationalized immediately.

Frivolous And Hopeful

It's St. Valentine's Day For Young, Old and Gay

February 14th—this is Valentine's Day and for the past week many ardent young swains, and some not so young, with a glint of love in their eye and a Cupid's dart in their heart have been scouring the stores for appropriate missives to adequately express their amorous adulations.

But they are not alone. In fact fully eighty per cent of patrons crushing around the greeting card sections are members of the fairer sex seeking a greeting with a message purporting to say "Yours is my heart alone," and hoping that the consequences will be altar-ward before the remaining 321 days of this "Leap Year" have run their course.

Fully aware of the needs of the day, the greeting card manufacturers have done their best to meet the whims and fancies of the buyers. Their product has generally fallen into three categories. Firstly the one displaying an extravagance of sincerity coming with "you" "coo" and "blue". Next is the humorous card sticking closely to the rules for punning; and lastly, motivated by personality quirks, the card that can be "downright insulting."

They are all there for those who wish to take advantage of the anniversary of St. Valentine, but according to a nation-wide survey certain sections of the country appear to show a preference for the different types.

Here in Edmonton the stands seemed to favor the sentimental type done up with shiny satin hearts and lacy edges. Of course the humorous type was available too, but they didn't appear to hold the centre of interest.

The survey disclosed that Valentine senders in New Brunswick also seem to prefer the sentimental type, while Halifax is going all out for the humorous cards.

Montreal reports both young and old are seen lining the counters, with the gals in the majority with their eye on leap-year prospects.

Winnipeg features Valentines with a cautious sentiment and only timid references to romance, while Regina favors funnier cards with large calendar size cards in good demand.

Out in Vancouver reports indicate that most recipients today will be receiving the large flowery type, but there will be some who will open their mail to the verse, "Think of you? Of course I do. Especially when I pass a zoo."

School Grants Up in 9 Months

Grants to Alberta schools increased during the nine-months period ending Dec. 31, 1947, by $1,506,141, according to an interim financial statement issued Saturday by C. K. Huckvale, provincial auditor.

Other increased grants noted under the education department heading were to assist teachers in training, $56,256; to the University of Alberta $178,840; to the Institute of Technology, Calgary, $30,271 and to the correspondence school branch, $84,669.

These increases all contributed to the $6,123,839 spent by the department of education, which was $1,864,522 over expenditures for the previous period.

Annual Auction By Radio Planned

Annual radio auction of the Edmonton Y's Men's Club to raise funds for operation of its boys' camp at Lake Wabamun will be held Feb. 21, 23 and 24. The auction will be operated from 9:15 to 12:30 each night.

Camp Keewaydhin, as it is known, is attended by hundreds of Edmonton boys every summer. The camp affords opportunities for boys to learn co-operation and take part in the many activities essential to growing boys.

Activities at the camp include archery, softball, boating, camp craft, riding, handicrafts, swimming and various other forms of sport and recreation.

The camp is operated under qualified leaders and is always in full swing throughout the school summer holidays.

All merchandise auctioned off at the coming sale is donated by city firms and sold to the highest bidder. People will be informed over the air of the progress of the auction.

Highest bid on each article will be given at intervals during the program and after a certain time bidding is cut off and a member of the Y's Men's Club delivers the article immediately.

Minor Quakes Rock Panay

MANILA, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Minor earthquakes are still being felt on Panay Island in the central Philippines, where violent tremors caused 58 known deaths and widespread damage Jan. 25.

Spectacular Blaze

MONTREAL, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Montreal's seventh two-alarm fire in a month last night called out 200 firemen from 10 city stations to battle a short but spectacular blaze in the fire-scarred R. S. Muir Electric Company building on downtown McGill street, scene of an explosion and fire only three weeks ago.

Interim Statement Shows:

Alberta Net Debt Down $17 Million

Reduction in the net funded and unfunded debt of Alberta by $17,381,636 as at Dec. 31 is noted in an interim financial statement issued Saturday by C. K. Huckvale, provincial auditor. Reduction of $17,754,214 in the funded debt is only slightly offset by an increase of $372,578 in the unfunded indebtedness.

NET FUNDED DEBT as at the year end is shown as $121,436,657 as compared to $139,190,872 at the same time a year previously, while the unfunded debt was 5,775,462 at the same time, compared with $5,402,884 at Dec. 31, 1946.

Debt redemption of $22,939,750 is offset by issue of new debentures and treasury bills amounting to $5,046,000.

Application of $8,031,250 resulting from the natural resources award with interest to July 1, 1947 and a write-off by the federal government of $5,297,500 of treasury bills assumed in the 1930's for agricultural relief, make up $13,328,750 of the indebtedness write-off.

FAVORABLE position of the government to recall the Alberta Great Waterways Railway debentures, largely held in England, resulted in cancellation of $5,424,000 of the provincial debt. Payment of a demand treasury bill of $2,500,000 was included in the reduction, as well as payment of province of Alberta debentures due June 1, 1947.

The amount of the write-off thus accomplished is $22,939,750, but this is offset by treasury bills due Oct. 1, 1947, for $2,500,000, which were renewed as a demand treasury bill and by the sale of bonds for $2,500,000 to finance a part of the Alberta Great Waterways debt and by provincial debentures for $46,000 in exchange for drainage and irrigation district debentures.

The statement explains that the province's treasury bill indebtedness to the Dominion government had stood at $26,212,000. Of the debt left after the deduction of the $13,328,750 referred to above, $5,297,000 which was assumed for direct and agricultural relief will be paid off in 30 annual instalments, without interest.

THE REMAINING $7,585,750 which represents borrowing for other government purposes also will be paid off in 30 years under the plan endorsed by both governments and will bear interest at 2% per cent.

Until these adjustments took place, the province's debt to the federal government was represented by treasury bills renewable annually bearing 3 per cent interest. Under the present agreement the province has the right to repay any of the instalments.

Of the $5,424,000 indebtedness in half of the Alberta Great Waterways Railway, half of the bonds were redeemed for cash and the remainder out of funds on hand.

Increase in the unfunded debt of the province is due mainly to an increase in provincial pension fund by $388,755.00 due to new pension legislation. Indebtedness for savings certificates was reduced by $17,671.

IT IS NOTED that listing of the debt does not include interest adjustment coupons amounting to $6,496,691 under the province's debt reorganization program.

Smashes Dishes, Man Is Arrested

Michael Broda was arrested by city police about 10 p.m. Friday on charges of wilful damage and intoxication. Police said they responded to a call from the Buffalo Cafe, 10234 101 street, and on arrival there found that several dishes and the coffee urn had been damaged. Harry Gee, proprietor, alleged that Broda was responsible. Damage was estimated at $14.50.

Party Is Costly: Host Loses Wallet

Calvin Cooper, Astor House, told police that following a party in his room Friday night he discovered that between $70 and $80 had been stolen from a wallet in his overcoat pocket. Some of those attending the party, he said, were strangers.

Man Found Lying Injured on Street

Police said a man found lying on 96 street Friday night has been identified as John Cech, 9338 104 avenue. Police stated the man had been injured in a fight and was removed to the Royal Alexandra hospital in the city ambulance.

Fallow Taking 2-Month Rest

Announcement that he would be leaving for Pheonix, Arizona, early next week, and would be taking a two-month holiday was made on Saturday by Hon. W. A. Fallow, minister of public works.

Mr. Fallow said he was taking his physician's advice following a check-up this week. He was told, he said, that he should not attend the session which opens on Thursday.

Hon. D. B. MacMillan, minister of agriculture will take over Mr Fallow's portfolio during his absence.

What Annual Auction Provides for Edmonton Boys

Start New Bank By Mid March

Tenders for construction of a new Jasper avenue bank for the Bank of Toronto are to be opened Feb. 24, according to word received by bank officials here.

Tenders are receivable by the general architects, Northfield and Chivers, Winnipeg. Resident architect on the building is G. H. MacDonald.

Contract for the construction of the bank building is being handled by the offices of the Bank of Toronto in Winnipeg, and it is expected here that work on the new structure will get underway by mid-March.

When completed the new two-storey structure will cover the entire 150 by 50 foot lot at the bank's location on the northeast corner of Jasper avenue and 100A street. The building will be two storeys and will be entirely occupied by the bank.

The building, according to officials here, will have a marble base, and exterior walls will be faced with stone. It will be modernistic in appearance.

It is planned to erect the northern portion of the new building first. The bank offices will then be moved into this part of the new building while construction proceeds with the southern portion facing Jasper avenue.

Truck Tries to Enter Bank After 3-Way Traffic Smash

Douglas Broadribb, 9633 88 avenue, was injured early Saturday in a traffic accident which saw three vehicles involved and two drivers arrested by city police.

Broadribb was taken to the Royal Alexandra hospital suffering facial cuts and bruises.

Thomas O'Riordan, Camrose, driver of a 35-foot trailer truck, told police he was going east on Jasper avenue at the time. When opposite 100A street a taxi pulled out in front of him and headed north across Jasper.

O'Riordan threw on the brakes on his huge truck but was unable to stop and so swung north across Jasper beside the taxi.

Broadrib, driving west on Jasper, passed the taxi but was hit by the truck and was knocked several feet down 100A street. The truck jacknifed to the left, went up on the sidewalk, knocked down a lamp standard and finally came to rest on the steps of the Bank of Nov Scotia.

O'Riordan was arrested for dangerous driving, as was the tax driver Ralph Wiedman.

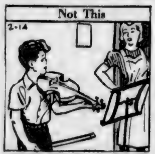
Points for Parents

Not This



Mother: "No—you can't quit your violin lessons. We paid a big price for your violin and your father and I both love violin music."

This

Mother: "We'd hoped Jimmie would play the violin but he wanted a drum and he's getting a lot of fun out of playing in the school band."

Few children become professional musicians but many can and will develop a love for music if their experiences with it are pleasant rather than unpleasant ones.

Woman Meteorologist Gives Helpful Hints For Farmers

TORONTO, Feb. 14.—Women are not usually connected with meteorology, climatology and other phases of translating climate and soil conditions into helpful hints for farmers—especially not women as young and pretty and feminine as Mrs. Marie Sanderson, presently of Toronto.

But Mrs. Sanderson, a native of Chesley, Ontario—and one of the few women climatologists on the continent—is working hard at it.

She graduated in geography from the University of Toronto and then went to the University of Maryland to continue her studies. There she switched to climatology after meeting Professor C. W. Thornthwaite, one of the world's leading authorities on the subject.

Mrs. Sanderson was brought up from the University of Maryland last year by Dr. H. B. Speakman, director of the Ontario Research Foundation.

She had just finished majoring in the subject and the foundation sorely needed a climatologist—they're apparently a pretty rare species.

A climatologist is an expert, who makes a long-term study of the reports of meteorologists and reduces all phases of recorded climate conditions down to terms which can be of actual use to agriculturalists.

At all events the research foundation needed a climatologist—so Dr. Speakman found Mrs. Sanderson in Maryland, and brought her to Ontario to work with the foundation.

She was set to work on a study of the moisture factor in the climate of Ontario.

She is also working on an article, which she hopes will give a Canada-wide picture of moisture deficiency and surplus.

Mrs. Sanderson was very busy during last summer proving the theory that vegetation has no bearing on the rate of evaporation . . . but that the rate was due to climatic conditions.

At a vacant lot near Mount Pleasant Road, Toronto, Mrs. Sanderson had four plots of ground. These plots were planted with timothy and crested grass seed, and water was carried to the plots from closed containers by way of underground pipes.

Operating what is known as an evapo-transpirometer — the first ever set up in Canada—Mrs. Sanderson measured the rate of evaporation from these small plots of ground.

And in all cases she found that the rate of evaportaion was the same.

Mrs. Sanderson met many of the weather experts who attended the International Meteorological organization meeting in Toronto last year. And she discussed this weighty subject of moisture evaporation with them.

To prove her point some 20 of the weather experts visited her Mount Pleasant road project and examined her recorded conclusions.

The study of climatology was begun at the Ontario Research Foundation after Dr. Speakman had made recommendations along those lines to the Ontario Research Commission.

The commission was set up by the Ontario government to report on all matters concerned with scientific and industrial research as they affect Ontario.

Mrs. Sanderson is one of numerous women, who besides their careers, have homes to attend to. She was married over a year ago and her husband is studying dentistry at the University of Toronto

So, in addition to her work with the research foundation she also has a home to run, with all the attendant trials and tribulations

Heir to Rockefeller Millions To Be Married Saturday

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 14—(BUP) — Winthrop Rockefeller, scion of one of America's wealthiest families, and blonde divorcee Barbara Sears will be married at midnight tonight, climaxing a "love at first sight" romance.

They scheduled the ceremony for midnight to make sure there would be no question regarding the legality of the ceremony.

This exclusive winter resort town, where social columns read like the Blue Book, hummed with excitement as news of the secretly-planned marriage slipped out over the diamond-studded grapevine.

Rockefeller, 36-year-old grandson of the late John. D. Rockefeller, applied for a license to wed the ex-actress Tuesday afternoon at Okeeghobee, a tiny fishing village about 60 miles from here.

Florida law requires a three-day waiting period after application for a wedding license, and while Rockefeller's lawyers believed it would be legal for the marriage to take place this afternoon, 72 hours after the application was filed, the couple decided to wait till midnight to play safe.

An elaborate reception was planned to begin at 6 p.m. E.S.T. today, six hours before the nuptial ceremonies at the home of Winston Guest, internationally known polo player and close friend of the bridegroom.

The heir to the Rockefeller oil millions and the lovely 31-year-old former actress will be married on the stroke of midnight. Then the reception festivities will continue.

Rockefeller stunned the social world from Palm Beach to Boston Wednesday when he removed his name from the list of America's most eligible bachelors by announcing he would marry Mrs. Sears.

Friends of the couple said today it was "ridiculous" to describe the wedding as a "cinderella marriage," despite the fact that Mrs. Sears lived in a fourth-floor apartment in a Third avenue, New York, tenement building

"Barbara has always had enough money to get along," they said

Neighbors in the Third avenue building, past which elevated trains roar night and day, said Mars' apartment is furnished elaborately in "anything but Third avenue style."

They remembered the "tall, good-looking guy" who visited there frequently and were not surprised to learn of the marriage.

They will pose in their wedding garb for photographers then in order to "get it over with early."

Detailed plans for the lengthy reception were not revealed and talk in the elite circles, the cabanas and cocktail lounges today was concerned largely with the undisclosed guest list.

Although most believed the wedding and reception in the rambling guest home would be in the grand manner, it appeared that only about 50 of the couple's closest friends would be invited.

Rockefeller, combat hero and army lieutenant-colonel in World War II, told reporters y;esterday it was "love at first sight" when he met "Bobo" 18 months ago.

Miss Isabel Paul, sister of the bride, with whom she has shared the Third avenue New York apartment, will be Mrs. Sears' only attendant at the wedding.

Lawrence Rockefeller, brother of the bridegroom, was flying from New York to be best man.

The warm light over a doorway that means "home"—the light of a fire burning in a friendly hearth—the light of companionship—these things brighten the darkness of those who can never see the sunshine. These things they will find here.

All the services developed by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind to enrich the lives of blind Canadians will now be co-ordinated under one roof in ideal conditions. Blind people in Edmonton and Northern Alberta will have greater opportunities for employment, training and for life's full enjoyment.

Like a lamp, radiating warmth and friendship, this Service Centre and Home will radiate work and service to brighten darkened lives.

Your Baby and Mine

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Hugh Edward, 17 months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stacey, of Beaverlodge, Alberta.

Parents and others tend to bewail the behavior of adolescents. My correspondent, the wife of a teacher in high school, says she is appalled by the lack of civility, of restraint and lack of interest in learning which characterize these pupils.

"A large percentage," Mrs. T. A. T. writes, "have no idea of the rights of other pupils or of property. A committee of parents who studied this situation recommended that something be done about insolence, rowdyism and lack of interest in education. I would like you to comment on this."

First, may I suggest that a committee of adolescents should be delegated to draw up a charter of proper school behavior and act as their own monitors and disciplinarians. That works better.

Second, may I say that I think the behavior of children is an embarrassing reflection of the times and of their parents' conduct. Are adults above reproach? Attend any public gathering. It demands a "moderator" to keep people from quarrelling openly if their opinions differ. Visit any public spot. It is plain enough that adults, no less than children, seem to have no sense of property values or of their part in preserving cleanliness or orderliness in public places.

The prevailing heroines of literature, radio and the movies could not inspire any young girl to be sweet, decorous or courteous. Pick up any slick magazine and read its stories. The smart heroine begins her association with the hero by exchanging insults with him. Upon this basis love is supposed to bloom.

Look at the facial mask of the average movie star. Does it express such homely traits as sweetness, deference, consideration? The prevailing expression is one of insolent hauteur. The high-light of many a movie is when the aggravated heroine picks up some heavy object and heaves it at her tormentor? Who teaches children such behavior, but can they think it ought but commonplace when done by movie stars portraying social personalities?

Adolescence is the most active and exciting period of a child's life. If parents show no interest in the work of school; or little desire to add to their own education, how can they expect that children will feel that this is an important period of their development and one to be cultivated not just endured? The "grinds," come from homes in which words, ideas, beliefs and learnings are of paramount consideration.

Don't blame children for being inconsiderate, discourteous and indifferent to education; blame parents who provide them with just such models upon which to base their conduct. There is an old proverb which says, "The fruit never falls far from the tree."

Our leaflet No. 51 "The Adolescent," is designed to help parents understand this period better. It may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrte Meyer Eldred in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

Mothers Should Know Home Nursing Facts

Each season presents special problems for the home nurse. And summer's no exception. But whatever the illness or emergency, you can tackle it competently if you have correct nursing information at your fingertips.

Suppose a member of the family should collapse on a scorching day. If heat prostration is the cause, the patient will breathe rapidly and be covered with perspiration. Send for the doctor right away. Meantime put the patient to bed and apply external heat to his feet. If the pulse is weak, give a stimulant.

Do you know what to do for that bane of every summer outing—poison ivy? Wash irritated part with brown soap and water; then apply zinc oxide ointment or calamine lotion. If irritation persists, continue ointment or lotion. For serious case, call the doctor.

How to cope with family colds, fainting, nosebleed? How to take care of a bed patient? How to keep measles and other contagious diseases from spreading? You'll find the answers in our Reader Service booklet No. 81.

Send 30c (coin) for "Practical Instruction for the Home Nurse" to The Edmonton Bulletin, Reader Service, 60 Front St., W., Toronto, Ont. Print name, address with zone, booklet title and No. 81.

Why Grow Old?

With the heritage of years facial lines become inevitable, but with such spirit put forth by Actress Rita Hayworth in her daily living, they might just as well be lines of happiness.

By Josephine Lowman

A woman is almost sure to have some lines with the heritage of years. Whether the lines are depressing or happy depends, of course, on her habits of life and thought. However, there is no need to make them deeper or have them sooner than necessary!

There is a great difference between the way women look at the same age. One may appear 10 or 15 or 20 years younger than another. Many factors combine to create this difference. Nutrition, general body tone and health are vividly reflected in contours, hair and eyes.

Facial expressions play a great part in molding our faces. If we frown habitually we are certain to have a deep line between our eyes. If we raise our eyebrows we will have wrinkles on our foreheads. If we are tense and worried, the line between the nose and the mouth will deepen and the corners of the mouth will plunge downward rather than optimistically upward.

Climate also plays its part. Women who live in a dry or windy climate, or who are in the strong sunlight much of the day, are apt to have early ageing skins. If you live in a dry, windy climate you will have to be even more faithful in the application of lubricating cream than your sister who lives in a damp zone. This is typical of the beautiful complexions of English women who reside in that damp foggy climate.

I believe that daily lubrication is perhaps the most potent of all factors. The average woman needs skin lubrication from 30 or 35 on because the natural oils gradually lessen. This is universally true unless a woman has the special problem of an extremely oily skin. If you have a dry skin and are careless in this matter you will have to expect to look older than you are.

Facial muscles require exercise just as other muscles do. The habit of daily facial exercise has proven to be beautifully beneficial.

If you wish to have my leaflet No. 9 "Facial Exercises," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

Actor Is Named In Paternity Suit

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 14.—(BUP)—A pretty screen bit player Friday named Actor Wallace Beery, 58, as the father of her week-old son in a Superior Court paternity suit. Gloria Schumm, 30, who acted with Beery in several pictures under the name of Gloria Graham, said the child, Johann Richard Wallace Schumm, was born Saturday.

She asked support and payment of medical and legal expenses, estimating Beery's fortune at more than a million dollars.

Bridge

By William E. McKenney

While rummaging through some old records the other day, I ran across some hands and names that were famous in years gone by. Today's hand was one. It was played by Frank E. Bubna of Cleveland, who in 1938 won the national open contract pair championship with Mrs. Mollie L. Funk, also of Cleveland. This was a hand that helped them win.

At the time Mr. Bubna said that while three no trump could be made, he certainly did not approve of that bid. In order to make three no trump South must win the opening heart lead with dummy's ace, lead the ten of clubs and overtake it with the queen, then lead the queen of diamonds and overtake it with dummy's ace. Now if the eight of clubs is led and the nine finessed, declarer will make six clubs, a spade, a heart and a diamond—not exactly safe.

The thing that was interesting about this hand was the way Bubna played it to make five clubs. He won the opening lead of the king of hearts in dummy and at trick two he led the ten of clubs. East played the four and Bubna finessed the queen.

Next he led the queen of diamonds and took the finesse. He felt justified because West had bid and rebid hearts and his opening lead marked him with the king and queen of hearts. Also, it was more likely that East held the king of spades, because of his spade bid, and the club finesse had marked East with the club king.

When the diamond queen finesse held, Bubna had a problem to get into dummy. He led the six of hearts. West won with the ten-spot and made a very fine return—the queen of hearts. If Bubna had trumped in dummy he would have lost.

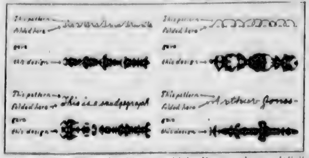
Instead he discarded the six of spades, and when West led the seven of spades, declarer won with the ace, then trumped a spade in dummy with the club deuce. He discarded the ten of spades on the ace of diamonds, and led the eight of clubs, finessing the nine-spot. The ace of clubs picked up the king, giving Bubna his contract.

School Costs Up

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Feb. 14.—(CP)—Lethbridge public school board Thursday night approved an estimate of $321,880 for operation of the city's schools in 1948. Last year the estimates were $253,060. Actual costs of operation last year were shown at $263,871. Operations this season are expected to cost $58,000 more.

The Book of Knowledge

(Department: Things to Make and Do)



A smudgegraph is made with pen and ink. Draw random or definite pattern, or write words, along ruled line. Then fold the paper along the line, and press down.

HOW TO MAKE SMUDGEGRAPHS

There is probably not one of you who, at some time or other, has not made a blot and ruined a neat examination paper or a theme or a pen-and-ink drawing. In this article, however, we are going to show you how to blot designs deliberately. The results will often be very ornamental. A design produced in this fashion is called a smudgegraph.

First of all, rule a line very faintly with pencil on the paper that you are going to use. Then dip your pen in the ink and run a fairly thick zigzag line along the penciled line. Before the ink becomes dry, fold the paper over at the bottom of the zigzag line, so that the inked side is pressed against the adjoining side. Next, press the paper firmly over the fold with your thumbnail. When you open the paper again, you will find a symmetrical design; one in which the two halves of the pattern correspond to each other.

At first you will want to practice with lines drawn at random along the penciled line. You may even make a series of deliberate blots and smudges along this line and when you fold the paper and press it, you will be astonished at the effective designs you have created. Later, you will find it interesting to make definite designs along the penciled line. These, of course, may be chosen from an infinite variety of patterns.

The more lightly you press on the paper, the more faithful the completed design will be to the original pattern. The more ink you use and the harder you press, the greater the deviation will be from the original.

You may write names or words along the penciled line, and the paper may be folded just at the base of the letters, or may be folded through the middle of the words instead of along the bottom. If you wish, you may fold the paper first and write over the fold.

Other ideas for producing smudgegraphs will occur to you as you proceed.

THE GAME OF EGG-HAT

This game is played with a soft rubber ball. Five to ten boys may take part. Each must have a cap.

The caps are laid in a row at the foot of a wall; they should be tilted a little so as to make it easier to toss a ball into them. The players stand in a row about eight steps away from the caps.

One of them tries to toss the ball into one of the caps. The moment the throw is made, all the players scatter except the boy into whose hat the rubber ball has been tossed. This boy must take the ball as quickly as possible and throw it at one of the other players. If it hits him, this boy in turn must toss the ball at the caps.

If the thrower misses the boy at whom he aimed, a small pebble is placed in his cap as a bad mark. If the boy who tosses the ball at the caps misses the mark, a small pebble is placed in his cap.

When any player has missed so often that the number of pebbles in his cap equals the number of players, he must stand at a short distance while the rest throw the ball at him, each in turn. The game then starts anew.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

Roaming Husband Won Back by Smart Wife

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: My husband and I have been an unusually happy married couple and we have three lovely children. For twelve years he has been a wonderful husband and father, but now, without rhyme or reason, he has suddenly decided that he has fallen in in love with another woman and lost his love for me. However, he still wants to stay with me for the sake of the children.

All of this has made me miserable and confused, and I don't know what to do. Shall I hold on for a while and try to win him back, or should I make him leave and go to the one he thinks he loves? Do you think there is a chance for me to be happy again?

MRS. A. H.

ANSWER: The fact that your husband doesn't ask you for a divorce indicates that he isn't certain enough of his own feelings to want to make a break with you and pass you up for the Other Woman. No doubt he is temporarily infatuated with the charmer, but when he thinks about you and the kids and the comfortable and happy home you have made him and how pleasant you have been to live with, he can't make up his mind to give it all up for the sake of any girl, no matter how young and pretty she is.

When men who have been as domestic as the house cat suddenly take to roaming, their wives think it is because their husbands have ceased to love them, but in the great majority of cases it is not true. It is only that their husbands are fed up on domesticity and want to slip the yoke a little.

The wife's play in such an emergency is not to break up her home and take the children and go back to Mama, but to refuse her husband a divorce until after they have gone through a trial separation. She should make Friend Husband pack his bags and go to a hotel or boarding house to live. Let him miss the love and care and spoiling and the good cooking to which he has been accustomed, and he will be glad enough to come back to the old wife who has spent her life trying to please him, instead of going to the new wife whom he would have to spend his time and money on trying to please.

The truth is that both husbands and wives need a vacation from each other every now and ethn, and it would save many a divorce if many a couple, who think they have ceased to love each other, would test out their feelings by going through a trial separation.

DEAR MISS DIX: I have been going with a man for about six months with whom I am much in love and I know he loves me, but we are both hot-tempered and I am afraid that that is going to break us up. He has a bad habit of insulting me in public, which hurts me greatly. My bad habit is criticizing everything he does and blaming him for everything that goes wrong.

I don't want to break with him, so will you please tell me how I can get him out of his habits? Also how I can get rid of my temper?

MIMI

ANSWER: Your description of yourself and your fiance does not seem to indicate that you would have a happy and peaceful marriage. On the contrary, it wouldn't take a fortune-teller to prophesy that you would fight your way from the altar to the divorce court. So why mess up your lives by getting married?

Certainly you cannot long love a husband who has so little respect for you and such a small regard for your feelings that he shows off by insulting you in public. Nor is any husband likely to dote on the wife who is always picking on him about little things and blaming him for all the misadventures of life.

Inasmuch as you seem to be perfectly aware of your faults and your fiance's, why not be warned in time that you will not be able to adjust yourselves to each other? It is bad enough when a man and woman are deceived in the characters of those they marry, but it is folly if they know each other's faults and still marry.

As for cutting your temper, I can offer no remedy. All the high-tempered people I have ever known personally seem to enjoy getting mad.

SNOW ISN'T Always FUN!

To millions of children it only means more misery

It's no fun when your toes are out of your boots — or you have no boots at all. Yet that is how children in ruined lands around the world must trudge through winter weather.

Food for Britain Donations To Be Collected at Shower

Director

Mrs. R. B. Clifton, who is director of the women's division of the campaign of the Canadian National Institute of the Blind which starts in the city Monday. Canvassers are still urgently needed and any individuals or women's organizations who wish to assist the campaign should phone Mrs. Clifton at 27888.

A tea and shower will be held by the members of the Women's Progressive Conservative Association at the home of Mrs. John W. Sydie 13012 104 avenue, Wednesday from 3 to 5 p.m.

The shower is for the purpose of receiving donations of food items for parcels for Britain. Everyone is invited and donations of the following food items are suggested and will be appreciated: Klim, canned meats and fish, baby foods, dried fruits, chocolate, sugar and cheese.

Mrs. Frank Newson, president of the association, will receive with Mrs. Sydie. Mrs. A. C. Emery, Mrs. A. Wolfe, Mrs. N. Shaw and Mrs. Percy Page will preside at the tea-urns. Mrs. W. Astle, Mrs. R. Martland, Mrs. Leslie Irwin, Mrs. R. Driscoll, Mrs. W. E. Shaw and Mrs. M. E. Manning will assist in serving.

Daisy Jacobs Pledges Vows

Sacred Heart Church was the scene of the recent wedding of Daisy Jacobs, daughter of Peter Jacobs and the late Mrs. Jacobs of Ross Creek, and James Stanley Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gregory of Edmonton. The Rev. Father E. Perry performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, N. Bodnar and wore a gray gabardine suit with white and black accessories. She carried a white prayer book and her corsage was of red roses.

A reception was held following the ceremony when the bridegroom's mother assisted the bridal couple in receiving their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory will make their home in Edmonton.

Church Ladies' Aid Plans to Hold Tea

Spring tea will be held by members of the Strathcona Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, it was announced at a recent meeting.

Mrs. J. Potts and Mrs. J. Adamson will be joint conveners.

Mrs. W. G. Banham is in charge of arrangements to send food parcels to Britain each month.

Buy 142 Books For Library

Members of the Lady Aberdeen League will again sell programs at the Glenora Ice Carnival to aid in their work in maintaining the library at the Colonel Mewburn Pavilion. This was reported at a recent meeting of the group held at the home of Mrs. P. A. Dow. Mrs. Don Stuart is convening the sale and she will be assisted by Mrs. W. G. Montgomery, Mrs. H. C. Cooper and Mrs. E. Roach.

Mrs. Montgomery, library convener, reported that 142 books have been purchased since Jan. 15 and that 30 books are to be sent out for rebinding.

Mrs. C. L. Metcalf, president, was in the chair.

Dusky Intrigue

Here's a plot for making heads swivel when you pass by: A dark, dusky crepe, draped and shaped to make the most of your figure. Rounded at your hips, following your torso like a second skin. We've taffetas, too—the newest this Spring has seen.

Winthrop Rockefeller Marries Barbara Sears

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 14.—(AP)—Tall and handsome Winthrop Rockefeller, heir to oil millions, took Barbara Sears, former actress and daughter of Lithuanian immigrants, as his bride at 12:14 a.m. today.

The vows were spoken in a room decked with clusters of snapdragons, gladioli and tulips in the Lake Worth estate of Mr. and Mrs. Winston Guest, polo player and Palm Beach winter resident.

Rev. Winslow Drummond conducted the Presbyterian ceremony which was attended only by the bride and groom, Laurence Rockefeller, the groom's brother who was best man; Isabel Paul, the bride's sister and maid of honor, and Mr. and Mrs. Guest.

Earlier in the evening, some 50 of Palm Beach's most noted winter residents, including the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, attended a reception in the Guest home.

There was a cinderella flavor to the romance which brought Rockefeller, 35-year-old heir to the fortune built up by his grandfather, John D. Rockefeller, Sr., and his vivacious blonde bride to their Valentine's Day wedding.

The new Mrs. Rockefeller started life as the daughter of Lithuanian immigrants and once lived in the "back of the yards" neighborhood in Chicago.

Mrs. Rockefeller has been married and divorced. Her first husband was Richard Sears, Jr., third secretary of the United States embassy in Paris.

The odd hour for the wedding—on Saturday instead of Friday afternoon as originally planned—resulted from a 72-hour waiting period required by Florida law after the licence is obtained.

Mrs. A. Tayler Named Honorary President

At the regular monthly meeting of the Nursing Sisters' Association, Edmonton Unit, held recently at the Masonic Temple, Mrs. A. Tayler was named honorary president for the new term.

Next meeting will be held at the Masonic Temple March 10.

Mrs. Morrison presided at the meeting.

Boy Scouts, Girl Guides Honor Memory of Founder

Honoring the memory of their founder, Lord Baden-Powell, 5,000,000 boy scouts and 2,500,000 girl guides from 70 countries all over the world will celebrate their 39th year of progress during scout-guide Week, Feb. 15 to 22.

In Canada, 8,500 scouters and 4,500 guiders give their time voluntarily to training young boys and girls in the principles of good citizenship through health and character building and handicrafts. Membership is irrespective of creed, race or color.

Church parades of the various groups will be held this Sunday, and on Feb. 22, guides and scouts will hold their own special services in Edmonton. That day will be "Thinking Day," a time when scouts and guides all over the world think of each other and remember their founder.

The Edmonton Girl Guide Association has reported an active year. Of special interest were the Dominion Council meetings held in this city last summer. Among the many talks was the report of the chief commissioner for Canada on her recent visit to the International Guide meetings in Europe. She reported on what had been accomplished in the name of Canadian guides through their World Friendship Fund. Gifts were sent to guides in Greece, Malta, Holland, Belgium and China.

Commissioners, guiders and delegates of local associations from all parts of Alberta will attend the annual meeting of the provincial council at the Palliser hotel March 12 and 13.

A good deal of talent was brought to light last season through the weekly scout-guide broadcasts over CFRN. The quiz programs brought together troops, companies and packs in friendly competition.

The Extension Packs of Brownies and Cubs at the University hospital have been training with Brown Owl Gena Burke and cubmaster Larry Twigge. They had a movie and a party at Christmas and the Brownies were given favors and pieces of Christmas cake with their names on them.

The St John's Guide Company and Brownie Pack are holding their meetings in the parish hall on Mondays. For the last few years, these groups have been meeting with the Garneau company and pack because their own hall was not available. Mrs. Ralph Johnson is Captain of the new company and she is assisted by Mrs. J. Williams. Mrs. W. Rodman and Mrs. H. Glyde are in charge of the Brownie Pack.

A new guide company and Brownie pack have been started in Pleasantville. Mrs. Basil Ford is captain of the guides and Mrs. Ed Schaffer is the Brown Owl, assisted by E. Arlan.

South Side Brownies are doing handwork in preparation for the Brownie handicraft display to be held in the Garneau Church hall Feb. 25 in connection with a tea to be held then. Mrs. C. G. Dominy is convening the tea for the South Edmonton Division.

Edmonton guide and Brownie groups have sent parcels to guide companies in Europe and interesting letters have been received in return. Parcels have been sent to England, Scotland, Ireland, Norway, Holland, France, Finland and Greece.

Mrs. H. Mudt has been elected president of the local association for the North East Edmonton Guide District. Mrs. M. Spear is secretary-treasurer and Mrs. I. Hughson is badge secretary. Committee members are Mrs. D. White, Mrs. M. Dickins, Mrs. W. Gooding, Mrs. E. Shulz, Mrs. A. Hosler, Mrs. L. Cowll, Mrs. M. Tate, Mrs. A. Colleau, and Mrs. J. Bennett. Mrs. Shulz and Mrs. White will be delegates to the provincial meetings in Calgary.

Major Ivy Maddocks, territorial guide director for the Salvation Army with headquarters in Toronto, visited the 28th Edmonton Company last May. The new leaders for the Edmonton Salvation Army Guide Company are Kay Billingsley and Doreen McLeod. Else Jobson is Acting Brown Owl for the Brownie Pack.

The 10th Edmonton Company, St Stephen's Guides, report a successful camp at the White Mud Creek farm of J. Williamson last summer. Mrs. R. Slater, Captain of the Company, was in charge of the camp, assisted by Joyce Baker.

Companies of the East Edmonton District are competing for the local association cup which will be presented for the best layettes. These layettes will be sent overseas.

Laura Strum is captain of the 14th Edmonton Guide Company which meets in St. Stephen's Church hall. Hattie Costie is the lieutenant. Members have enjoyed a sleigh ride and skating party this year.

The Girl Guide Association is appealing for leaders. Any ex-guiders who would be willing to help are asked to phone the provincial secretary at provincial headquarters, 24634, or to call at 10158 102 street. War brides from overseas are especially welcome to Guide circles.

C.G.I.T., Tuxis Plan Meeting

Youth at the Crossroads will be the theme of the annual senior C.G.I.T. and Tuxis conference to be attended by boys and girls from those groups in Edmonton and northern Alberta.

Meetings will be held in McDougall United Church and the Y.M.C.A. and will feature courses in leadership training of mixed groups and discussions on relationship with the church and educational systems.

Welfare in Alberta will be the subject of a debate Saturday afternoon between the Tuxis and the C.G.I.T. A panel discussion on Religion Applied will be held Sunday afternoon.

A banquet and party will be held Saturday evening at the Y.M.C.A. A church service Sunday night at McDougall Church will be followed by a "fireside".

The Rev. Arthur Morgan of Calgary, former boys' work secretary for the province, will lead the conference.

Engaged

Francoise Gabrielle Martin, of Windsor, Ont., daughter of H. Milton Martin and the late Mrs. Martin, of Edmonton, whose engagement to John Murray, of Detroit, was announced Saturday. The wedding will take place in Detroit in April. Mr. Murray is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James A. Murray of Columbus, Ohio, and is a graduate of Ohio State University. Both he and Miss Martin are on the editorial staff of the Detroit Free Press. Miss Martin was formerly a member of the Edmonton Bulletin editorial staff.

W.A. Plans Valentine Tea

The Women's Association of Westminster United Church will hold a Valentine tea and sale of home cooking and fancy work at the home of Mrs. John Harvie, 11034 124 street, Wednesday from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Mrs. C. E. Rogers and Mrs. G. A. White will receive the guests.

Mrs. D. Keating, Mrs. A. B. FitzSimon and Mrs. A. E. Spence will preside at the tea-urns. Mrs. W. Brodie, Mrs. G. W. Congrave, Mrs. W. Wright, Mrs. J. Domoney and Mrs. J. H. Hutchison will assist in serving.

Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Congrave are convening the tea. Mrs. Brodie is in charge of home cooking and Mrs. R. B. Dahl is in charge of fancy work.

SWIFT'S Jewel SHORTENING It's Blended

FISH CROQUETTES for Lent

1 cup thick white sauce
1¾ cups flaked fish
1 tsp. lemon juice
salt, pepper
seasoned sifted dry crumbs
1 egg beaten with
1 tbsp. cold water
Jewel for deep-frying

To white sauce, add lemon juice and flaked fish—use canned salmon or tuna or any suitable cooked fish. Season with salt and pepper, and chill. Shape into croquettes. Coat with crumbs, then egg mixture, then with crumbs again. Fry in deep hot Jewel—Blended Jewel is ideal for deep-frying because it is absolutely neutral in flavour, perfectly digestible . . . and doesn't smoke, even at high temperatures! Drain croquettes on absorbent paper, and serve very hot with parsley garnish. These fish croquettes are tender and crisp—with a thin, golden-brown crust . . . and no fat absorption within! Serve them as a Lenten dish that's just as nutritious as it is delicious.

Swift Canadian Co. Limited

"When you bake with Blended Jewel, you know you're using the shortening that's perfectly digestible. There's extra nutritional value in Jewel too. So always ask for Blended Jewel, the shortening that's perfect for all cooking, baking and frying—because it's fine and pure!"

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Katchka, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. [illegible], Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hrabiuk, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lysak, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Spivak. She is survived by her husband, Charlie and one daughter, Helena.

CARD OF THANKS

BREWER—We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly assisted and for the words of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings extended at the deaths of our beloved mother and father.
—Harry and Jack Brewer.

(Vancouver papers please copy.)
We wish to express our appreciation for the many acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy, beautiful floral tributes received and condolence extended by our friends during the recent illness and death of our beloved wife and sister.
—Mr. J. C. Budge, Mrs. N. E. Galipeau, Mrs. A. A. Bradley, Mr. A. L. Bulmer.

IN MEMORIAM

In ever loving memory of my beloved daughter and our sister, Mrs. Kathleen Haiat (nee Kathleen Toelen) who passed away February 15th, 1947, in Vancouver, aged 28 years.

In our home she is fondly remembered,
Sweet memories cling to her name,
Those who loved her in life sincerely
Still love her in death just the same.
—Ever remembered by Mom and Sisters.

FREW—In loving memory of Matthew Frew, who passed away February 15th, 1946.
"The passing years can never change,
Our thoughts of him so dear,
Fond memories linger every day,
Remembrance brings him near.
Ever remembered by Dad, Cathie, Jimmy and Jeanie.

BELESHKO—In ever loving memory of Steve Beleshko, who passed away February 14th, 1946.
"More and more each day we miss him,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
Always remembered and sadly missed by his loving wife, Alexandra, and Pauline, Annie, Helen and Bill.

IT'S
OUR FIRST BIRTHDAY

One year ago today we entered business in the City of Edmonton and we now wish to take this opportunity to thank our host of friends and clients for the business they have placed with us during the past twelve months.

We also wish to assure all that it has been a genuine pleasure to serve you and desire that such amiable relations will continue to exist between our clients and ourselves. Whether you are a large or small customer our Service is the same 100%.

"Your satisfaction is our gain—Your interest our aim."

BABY CHICKS (44)

STARTED CHICKS THAT SAVE YOU MONEY AND TROUBLE

Comparative cost of raising 100 pullets yourself and buying 100 started pullets from the CRESCENT POULTRY FARM:

100-day old pullets	$32.00
Mortality (losses)	$ 3.20
200 lbs. of Chick starter	$ 9.50
Average brooder equipment expenses coal, repairs, oil, etc.	$10.00
TOTAL cost to RAISE 100 PULLETS	$54.70
Cost of 100, 6 weeks old started pullets from the CRESCENT POULTRY FARM is	$50.00
The net result is that you work and worry for six weeks to save	$ 4.70
And if you send in your order before March 1st, 1948, you save another dollar, so you actually do all that work and worry for	$ 3.80

Livestock
AT EDMONTON

EDMONTON, Feb. 14.—Total receipts for this week: Cattle 2,458, calves 101, hogs 2,524, sheep 511.

There was good action on the cattle market the first of the week, with prices steady on all classes. At the close of trading, however, under fairly liberal receipts and close grading prices declined from 25 to 50 cents, in line with outside markets. Local buyers were at times somewhat indifferent about purchasing; salesmen, however, effected a week-end clearance. Choice steers quoted 15.00-15.50, with very few on offer. The practical top on butcher heifers 14.50, the bulk trading from 14.00 down. The cow market held about steady, good light cows selling from 10.00-10.50, odd extreme tops at 11.00. Good heavy cows were mostly from 9.50-10.25. Bulls sold from 8.00-10.25.

Veal calves. Good to choice handyweights 13.50-14.50. Choice lights 15.50-16.00. Heavy calves 9.00-14.00.

Hogs. Grade A for shipment 28.00. Grade A at plants 27.00. Sows liveweight on yards 14.00. Feeder hogs, 17.00-18.00.

Lambs. Good to choice handyweight locals 14.50-15.00. Good to choice handyweights off cars 15.00-16.00. Medium 10.00-12.00. Yearlings 6.50-7.50. Light ewes 4.50-6.50. Medium ewes 3.00-4.00. Feeders in limited demand at 7.00-9.00.

Stockers and feeders in demand at firm prices. Good stocker steers 11.00-12.00. Plain steers 9.50-10.50. Short keep feeders of good breeding 12.00-13.00. Stock heifers 9.50-10.50. Stock cows 7.50-8.50.

The following are the quotations:

Choice fed calves	$14.00	to	15.00
Choice steers	15.00	to	15.50
Good steers	14.00	to	14.75
Medium steers	12.50	to	13.50
Fair steers	11.25	to	12.25
Common steers	9.00	to	10.00
Choice heifers	14.00	to	14.50
Good heifers	13.00	to	13.75
Medium heifers	11.50	to	12.75
Fair heifers	10.00	to	11.25
Common heifers	8.50	to	9.75
Good light cows	10.00	to	10.75
Good heavy cows	9.50	to	10.25
Fair to medium cows	8.50	to	9.50
Common cows	7.50	to	8.25
Canners and cutters	4.50	to	7.50
Bulls	8.00	to	10.25

LIVESTOCK TRAFFIC

EDMONTON, Feb. 14.—Total receipts of cars trucked, driven and shipped by rail to local livestock agencies on Feb. 13: Cars 4, cattle 538, calves 12, hogs 502, sheep 18.

Shipments on Feb. 12: To country points, 1 car cattle.

WEEKLY REVIEW

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—A general recession of about 50 cents in cattle prices this week was noted today in the Dominion Agriculture Department's weekly livestock report. Other livestock prices were mostly unchanged.

Cattle prices dropped 50 to 75 cents at Toronto, where the closing top on best weighty steers was 16.25-16.50, and good butcher steers 15.00-15.50. At Montreal good steers were taken at 15.00-16.00, good cows 10.75-12.50.

At Winnipeg the top of the steer market was 16.00 for a small number, with the better grades generally 14.50-15.50, with steers 12.00-14.00. At Calgary butcher steers were 15.25; Edmonton 15.50; Prince Albert and Moose Jaw 15.00; Saskatoon 15.25; Regina 16.00-16.25, and Vancouver 15.00.

Dairy cattle exports to the United States during the week totalled 1,274 head compared with 510 in the same week last year. Export shipments to date this year are 5,660 and in the same period last year were 3,348.

Toronto paid 21.00-23.00 for choice veals, Montreal 23.50-24.00, Winnipeg 18.00-23.00; Calgary 13.00-14.50; Edmonton 15.50-16.00; Prince Albert 17.00; Moose Jaw 14.00; Saskatoon 18.00, Regina 18.00 and Vancouver 15.00.

Hog prices were mostly unchanged. Toronto paid 28.75 for grade A; Montreal 28.50; Winnipeg 27.50; Calgary 27.35; Edmonton 27.00, Prince Albert, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon and Regina 27.25 and Vancouver 28.00-28.05.

The above prices do not include the Dominion government premium of 2.00 a head on grade A and 1.00 a head on grade B1 hogs.

Lamb marketings were seasonally light but prices were not affected. Toronto sold some good westerns at 18.50; Montreal 16.00; Winnipeg, Calgary and Edmonton 16.00; Prince Albert, Moose Jaw and Saskatoon had none on offer, while Regina quoted 15.50.

Downward Trends On Stock Markets

By The Canadian Press

The price pattern on commodity and stock markets this week repeated the downward trends of the previous week. After a relatively quiet day Monday, prices broke sharply Tuesday and Wednesday.

Commodities once again led the move with grains at Chicago dropping the daily limit and cotton at New Orleans and New York plunging also for limit losses. Securities everywhere gave way under the pressure.

• • •

Thursday, major United States markets were closed for Lincoln's birthday observance and Canadian markets adopted a wait-and-see policy with traders hesitant about committing themselves without a lead from the United States. Friday, the market steadied as bids improved in the belief that the pendulum was due to swing the other way. Grains at Chicago, however, continued the decline, although within the daily permissible limits.

Price declines in May wheat and corn at Chicago were the largest in history for such a short period, dealers said. May wheat yesterday was down 74½ cents and May corn 73½ cents from the January 16 highs.

• • •

Of interest to consumers in the United States was the immediate reaction on prices at retail levels. National chain stores announced sizeable reductions on a substantial list of products while towards the end of the week sliding commodities carried with them butter and some meat products.

At the close of trading last week, market analysts generally agreed that the drop in commodity prices indicated a reversal of inflationary trends. They agreed, too, that it was unlikely the drop would develop into a price crash or business recession. This week, despite the further sharp downward revision of prices, it was still generally agreed that there were as yet no real indications of a crash but that prices had not yet found their true levels.

Trends on the Toronto Stock Exchange for the five days up to yesterday closely followed last week's movements.

Financial Review

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(AP)—The sharpest week to week drop in the 13-year history of the Associated Press composite of [illegible] commodity prices took place in the period ended Friday.

The index slumped to 186.32 from 194.97 a week earlier. A year ago the average, in which the year 1926 equals 100, stood at 169.98. This week's slide was fifth successive Friday-to-Friday decline.

All competents of the 35-commodity composite with the exception of non-ferrous metals dipped to lower levels.

	Feb. 13	Week Ago	Year Ago
35 Commodities	186.32	194.97	169.98
Industrials	172.15	173.47	148.48
Food	146.26	154.33	142.91
Livestock	221.91	238.68	215.93
Grains and Cotton	207.62	227.75	187.87
Textile	215.97	217.26	194.59
Non-Ferrous Metal	167.11	167.11	148.42

TORONTO, Feb. 14. — (CP)— Modest gains were posted by leading industrials while golds and base metals showed moderate improvement in quiet half-day trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Industrials moved within fractional range but base metals showed best form while western oils were inactive. Volume for the two hours was about 400,000 shares.

Narrow gains were scattered through the industrial lists but key issues ahead included Ford, Imperial Oil, International Petroleum and Steel of Canada.

Among the golds gainers included Aunor, Central Patricia, Dickenson, Donalda, East Malartic, Eldona, Joburke, Negus, O'Brien, Wright-Hargreaves, Upper Canada, Sullivan, Stadacona, San Antonio, Pickle Crow. Better base metals were Smelters, East Sullivan, Golden Manitou, Sherritt.

• • •

MONTREAL, Feb. 14. — (CP) — Trading up to the final hour of the stock exchange and curb market was quiet and trends were mixed. Mines displayed a mild improvement in light dealings.

Papers were narrowly mixed. B.C. Forest and Consolidated Paper were ahead fractionally. Powell River and M. & O. dropped ½ and ½, respectively.

Oils were soft. McColl rights eased two cents while International Petroleum and Imperial Oil were shaded. Bell advanced ½ in utilities and Aluminium added one point in metals. C.P.R. was shaded in carriers.

East Sullivan gained 15 cents and Eldona six cents in mines. Louvicourt was ahead three cents and MacDonald two cents.

• • •

NEW YORK, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Aided by rallying commodities, selected stocks edged forward today although dealings were among the slowest of the last several months and many market leaders did little or nothing. While declines persisted in most departments near the close, fractional advances were well distributed. Transfers for the two hours tapered to around 2[illegible],000 shares.

Attracting timid support were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Goodyear, American Woolen, Illinois Central and Loew's.

Occasional laggards included Great Northern Railway, Standard Oil (N.J.), Texas Co., Warner Bros., Douglas Aircraft, Eastman Kodak and General Electric.

The Canadian group generally was fractionally higher. Gains of ¼ each were posted by Dome Mines, Hiram Walker and Lake Shore.

Cut Armaments To Aid Europe

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—(AP)—Senator Claude Pepper (Dem.—Fla.) yesterday urged a cut in the world's armament bills to provide European aid. "Starting with Russia and going all over the world," he told the Chicago Executives Club, "It should be possible to cut the amount spent on armaments so that within five years the money available to rehabilitate Europe could total $50,000,000,000."

FISH IN STORAGE

OTTAWA, Feb. 14. — (CP) — Stocks of frozen fish in cold storage Feb. 1 amounted to 34,965,000 pounds compared with 40,779,000 pounds Jan. 1 and 34,738,000 the corresponding date last year, the bureau of statistics reported today. Holdings at the latest date comprised 32,136,000 pounds of fresh fish and 2,829,000 of smoked.

Consistent Gains In Farm Wages

OTTAWA, Feb. 14.—(CP)—Hired hands on Canadian farms are continuing to better their wage position, the Bureau of Statistics noted Friday.

Since it began its survey of farm wages in 1940, the Bureau has reported consistent gains in wages of farm help and at Jan. 15, the average hired man was getting $3.62 a day if board was provided, $4.66 without board.

The daily rates are highest in British Columbia, with average rates of $4.37 with board and $5.[illegible] without board and lowest in Prince Edward Island, where farm hands average $2.70 with board, $3.57 without.

Average monthly wage rate with board for all Canada was $70 against $63.29 a year ago. When workers provided their own board the average rate for men hired by the month rose from $89.25 in 1947 to $100 in 1948. Monthly rates were lowest in Prince Edward Island at $51.79 and $73.83 and highest in B.C. at $70 and $120.91.

Legal No. 2 Well Shares Limelight

Another Alberta wildcat is now enjoying a share of the limelight usually reserved for Leduc, the Bantry area and the Pincher Creek Foothills region. The wildcat is Imperial Legal No. 2 about [illegible] miles north of Edmonton and one mile east of an earlier wildcat of the same name.

Imperial announced Friday that casing was being run to 3,940 feet, the present bottom. This procedure is being followed in order to guard against loss of circulation, which plagued the first Legal hole in its later stages. Good porosity was found at Legal No. 1, but water came with it. A better fate is hoped for, in the case of Imperial Legal No. 2.

• • •

East Leduc No. 2, now conceded to have failed in its search for the D3-oil bearing objective of the Leduc field, was drilling on at 5,335 feet at last report. A decision to drill at least to 5,500 feet or until the water level has been reached, was made Friday. Financial assistance for the additional drilling has been secured from other companies who are interested in whatever geological information deeper drilling may reveal. The East Leduc No. 2 well is situated about two and one-half miles northwest of the proven field.

• • •

Other Leduc reports showed Globe-Leduc West No. 8 using gas lift from Globe-Leduc West No. 3 and expecting to come into production at any moment. Globe-Leduc West No. 7 was drilling below 3,469 feet . . . Home Leduc No. 3 was below 5,260 feet; Atlantic-Leduc No. 3, below 5,041 feet.

Nearing completion among Imperial's numerous Leduc drillers, was No. 34 below 5,261 feet. Six others were below the 4,000-foot mark.

• • •

McColl-Ashley Pipestone Creek was preparing to core at 6,550 feet; and McColl-Texaco Stony Plain was rigging up . . . The syndicated Crowfoot No. 2 near Bassano was expected to spud soon . . . Socony Vacuum's Stimson No. 1 was drilling below 4,007 feet.

• • •

A report from Superior Oils from their acreage in the Blackfoot section of the Lloydminster oil field shows that for a week ending Feb. 8, eight wells produced an average of 47.8 barrels of heavy crude per well per day. No. 9 has been shut down but is expected to return to production soon. No. 10 is likely to be on production in about one week. In prospect are six additional wells to be started as soon as weather permits.

In Turkey and North Africa okra is commonly preserved by sun-drying and in years past many families in the south "put up" their off-season supply of okra by this method.

The guest at the card party is our subject today—a follow-through from last week's column as promised.

When invited, don't hesitate to ask the hostess if it is to be a "long or short dress" party, and don't forget your husband's predicament, too. Inquire for him; nothing makes a man more annoyed than to get dressed up for a party and then find nobody else is.

Don't be late when invited to a card party as the game cannot start until all guests arrive. Come prepared to be a good sport about losing, or having an unsatisfactory partner. It is only one evening in a lifetime and not worth upsetting or hurting someone else, or raising your own blood pressure. Enjoy the game as much as you can, and don't feel badly if your luck or partner does not come up to expectations. Of all things, the husband and wife who squabble at the card table are least to be forgiven. They disgrace themselves and make everyone feel uncomfortable.

WHEN SITTING down to the card table, be sure your hands are clean. If your hands are not immaculate, ask your hostess if you may wash them before you sit down to the game.

Another etiquette pointer is to avoid picking up your cards before the hands are dealt all around. Never slap a card on the table when playing. Avoid bending cards. Drumming on the table with fingers, scratching its surface with fingernails, making any sort of whistling, humming or distracting sound, and scratching or touching the face with playing cards are all "don'ts." It is also thoughtless to anticipate a play by pulling a card all ready to use, before it is your turn. Funny to you, but not to the other players, only disturbing or annoying.

Cards should never be handled in a sensational manner when shuffled or dealt. It is hard on the card, keeps other players waiting and is showing off. Leave fancy rifflings to the card shark!

DON'T PULL THE old gag of throwing down your hand before the game is completed, on the excuse that "all the rest of the tricks are mine." Even though you have nothing but "winning" cards left, give others the opportunity of playing it out—there's always the chance you might make a mistake and they could win after all.

If you are dummy at bridge, there is a right and a wrong way to lay down your cards. Here's the right one: Place your cards, suit by suit, aces or high cards towards you and the others in sequence. Put within easy reach of your partner, but not so near the centre of the table the cards block the game. Trumps should be placed at your right. "This is a custom becoming more popular all the time," said Percy Sheardown, only Canadian Life Master of American Contract Bridge League. He added that a common social error when playing bridge is for the dummy to lay down his trump suit before the opening lead is made. This gives your opponents unfair advantage over your partner.

IF THERE IS candy on the table, watch out you don't get sticky fingers and soil the cards. Also regard the card table with some respect; don't bang a heavy bracelet or massive ring on the surface as this may cause damage.

In the matter of smoking, don't overdo it, and try not to blow smoke in the other players' faces. Out of regard for your host and hostess, don't let a lighted cigarette fall out of the ash tray on to table or floor . . . and never park a cigarette on the edge of the table.

If you win a prize, open it on the spot! Even if you know what it is or can see through the wrappings, and suspect the contents, the polite thing is to unwrap the gift when you receive it and speak words of thanks to your hostess then.

QUESTIONS—ETIQUETTE ANSWERS

SERVING: T.T.C., Montreal—"When dining in a restaurant and tea or coffee is served in a pot for two, should the man or woman pour? Also, if vegetables are put in double portions on a table, who serves them?"

ANSWER: If the waiter doesn't serve, the man helps his guest and himself to food. The woman pours the tea or coffee. The rule is when dining out, if there's any serving to be done, the man does it because it is his duty to look after his guest well, but pouring tea or coffee is feminine and charming, if well done, so a woman doesn't relinquish this duty.

Readers are invited to write Claire Wallace about their Etiquette problems. Address: Claire Wallace, care The Edmonton Bulletin. Replies will appear in this column.

Canadian Meat Stocks Increase

OTTAWA, Feb. 14—(CP)—Meat stocks held by packers, abattoirs, wholesale butchers and cold storage warehouses rose to 137,145,000 pounds Feb. 1 from 116,307,000 Jan. 1 and 75,568,000 a year ago, the Bureau of Statistics reported Thursday.

Pork stocks jumped to 76,337,000 pounds Feb. 1 from 57,483,000 pounds Jan. 1 and 44,058,000 Feb. 1, 1947. Beef stocks rose to 47,058,000 from 42,939,000 a month ago and 23,708,000 Feb. 1, 1947.

Veal stocks totalled 5,412,000 pounds compared with 6,743,000 Jan. 1 and 2,209,000 a year ago while mutton and lamb holdings totalled 8,337,000 pounds against 9,142,000 Jan. 1 and 5,593,000 Feb. 1, 1947.

Lard stocks increased to 3,566,000 pounds from 3,447,000 Jan. 1 and 1,420,000 a year ago.

RECEIPT NO GOOD

WINDSOR, Ont.—(CP)—A local firm sued to collect $519 for building materials supplied to a Windsor man, although the latter had a receipt. Awarding judgment to the company, Judge A. J. Gordon said he was satisfied the company had sent out an invoice marked "paid" by mistake.

Britain Trades Rails for Food

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 14—(AP)—Britain yesterday traded her railroads in Argentina for food to eat the rest of the year.

An assured meat supply of 440,800 tons of beef for the rest of 1948;

On March 1, twelve thousand miles of railroads, the backbone of her transportation system and Britain's largest investment in South America;

Car Sales Nearly Doubled in 1947

OTTAWA, Feb. 14—(CP)—Preliminary totals of 1947 sales of motor vehicles were released Thursday by the Bureau of Statistics and they show that the business nearly doubled the previous year's.

Last year 223,145 new vehicles retailed for $402,306,673 compared with 120,044 sold in 1946 for $193,329,005. About 156,026 passenger cars were sold in 1947 compared with 77,742 in 1946. Sales of trucks and buses last year totalled 67,119 for $126,045,087 compared with 43,302 for $73,003,509 in 1946.

December sales totalled 17,758 for a value of $33,361,794 compared with 12,689 for $21,567,212 in December 1946.

SUPERMAN
MY SUPER-SPEED TRICK IS CERTAINLY WORKING.
SO—YOU ARE AN IMPOSTOR! BY YOUR OWN ADMISSION!
I DIDN'T ADMIT IT! HE DID!
THE REAL CLARK, BY CHANGING PLACES AT INVISIBLE SUPER-SPEED WITH THE FALSE CLARK, HAS GOTTEN THE LATTER SO CONFUSED THAT LOIS FINALLY BEGINS TO SUSPECT HIM...
433
OH NO! I DISTINCTLY HEARD YOU SAY IT!
YOU CERTAINLY DID!
BUT—HE SWITCHED PLACES WITH ME! HE COULDN'T BE CLARK EITHER. HE MUST BE SUPERMAN!
A LIKELY STORY! IT'S QUITE OBVIOUS THAT THE ARRIVAL OF THE REAL CLARK GOT YOU SO UPSET, YOU GAVE YOURSELF AWAY!
BUT LOIS!
OBVIOUSLY!
DON'T LOIS ME! YOU TRIED TO MARRY ME UNDER FALSE PRETENSES. I OUGHT TO HAVE YOU ARRESTED!
NOW TO CLINCH IT. WHILE HE'S UPSET, I'LL CATCH HIM OFF GUARD.
I SAY—EDWARD!
WHAT DO YOU WANT? I MEAN—ER—THAT IS—WHO'S EDWARD?
SO!
YOU SEE—HE ANSWERS TO THE NAME OF EDWARD! HIS REAL NAME'S EDWARD BENTON!
WHAT AN OLD TRICK! HUH? BUT I SEE YOU'RE ALL CONVINCED. SO—YOU OUTSMARTED ME. IT'S TRUE! I AM EDWARD BENTON. BUT YOU'RE NOT CLARK EITHER...
YOU MAY HAVE FOOLED THESE PEOPLE, BUT ONLY SUPERMAN COULD'VE SWITCHED PLACES WITH ME LIKE THAT!
IS IT TRUE?
CERTAINLY IT'S TRUE. I HAD TO USE TRICKERY TO EXPOSE HIM BEFORE YOU MARRIED HIM. I REALLY DID SWITCH PLACES AS HE SAID.
GRACIOUS! THEN WHERE'S THE REAL CLARK?
AMAZING!
AT THE DAILY PLANET, WHITE FORGAVE HIM HIS UNAUTHORIZED VACATION, AND SINCE I ANNOUNCED WHAT I WAS GOING TO DO, CLARK'S PROBABLY SCOOPED YOU ON THIS STORY ALREADY.
OF ALL THE MEAN TRICKS!
LATER THAT AFTERNOON...
HI, LOIS. SEE THE LATEST EDITION? ALL ABOUT HOW YOU ALMOST MARRIED ME—ONLY IT WASN'T ME!
CLARK KENT—I WOULDN'T MARRY YOU IF YOU WERE THE LAST MAN ON EARTH!

ARE YOU SURE THE COPS ARE COMING?
YEAH, WE WENT UP TO THAT ANTIQUE SHOP AND ASKED THE MAN TO CALL THE COPS NEARLY 2 HOURS AGO.
BUT WHY AREN'T THEY HERE?
I'M GOING HOME AND TELL MY DAD. HE'LL GET THE SHERIFF OUT HERE.
GO AHEAD. WE'LL WAIT FOR YOU, TIM.
I FAKED THE CALL FOR THOSE KIDS, BUT THAT WILL STALL THINGS ONLY TEMPORARILY. THEY'RE BOUND TO GET WORD TO THE POLICE—THAT WILL FOCUS INTEREST IN THIS VICINITY.
WELL! WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH YOU?
NOTHING, NOTHING AT ALL. I FINISHED SANDING THAT OLD DRESSER. IT WAS A BIG JOB. I'M KINDA BUSHED.
IT LOOKS FINE. I WANT YOU TO SHELLAC IT TOMORROW.
I'M GOING OUT AGAIN. I SOLD THIS CLOCK TODAY, AND I HAVE TO DELIVER IT.
IF SHOULDERS IS IN AND EVERYTHING'S NORMAL—SHE'LL WALK OUT CARRYING A CLOCK. THAT'S THE SIGNAL.
WHY, THAT'S A SQUAD CAR. THE COPS HAVE COME TO THE WRONG PLACE. HEY—HEY, COPS!
WHAT WAS THAT? I HEARD A VOICE—HUH—
THAT CAR IS OVER IN THAT POND!

TEASING TOM

THERE are two creatures who cause the Teenie Weenies a lot of trouble. Ginky, of course, is just an outright ornery mouse. He isn't above stealing, fibbing or destroying property. He'd just as soon throw a stone through one of the shoe house windows as twitch his spindly tail. But Teasing Tom, the big blue jay, is not really bad—he simply loves to tease. The Teenie Weenies never leave a Teenie Weenie object lying about where Tom can pick it up because he is forever taking things—such as Teenie Weenie axes, saws or even thimbles—and flying away with them. Sometimes the Teenie Weenies find the things that Tom has carried off, for the bird really doesn't want them. He just loves to tease the little people.

While several of the Teenie Weenies were returning from Grandma Pettigob's house with a few snippets of dress goods, they noticed Tom sitting on the top of an old apple tree.

"We'd better walk under those thick bushes," said the Sailor, pointing to a thicket near the tiny trail that leads to the shoe house. "If that Tom sees us, he may try to get some of these snippets."

Each of the men carried a roll of the cloth on his shoulder, and they all followed the Sailor's advice. They made their way through the snow and traveled under the cover of the bushes because it would be difficult for Tom to reach them through the thick brush. Finally they came to an open spot. As they hurried to get under the limbs of a big bush, Tom settled on a twig and caught the bundle of snippets from the Chinaman's shoulder as the little man passed underneath. The Chinaman tried to hold to one end of the cloth, but Tom quickly shook him off and flew away.

The Lady of Fashion burst into tears as Tom flew off with the snippet because it was a very soft piece of silk, and the little lady had expected to make several tiny dresses out of the piece. "Oh, that nasty old Tom!" she cried as the bird disappeared over the top of the trees. "He's as bad as Ginky, but we can never catch him to put him in jail."

The rest of the Teenie Weenies agreed with the little lady and Tom's ears certainly must have burned over all the unpleasant things the Teenie Weenies said about him, for they were all angry over the theft. When the little folk reached the shoe house they saw the piece of silk hanging from the porch roof, where Tom had left it. They all began to laugh, for they saw that Tom had been only teasing.

THREATENED! FORCED TO CONFESS!
I STILL SAY, HANGIN'S TOO GOOD FOR HIM!
HE'S INNOCENT AS A BABE!
GEE! WOULDN'T YUH THINK BY NOW EVER'BODY IN TOWN WOULD RE'LIZE TH' KIND O' GUY JERRY GAWS IS?
NO--TO ADMIT THAT HE'S A ROGUE AND KILLER WOULD MAKE A LOT OF PEOPLE LOOK LIKE BAD JUDGES OF CHARACTER--
AND VERY FEW PEOPLE EVER WILL ADMIT THEIR OWN MISTAKES! HE'S STILL AN INNOCENT HERO TO HALF THE TOWN!
I HEAR HE'S GOT TH' BEST LAWYER IN TH' COUNTY---CAN HE GO FREE?
WELL, HE'LL HAVE A LONG TRIAL---FIRST, THE GRAND JURY MUST INDICT HIM--- THEN, DELAYS---FINALLY, APPEALS---IT CAN TAKE SEVERAL YEARS---
WHEN EVER'BODY KNOWS HE DID IT?
MAYBE TH' MOB WAS RIGHT, AFTER ALL---
ANNIE! THE MOB WAS ALL FOR HANGING JOE! REMEMBER? NO---MOBS ARE NEVER RIGHT---THE LAW MAY TAKE LONGER---BUT IN THE END, IT WILL GIVE HIM JUSTICE!
THEN YOU DON'T THINK SOME SMART LAWYER CAN GET HIM OFF WITH A FEW YEARS IN JAIL---OR MAYBE SCOT-FREE?
NOT A CHANCE, ANNIE--- HE'LL PAY IN FULL FOR HIS CRIMES---
YOU! WHAT DO YOU WANT? YOU CAN'T TOUCH ME! I'M SAFE! AND I'LL NEVER HANG! I'LL BEAT THIS RAP! DO YOU HEAR ME, YOU STUPID OAF?
YOU---AND THAT SMUG CLOWN, WARBUCKS! YOU HAD YOUR CHANCE TO GET ME! HA-HA-HA! LAW, HE SAYS! HA-HA! THAT'S FOR ME! WHY, IN A FEW WEEKS, I'LL BE FREE!
2-15 48
THAT HULKING BUFFOON---LET HIM THINK I BELIEVE I CAN BEAT THIS CASE---BAH! JUST ONE WAY OUT FOR ME! I MUST ESCAPE--
BUT THAT WON'T BE TOO DIFFICULT---EACH DAY I'M ALONE FOR AN HOUR IN THE PRISON YARD---AND I KNOW ONE PLACE WHERE I CAN SCALE THAT WALL---
HE KNOWS HIS ONLY CHANCE FOR LIFE IS TO ESCAPE---AHH---AND THE ONE PLACE MUST BE OVER THE WALL---THERE---IF I WERE TO MENTION THIS TO SAHIB WARBUCKS, HE WOULD SAY NO---SO-O---

THANKS, SOMEBODY, FOR TURNING OFF THE ALARM!
YOUR BREAKFAST, SKEEZIX.
GEE, NINA! THIS IS GLORIOUS!
THERE'S MORE COFFEE WHEN YOU WANT IT.
CLOTHES ALL LAID OUT! WHAT SERVICE!
YOUR FAVORITE CHAIR, DARLING!
I'M SURE YOU'LL ENJOY A FIRE.
DADDY'S PAPER!
THANKS, CHIPPER!
YOU HERE, JUDY?
I CAME OVER JUST FOR THIS.
I MADE YOU SOME BUTTERNUT COOKIES, SKEEZIX.
GOSH, AUNT HESSIE!
TIP BACK YOUR CHAIR, SON.
YOU, TOO, UNCLE WALT?
THIS IS ALL SWELL. I HOPE IT KEEPS UP FOREVER!
IT WON'T, SKEEZIX. IT'S OUR BIRTHDAY PRESENT TO YOU!
